Growth moderates; low capex aids FCF

- Bharti reported a moderate growth in 2QFY24, with India Mobile EBITDA up 3% QoQ on a 1.5% ARPU increase. Consol. EBITDA was flat QoQ, mainly due to the Naira devaluation. Capex declined in 2Q after increasing consistently (India capex at INR57b vs. INR105b in 1Q). As a result, FCF rose to INR54b vs. INR35b in 1Q, enabling a deleveraging of INR14b.
- In the near term, Bharti could see soft earnings growth and subdued FCF growth due to a limited potential for a tariff hike, market share gains and 4G-led mix benefits, along with high capex, including upcoming spectrum renewal. However, over the next 2-3 years, Bharti is well poised to gain from sector consolidation and tariff hikes. Retain BUY on the stock.

India Mobile and Africa EBITDA (CC) growth at 3%/6% QoQ

- Currency devaluation impact: Consol. revenue/EBITDA were hit by a 16% currency devaluation in Africa, resulting in a 1% drop in revenue to INR370b. Conversely, India/Africa CC revenue grew 2%/6% QoQ and EBITDA was up by 2%/7% QoQ (in line).
- India growth moderates but matches RJio: India Mobile's revenue/ EBITDA growth softened to 3% each (vs. 6% QoQ EBITDA growth in 1Q), led by a 1.5% ARPU increase (4G and postpaid-led mix benefits and higher no. of days) and 1% subscriber growth, partly offset by higher network opex with aggressive site adds.
- Home business was the silver lining, with 4% QoQ EBITDA growth (led by subscriber additions). The business has continued to grow steadily for the last 12 quarters. It has expanded to 1,234 cities vs. merely 100 cities in FY20, with 2.5x growth in subscribers in the last three years.
- Moderation in capex improves FCF and deleveraging: Capex declined INR105b QoQ (partly seasonal), which led to FCF generation of INR54b (post-interest). Subsequently, it repaid deferred spectrum liability. Net debt (excl. lease liability) reduced by INR13.6b to INR1,475b. If capex has peaked out, it could drive FCF further. Debt could be further reduced by 10% through INR160b in rights issue call money.
- Superior network capability: Bharti's data traffic and subscribers are each still >50% below RJio's. Yet, it continues to add strong broadband/overall sites (23k/11k), along with accelerated fiberization.
- Soft revenue growth ahead: Given the limited potential of tariff hikes, market share gains and 4G-led mix benefits, growth should moderate going ahead. However, long-term consolidation in the market holds Bharti in good stead.

Key highlights from the management commentary

■ The monetization levers remain intact, aided by 1) a shift from feature phone to smartphone and from prepaid to postpaid, 2) data monetization and 3) price hikes. Bharti has achieved its ARPU goal of INR200 and now targets a long-term goal of INR300.

Aliasgar Shakir - Research Analyst (Aliasgar.Shakir@MotilalOswal.com)

Research Analyst- Tanmay Gupta (Tanmay.gupta@motilaloswal.com) | Harsh Gokalgandhi (Harsh.Gokalgandhi@MotilalOswal.com)

- Capex is expected to moderate in coming years as most of the capex will peak out in FY24, but the company may spend on spectrum renewal in the next fiscal.
   Radio capex is high because of the rollout of 5G and new 4G sites.
- Bharti has paid out a substantial portion of 2015 spectrum charge, carrying a 10% coupon rate. The outstanding balance is INR100b. Incremental FCF will be utilized for spectrum repayment and dividends.
- ARPU increased by INR3 in 2Q, out of which INR1.8 could be from one extra day and INR1.2 from organic growth. In addition, the delta between the 2G base plan (INR179) and the 4G entry-level plan (INR239) reduced to INR60, which left the lower upside compared to previous quarters.

Valuation and view

- In the near term, BHARTI's earnings could soften to a QoQ growth rate of ~2% vs. average 5% seen in the last eight quarters. It could be attributed to moderating growth from 4G mix benefits, low probability of tariff hikes and softening market share gains.
- These factors, along with increased capex intensity (INR377b in FY24E and INR394b in FY25E) for the 5G rollout, rural coverage and possible spectrum renewal spend, should moderate FCF generation and the pace of deleveraging in the near term. Subsequently, the stock may remain range-bound in the near term.
- However, over the next 2-3 years, it has the opportunity to grow its EBITDA by 40-50% and halve its net debt. It is well poised to gain from sector tailwinds coming from a combination of 1) market share gains, 2) improved ARPU led by premiumization of customers and tariff hikes, and 3) non-wireless segments, including Home and Enterprise.
- We value Bharti on FY25E basis, assigning an EV/EBITDA ratio of 10x/5x to the India Mobile/Africa business, and arrive at our SoTP-based TP of INR1,070. We reiterate our BUY rating on the stock.

High OCF drives FCF and debt reduction, but capex remains elevated

- FCF (post-interest) increased to ~INR54b from INR35b QoQ, led by lower capex.
- Capex decreased QoQ to INR92b (vs. INR105b in 1QFY24), led by India Mobile's lower capex of INR57b (vs. INR78b in 1QFY24).
- Net debt (excl. lease liability) declined INR13.6b to INR1,475b.

Airtel Africa valuation remains compelling, can add to Bharti SoTP:

Robust performance across geographies

Revenue/EBITDA up 6%/7% QoQ on CC basis

In 2QFY24, Airtel Africa's reported revenue/EBITDA declined 10% QoQ to USD1.2b/USD611m due to the impact of the devaluation of Nigerian naira. In CC terms, revenue growth remained strong at 6% QoQ to USD1.2b (vs. 7% QoQ in 1QFY24), led by growth in all geographies. The subscriber base grew 3% QoQ (5m adds) to 148m, while ARPU remained flat. Reported PAT declined 17% QoQ to USD138m.

Improved performance across geographies

- Nigeria's CC revenue reported sequential growth of 2% to USD359m, supported by a 5% QoQ increase in blended ARPU. The subscriber base remained flat. Among the segments, voice revenue declined 2% QoQ due to an 8% decline in ARPU, while data revenue grew 5% QoQ led by 5% ARPU growth. The quarter witnessed an increase in churn by 20bp to 3.1%.
- East Africa's CC revenue grew 11% QoQ to USD561m, led by 5% QoQ growth in both subscribers and ARPU. Data ARPU remained flat at USD2.1, while voice grew 9% QoQ to USD1.1. Churn remained flat at 3.8%. EBITDA in CC terms grew 11% QoQ to USD301m and margins stood at 53.7% (+40 bps QoQ).
- Francophone Africa (in CC terms) reported revenue growth of 3% QoQ to USD340m, EBITDA growth of 4% QoQ to USD161m, and margin improvement of 40bp to 47.4%. Revenue growth was mainly driven by 7% QoQ growth in data revenue. Voice revenue recorded a subdued growth of 1% QoQ.

Lower capex and better operating performance drive FCF

- 1H capex remained at USD312m (vs. 310m in 1HFY23). 1H operating FCF was up 5% (vs. 1HFY23) to USD990m, largely due to the improved EBITDA performance (USD1.3b in 1HFY24).
- Net debt remained flat at USD3.3b in 2QFY24.

Highlights from the management commentary

The 2Q performance was majorly hit by the devaluation of Naira at the end of the quarter.

- Capex guidance for the full year remains at USD 800-825m.
- Focus remains on repaying forex-denominated debt and HoldCo debt of USD550m, which is due in May'24. The Group is well positioned to fully repay the debt.
- The translation impact of the Nigerian naira devaluation is expected to be USD900-950m on annual revenue and USD450-500m on annual EBITDA.

Valuation continues to remain compelling

Airtel Africa is trading at 3.8x on FY23. Further, if we exclude the ~11% stake that was sold in the Mobile Money business to MasterCard and TPG Group at a 12x valuation, the remaining Airtel Africa business (growing at over ~12% annually) is valued at 3.1x on FY23. Over FY19-23, Airtel Africa consistently delivered a strong earnings CAGR of ~16%. A strong balance sheet with low leverage and healthy FCF further boosts its capabilities. Assuming a 5x multiple, there could be a potential 8% upside for Bharti. Our SOTP-based TP for Bharti stands at INR1,070, which includes a value of INR126/share from Airtel Africa at 5x EV/EBTDA for FY25E.

Detailed notes

Geographic segments:

- Two verticals with more or less equal sized
- Domestic business as well as data centers, sectors: doubled its growth run rate over the last four quarters and continued to accelerate momentum
- Global business, which serves carriers and OTT companies (including wholesale traffic data, CPaaS), saw a slowdown because large global OTTs deferred their spending.

Strategy

- Looking at opportunities through two key lenses: 1) rural, 2) 150 cities.
- In rural, it has deployed +30k sites to expand coverage in 60k villages.
- Airtel network planning for 150 cities which contribute +80% of post-trade homes and B2B opportunities.

Capex

- SA vs NSA: Airtel will switch to standalone architecture when it is required, and it expects new additional benefits.
- Satellite: Airtel, like RJio, is a mere distributor of third-party satellite constellations. Airtel uses SES for its DTH business, Hughes for VSAT, and OneWeb solutions to serve the Indian market.
- Capex was low in this quarter due to seasonal effects (monsoons). Investments are focused on 5G rollout, rural expansion and fiberization covering homes, B2B and data centers.
- Prudent capital allocation- Almost 66% of 5G sites now offload 4G traffic.
- Capex is expected to moderate from coming years as most of the capex will peak out in FY24. Radio capex is high because of the rollout of 5G and new 4G sites.
- Spectrum: Bharti has paid out a substantial portion of 2015 spectrum charge, carrying a 10% coupon rate. The outstanding balance is INR100b.

Subscriber shift

- Three drivers leading to premium subscriber shift: 1) Family plan, 2) densification of stores (100-150 sqft) to 300 stores with 150-200 under construction, and 3) launch of 5G.
- Markets like Gujarat, Delhi, Mumbai Kerala are penetrated only 7-8% by 2G devices, while places like Bihar, UP, Odisha, Rajasthan there is a high chunk of 2G devices. In the next 3-5 years, all of these 2G users may switch to smartphones.

Tariff

- Bharti is not targeting a higher 5G tariff but plans to strive for an overall tariff hike.
- The core drivers of ARPU remain intact: feature phone to smartphone upgrades, prepaid to postpaid, data monetization, increase in lower tariff prices and growth of international roaming.
- Improvement in ARPU in 2QFY24 was due to one extra day.

AirFiber

- Almost 35% of the acquisitions are through Airtel Black. Here, AirFiber will complement FTTH and help to bridge the gap in catchments with weak fiber reach.
- The equipment cost has been falling and may fall further with an increase in volumes, which will make FWA a good complement to Fiber.
- It has commenced FWA testing in three cities and will be rolling out in full by CY23.

Airtel business:

- Its digital services portfolio, which comprises Airtel IQ, IoT, Ads, Cloud, SD-WAN, and Airtel Finance, contributes 20% of domestic Airtel business.
- Top 500 companies in India account for ~90% of industry growth and Bharti sees strong traction on all lines of business.

5G

- 5G network coverage and customer base continued to grow, though there was no monetization of 5G, given no extra charge for unlimited data plans.
- Currently having 55m unique customers on 5G Plus network across the country.
- Airtel Black customers share grew 500bp YoY
- The user, who moved from 4G to 5G, saw a ~5-8% increase in usage.

Others

- In the last 12 months, Airtel added ~100bp of market share gain from high-end phones.
- DTH: Lost 169k customers in 2QFY24. Revenue growth was driven by the price increase.
- After the Supreme court decision on license fees. The company's calculation and the auditors' calculation are broadly the same.
