Apollo Hospitals Enterprises: Adding growth levers in hospital/healthco business

- ❖ Apollo 24/7 has launched insurance products on its online platform. It would be launching concierge service on its online platform as well. This would aid strong surge in GMV as well as expand margins of Apollo healthco (AHL).
- ❖ APHS plans to add a total of 350-400 stores in FY25 with key focus in Chhattisgarh, MP and Jharkhand. The store addition run-rate is expected to increase in 2HFY25. Further, the APHS has worked on offerings in pharmacy to increase the revenue per store to INR13.3m from INR11.8 in FY22. APHS indicated same store sales YoY growth to be 10% over 15-18M.
- ❖ APHS has chalked out plans to add 2,860 beds over next 3 years n current base of 7,942 operating beds. Also, the occupancy remains at elevated level at 68-69%, driving improved margins in hospital business as well.
- ❖ APHS's Metro: Non-Metro share stood at 57:43 as of Sept'24. With majority bed addition coming in metro cities, the share of metro beds is expected to go up going ahead.
- ❖ In the physical format, APHS plans to add ~570 Apollo 24/7 stores in 2HFY25. These measures is expected to provide comprehensive healthcare services to patient pool.

Stock Performance (1-year)

Adding growth levers in hospital/healthco business

- Apollo 24/7 has launched insurance products on its online platform. It would be launching concierge service on its online platform as well. This would aid strong surge in GMV as well as expand margins of Apollo healthco (AHL).
- APHS has chalked out plans to add 2,860 beds over next 3 years n current base of 7,942 operating beds. Also, the occupancy remains at elevated level at 68-69%, driving improved margins in hospital business as well.
- In the physical format, APHS plans to add ~570 Apollo 24/7 stores in 2HFY25. These measures is expected to provide comprehensive healthcare services to patient pool.
- We value the stock on an SOTP basis (32x 12M forward EV/EBITDA for the hospital business, 14x EV/EBITDA for the retained pharmacy, and 25x EV/EBITDA for AHLL, 22x EV/EBITDA for front end pharmacy and 2x EV/sales for Apollo 24/7) to arrive at our TP of INR8,020. Reiterate BUY.

Healthco – Renewed strategy to drive GMV/profitability

- Healthco has shown considerable improvement in profitability (from an operational loss of INR721 in 4QFY23 to EBITDA of INR520m in 2QFY25), aided by controlled opex and gradual improvement in offline pharmacy distribution margins. However, this affected its GMV run rate. Compared to 73% YoY growth in GMV in FY24, AHLL delivered a modest 5% YoY growth in GMV in 1HFY25.
- We expect growth revival in GMV will be led by the launch of its insurance, consultancy and diagnostic business. The concierge service is expected to be launched in 2HFY25. Apart from product introduction, AHL focuses on cost efficiency and targets to reduce opex per quarter to below INR1.2b by 4QFY25.
- APHS plans to add a total of 350-400 stores in FY25 with key focus in Chhattisgarh, MP and Jharkhand. The store addition run-rate is expected to increase in 2HFY25. Further, the APHS has worked on offerings in pharmacy to increase the revenue per store to INR13.3m from INR11.8 in FY22. APHS indicated same store sales YoY growth to be 10% over 15-18M.
- With funds received from Advent and strategic reset, we expect strong improvement in performance from Operational loss of INR817m to EBITDA of INR6b by FY27.

Hospitals: Metro focused capacity expansion plans

- Post stable operating beds for past two years, APHS plans to expand its bed capacity considerably by 26% (~2,860 beds) with capex of INR34b.
- APHS is planning to add major capacity in south (44% new bed addition) and north (33% of new bed addition). While west and east has 14%/ 8% share in bed addition.
- APHS's Metro: Non-Metro share stood at 57:43 as of Sept'24. With majority bed addition coming in metro cities, the share of metro beds is expected to go up going ahead.
- The improved occupancy at 68-69% also provides impetus to increase the bed capacity to cater to future patient flow. Particularly, the occupancy in Metro region has touched 70% now.

AHLL – Focussed efforts to expand diagnostic network

- AHLL has scaled its efforts in diagnostic business with not only addition of 818 labs over past two years, but also improved average realization per patient.
- Further, it has been able to increase its reach through its online platform, thereby driving better overall profitability
- Overall, we expect 12%/20% sales/EBITDA CAGR in this segment to INR19.4b/INR2b over FY24-27.

Valuation and view

- We expect 20%/ 18% EBITDA/PAT CAGR over FY24-FY27 fueled by a) adding newer offerings and controlled cost driving better profitability of Healthco b) higher number of patients being treated through adding beds/better occupancy, and c) healthy execution in diagnostic business.
- We value the stock on an SOTP basis (32x 12M forward EV/EBITDA for the hospital business, 14x EV/EBITDA for the retained pharmacy, and 25x EV/EBITDA for AHLL, 22x EV/EBITDA for front end pharmacy and 2x EV/sales for Apollo 24/7) to arrive at our TP of INR8,020. Reiterate BUY.

NDA wins BIG in Maharashtra; INDIA alliance retains Jharkhand

NDA's victory to lift market sentiment; growth pick-up crucial

- The staggering victory of the ruling NDA alliance in Maharashtra should bring the undercurrents back in the markets, in our view. For Maharashtra, the last five years were characterized by political instability, with frequent musical chairs at work for the CM post. This decisive verdict ends the chronic instability in one of India's most industrialized and economically important states. Moreover, the BJP's strong performance (won 132 seats; majority mark 145) will ensure stability in the governance and bring renewed focus on infra development.
- Markets have seen a decent correction in the last two months, with the Nifty50 /Nifty Midcap 100/Nifty Smallcap 100 falling ~9% on the back of moderate corporate earnings in 1HFY25, relentless FII selling since Oct'24 (~USD 14b), a fragile geopolitical backdrop, and a strengthening dollar index after the victory of Donald Trump in the US election. The anxiety around Maharashtra elections had further muddied the waters.
- With elections now behind and the BJP getting a strong boost from Haryana and Maharashtra elections, we expect the government to now focus on spending (1HFY25 govt. spending is flat YoY and is down 17% for Capex spending). This poll result, coupled with a recovery in rural spending (on the back of good monsoon and expected strong Kharif output) should improve the demand narrative at the margin. The wedding season in 2HFY25 (30% higher weddings YoY) will also provide a fillip to demand.
- We also expect modest recovery in corporate earnings in 2HFY25E (MOFSL coverage earnings expected to grow 9% in 2H vs flat YoY in 1H and Nifty earnings expected to grow 7% in 2H vs. 4% in 1H). The change in sentiment can initiate a mini risk-on rally, in our view. Given the recent correction, we believe valuations, especially for largecaps, are quite reasonable now at 19.3x FY26E EPS. Midcaps and Smallcaps are still trading at expensive valuations, with NSE Midcap 100/NSE Smallcap 100 trading at a P/E of ~30x/~23x. The volatile geopolitical backdrop and movement in dollar index will be the near term monitorables.

View on elections/politics: Key readings

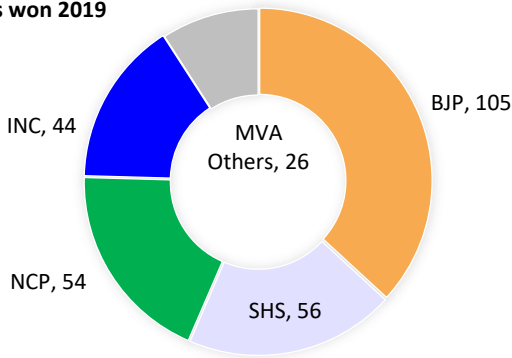

Election results for Maharashtra/Jharkhand assembly and several by-polls in various states:

- The NDA (Mahayuti) alliance has swept the Maharashtra elections by a huge margin by winning 233 out of 288 seats, way ahead of the highest exit poll prediction. This is the best-ever performance by a party/alliance in Maharashtra since 1990. The BJP has bettered its previous high of 122 seats won in 2014 state elections. Incidentally, this is the lowest ever tally of Congress (16/288 seats).
- Magnitude of the verdict: The magnitude of victory is unprecedented in many sense - a vote share of ~50% for the winning alliance (a huge gap of 15% vs. opposition's vote share of 35%), comprehensive victory across all six regions of Maharashtra (Vidarbha, Marathwada, Western Maharashtra, North Maharashtra, Mumbai, Thane & Konkan), with the NDA winning 70-87% of seats in all regions, barring Mumbai, where it won 64% of seats, an unprecedented 91% hit rate for the BJP (won 132 out of the 145 seats it contested). The second-largest party in the NDA is Shiv Sena (Shinde), which won 57 seats, 10 more than the combined tally of the entire opposition alliance. First time in six decades in Maharashtra, an opposition party has failed to secure 10% of seats which is a pre-requisite for appointing a Leader of Opposition in the assembly
- The results came in the context of a poor performance by the NDA in the recently concluded Loksabha Elections in Jun'24, where it could win only 17 seats out of 48. Those 17 seats extrapolated to 123 assembly seats. Thus, in five months, NDA essentially moved from 123 to 235 seats, though LS and Assembly elections can't be compared on a like-to-like basis.
- The tide has turned so forcibly that Congress, which won 13 seats out of 17 in Loksabha, won only 16 seats out of the 102 it contested in the state election. Maharashtra sends 48 seats to Loksabha – the second highest in India after Uttar Pradesh, which has 80 seats.
- The turnaround in the fortune of the BJP-led alliance in Maharashtra is attributed to a quick course correction by the BJP. The launch of the Ladki Bahin welfare scheme (INR1,500 transferred per month to bank accounts of eligible women) has brought good dividends for the ruling alliance, apart from better campaign management, alliance seat-sharing and last-mile connect with voters.
- Jharkhand: The ruling INDIA alliance has won Jharkhand comfortably, with JMM (Jharkhand Mukti Morcha) winning in 56 out of 81 seats and the BJP+ winning 24 seats. Congress secured similar 16 seats in Jharkhand as it did in Maharashtra, though the size of Jharkhand assembly is <math>1/3^{\text{rd}}</math> of Maharashtra. Jharkhand sends 14 MPs to Loksabha. Jharkhand also had its fair share of welfare schemes – Maiya Samman Yojana (INR1,000 per month transferred to the accounts of eligible women), Farm Loan Waiver of INR4b for 1.8lakh farmers.
- By-polls: The NDA has done well in UP (won 7/9 seats), Rajasthan (won 6/7 seats), Assam (won 5/5 seats), and Bihar (won 4/4 seats), while the INDIA alliance won 6/6 seats in West Bengal and 3/3 in Karnataka.
- Politically, this verdict will strengthen the BRAND MODI after a small setback in the Loksabha 2024 elections. Winning a big state like Maharashtra in such a dominating fashion indicates some strategic course correction by NDA. It will also stall the momentum of the INDIA alliance, which was gaining ground after the Loksabha elections. It will also have repercussions on the intra-alliance dynamics and brainpower of different constituents of the INDIA alliance. From a policy perspective, the results of both Maharashtra and Jharkhand elections highlight the role of women-oriented welfare schemes, and to that extent, create concerns about the potential policy choices that the incumbent state governments going into polls in the near future (Delhi, Bihar in CY2025) will be tempted to adopt. This can have an important bearing on the fiscal health of state governments and potentially shift the spending away from the more productive capital investments toward the less productive but instantly gratifying welfare/subsidy spending.

Growth drivers beyond PLI

Improved wallet share, new segments, backward integration to support growth

We assess Dixon’s growth and margin profile beyond PLI in light of market concerns over its long-term growth and margins. In this note, we try to highlight that 1) despite PLI ending in FY26, the mobile segment will continue to deliver healthy growth, driven by client additions, improved wallet share, and export opportunities; 2) margins will be supported by company’s initiatives for backward integration in the post-PLI period; and 3) scale-up in other segments will also support growth. We thus expect the company to continue to benefit from the scale-up in existing segments, the addition of new segments, backward integration, and ODM mix improvement. We maintain our estimates and TP of INR17,500. Reiterate BUY.

Assessing long-term growth of mobile and EMS segment beyond PLI

Dixon’s mobile segment is witnessing a sharp ramp-up in revenues, led by improved volumes from existing clients as well as Ismartu integration. We expect the mobile and EMS segment to deliver a revenue CAGR of 63% over FY24-27, primarily driven by smartphones. Out of 150m mobile smartphones sold in India, the outsourcing opportunity is almost 85m-90m, and Dixon aims to capture 35-40% of this opportunity by FY27 which will grow further. . Thus, despite the PLI scheme ending in FY26, we expect a CAGR of 16% in consolidated revenues beyond FY27, which will be driven by 1) incremental client additions in mobile through Longcheer tie-up; 2) scope of improving wallet share with existing clients to even up to 30-40%, with the exception being Motorola, where Dixon is taking care of its 80-90% of volumes; 3) shifting toward premium mobiles such as Compal; 4) potential export opportunities as Dixon would achieve a scale of nearly INR450b in mobile itself by FY27.

We expect ramp up of IT hardware, telecom, refrigerator and other segments to contribute to incremental revenues beyond mobile

Beyond mobile phones, we expect other segments, such as IT hardware, telecom, wearable and hearable, to also gain scale and contribute to incremental revenues. We expect Dixon to gradually scale up IT hardware revenues as it has already on-boarded 4 out of top 5 players in IT hardware segment. For IT hardware, the scale-up is expected in coming quarters, with production for Lenovo to begin in 3QFY25 and Asus in 4QFY25. Dixon’s telecom segment revenues have grown from INR173m in FY22 to INR6.9b in FY24 and will grow further from incremental requirements from Bharti for set-top boxes and GPONs. In the telecom segment, Dixon has seen strong growth and plans to double its capacity in Noida. In wearables and hearables, Dixon clocked strong volumes of TWS and has a healthy order book. The majority of TWS production for BOAT is done by Dixon. Further, it will add smartwatches to its portfolio, which will boost revenue growth.

Exploring new areas to further aid growth

Dixon is looking for opportunities in the EV sector, mainly focusing on manufacturing components such as electronic modules and PCB assembly. Further, the company is exploring opportunities to enter the industrial EMS sector and is in advanced discussions with major semiconductor brands to serve their requirements for PCB assembly. Dixon is also in discussion with large global ODMs to expand its product portfolio further to servers and AI-ready data centers, components of which will be a part of the updated government scheme, PLI 2.0, for IT hardware. Once these opportunities are finalized, we expect incremental growth in revenues.

Margins beyond PLI incentives will be supported by backward integration

With a dominant share of revenues coming from the low-margin mobile segment, we expect overall consolidated EBITDA margin of 3.9%/4.0%/4.1% for FY25/26/27. Even after PLI incentives end in FY26, we do not expect a sharp contraction in margins, adverse impact on margins will be offset by incremental contribution from backward integration toward components particularly display manufacturing (see Exhibit 7). Once component manufacturing commences, the company expects to earn double-digit margins on component sales. We expect the company to target a larger share of bill of material of mobile and LED TV after display manufacturing commences; hence, we factor in margin support from backward integration in our long-term assumptions.

Financial outlook

We maintain our estimates and expect a CAGR of 48%/49%/56% in revenue/EBITDA/PAT over FY24-FY27. The revenue growth would be mainly driven by EMS (including mobile and IT hardware), consumer electronics, and new emerging segments such as refrigerators, wearables and hearables, and telecom networking products. We expect an EBITDA margin of 3.9%/4.0%/4.1% for FY25/FY26/FY27, led by increased backward integration and the improving share of high-margin segments. This will result in a PAT CAGR of 51% over FY24-27. Further, we expect the working capital to remain comfortable at (-1) and a capex of INR5b every year over FY25-27. With efficient capital allocation, we expect RoIC to remain strong going forward.

Valuation and recommendation

The stock is currently trading at 86.5x/66.1x P/E on FY26E/FY27E earnings. We maintain our estimates and reiterate BUY rating on Dixon with a DCF-based TP of INR17,500.

Key risks and concerns

The key risks to our estimates and recommendation would come from the lower-than-expected growth in the market opportunity, loss of relationship with key clients, increased competition, and limited bargaining power with clients.

On track for sustainable growth

- Diversified service offerings (Freight, Supply Chain, and Seaways), coupled with sectoral resilience, helped TRPC maintain double-digit growth in 1HFY25. Total revenue grew 11% YoY in 1HFY25, supported by double-digit growth across business segments (11%/13%/17% YoY in Freight/Supply Chain/Seaways), despite margin pressures in Freight and Supply Chain.
- In Seaways, TRPC expects capacity utilization to remain high in 2HFY25, with only one dry-dock planned near FY25 end.
- Over FY21-24, the supply chain business has delivered a 16% revenue CAGR, aided by robust automotive demand. The segment is expected to maintain the double-digit rate given stable demand in the auto industry, as well as the retention and expansion of businesses with existing clients.
- The freight division is likely to benefit from a higher LTL contribution (40% by FY26E vs. 36% in Sep'24), a shift from the unorganized sector, and traction in multi-modal logistics. We expect a revenue CAGR of 14% over FY24-27.
- With a well-diversified logistics portfolio and strong multimodal infrastructure, TRPC is well positioned to capitalize on India's expanding logistics needs. We expect TRPC to achieve a 15% revenue CAGR over FY24-27, driven by continued growth in the supply chain division, a rising proportion of LTL shipments within the freight division, and a presence across the multi-modal logistics value chain (including a JV with Container Corporation for rail transportation). We reiterate our BUY rating with a TP of INR1,290 (based on 18x Sep'26 EPS).

Higher capacity utilization and addition of new ship(s) to boost growth

- In the Seaways division, revenue increased 17% YoY in 1HFY25, with EBIT margin improving ~400bp YoY to 30%. This improvement can primarily be attributed to higher freight rates and availability of all six ships during 1HFY25.
- The company is in the process of acquiring two new ships, with delivery expected in 2.0-2.5 years. It is also open to purchasing second-hand ships in the near term, though this seems less likely given the current circumstances.
- We expect the seaways business to post a 13% revenue CAGR over FY24-27.
- Over the long term, management aims to increase the capacity in this business by 50% and expects a sustainable EBITDA margin of 30%.

Supply Chain to be key growth segment for TRPC

- The Supply Chain division saw strong growth of 13% YoY in 1HFY25, despite mixed trends in key sectors such as automotive, FMCG, FMCD, and quick commerce. The division has successfully leveraged sector-specific demand, particularly in warehousing and multimodal logistics services. This demand is supported by the expansion of TRPC's hub-and-spoke network, especially for automotive logistics, enabling efficient distribution across regions.
- The business operates with a strong asset base, including ownership and lease of modern warehouse facilities totaling 15m sq. ft. Additionally, the company has a customized fleet of over 5,500 trucks and trailers, stainless steel tank containers, and other physical assets.

- This is expected to be the fastest-growing segment for TRPC due to continued growth in the auto segment and opportunities in the defense and EMS sectors. We expect the Supply Chain business to report a revenue CAGR of 16% over FY24-27.

High proportion of LTL and branch network to aid growth in Freight business

- TRPC operates over 4,600 trucks and has 25 strategically located hubs across India, which enable its freight division to expand its distribution network and improve reliability in cargo consolidation and transportation. Further, TRPC intends to open 75 new branches for its Freight business in FY25 (32 added in 1HFY25), in addition to 30 branches added in FY24.
- TRPC reported 11% YoY growth in its freight services in 1HFY25, driven by network expansion.
- The freight division is likely to benefit from a higher LTL contribution (40% by FY26E vs. 36% in Sep'24), a shift from the unorganized sector, and traction in multi-modal logistics. We expect a revenue CAGR of 14% over FY24-27.

Valuation and view

- TRPC is benefiting immensely from being a multi-modal logistics provider. It is the only player in the domestic logistics industry that offers services across road, rail, and sea. TRPC's established infrastructure, long-standing customer relationships, and experienced management team should boost its position as a preferred 3PL partner.
- We expect TRPC to deliver a CAGR of 15%/19%/18% in revenue/EBITDA/PAT over FY24-27. We reiterate our BUY rating on the stock with a TP of INR1,290, based on 18x Sep'26E EPS.
