The CROSSOVER quarter!

As we step into the 1QFY26 earnings season, the first six months of 2025 have proven to be one of the most eventful periods, characterized by heightened geopolitical tensions and international economic hostilities, culminating into both kinetic and non-kinetic wars. This spawned not just heightened market volatility (S&P 500 VIX touching 50%+ and India VIX touching 20%+) but also a high level of economic uncertainty and ambivalent signals for monetary policymakers, adversely affecting corporate earnings visibility. Despite such an adverse backdrop for equities, the global equity markets, including India, have shown impressive resilience in 2025, with Korea (+25% in 6M), China (+20%), Germany (+19%), and Brazil (+19%) leading the way, while India has also recouped 6% since Jan'25.

Markets seeing beyond the haze; India stays an oasis of relative stability

Investors have chosen to look beyond the near-term geopolitical haze and focus more on long-term market cycles. While the Indian equity market has underperformed EM in CYTD25, it has still risen by 6% during the year, despite facing its own geopolitical challenges and a full-scale kinetic war. Amidst the pall of geopolitical gloom, the Indian economy is standing out for its relative economic stability, with several macro parameters turning favorable and corporate earnings expected to be on a progressively improving cycle going forward. We expect MOFSL/Nifty to post full-year PAT growth of 14%/11% in FY26 compared to 4%/5% in FY25.

Government and policymakers doing 'whatever it takes'

A key standout feature in 1HCY25 has been the policymakers' and government's swift response to address economic challenges. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has adopted a highly accommodative stance, implementing an unexpected 100bp cut in the repo rate during CY25TD and a cumulative staggered reduction of 150bp in the Cash Reserve Ratio (CRR). This has been complemented by injecting liquidity into both the money and foreign exchange markets through multiple rounds of Open Market Operations (OMOs) and foreign exchange swaps, along with regulatory support by rolling back restrictions on various lenders. The government had also foregone INR1tn of personal income tax in the FY26 Union budget and has undertaken few confidence-building measures. The government has also received a record INR2.7tn in RBI dividend, which will find its way through the course of the year. Moreover, after a prolonged uncharacteristic slack in capex in 9MFY25, the government has again embarked on big capital spends (INR 2.4t in Mar'25 was a record), with the past five months' (Jan-May'25) capital spending growing at 41% YoY vs. 2% YoY in 9MFY25.

Macros improving; contained inflation, bountiful monsoon hold promise

Various macro parameters have started to exhibit signs of improvement. Most strikingly, inflationary impulses have been effectively managed, with the latest CPI print reading at 2.8% and WPI print at 0.4%, despite potentially inflation-stoking developments such as the tariff war, ongoing conflict in the Middle East, and the Russia-Ukraine war. The real GDP growth for 4QFY25 surprised materially on the upside (7.4% YoY), while FY26 real GDP growth expectations stand at 6.4% and nominal

MOFSL Universe to clock ~10% earnings growth in 1QFY26E

GDP growth at 10.5% YoY. Monsoon rainfall to date has been bountiful (10% above LPA) and reasonably well distributed both temporally and geographically. This holds promise for a strong Kharif output and is likely to further bolster rural sentiment, where rural spending has already grown impressively at an 11-quarter high of 6.6% in 4QFY25. Conversely, urban consumption should witness a boost, as the effects of personal income tax forbearance begin to materialize, with households anticipated to adjust their spending budgets to account for tax savings over the next few quarters. Domestic systemic liquidity, which experienced a deficit in 2024, has returned to surplus, prompting the RBI to intervene and absorb some excess short-term liquidity through the Variable Rate Reverse Repo (VRRR) window.

Domestic equity flows remain a key pillar of strength; FIIs return

The flows into Indian equity mutual funds have continued unabated despite all the worries of the past five months, serving as a cornerstone of the Indian equity markets. For 1HCY25, DII inflows have reached USD42b, as retail investors have maintained their confidence in Indian equities. In addition, the FII flows, which had turned sharply negative in the first few months of CY25 due to the then strength of USD and expectations of US economic resilience, have also reversed course. This shift comes amid an altered perception over the sustainability of US dollar as reserve currency and the weakness of US economy, following the announcement of reciprocal tariffs. While FII flows for the year still stand at a negative USD8.2b, the past three months (Apr-Jun’25) have witnessed successive inflows of ~USD5.4b – indicating foreign investors’ renewed faith in Indian equities.

First quarter likely to be ‘The Crossover’ quarter for earnings

We perceive 1QFY26 as the “Crossover quarter,” which should mark the crossing-over from a subdued low-single-digit earnings growth of FY25 towards a more sustainable double-digit earnings growth over the four subsequent quarters. Bottom-up aggregates of our analyst estimates suggest a 10%/5% YoY growth in 1QFY26 MOFSL/Nifty earnings. For the remainder of FY26, the bottom-up aggregate of our analyst estimates suggests a 12%/15%/14% YoY growth in 2Q/3Q/4Q FY26 PAT of MOFSL universe and 6%/13%/16% YoY growth in NIFTY PAT. Even excluding commodities, MOFSL/Nifty earnings are expected to grow at a much better cadence of 9%/15%/18% and 5%/11%/16%.

Sectoral breadth for earnings in 1QFY26 looks promising

The expectation of a 10% YoY growth in MOFSL 1QFY26 earnings is skewed by a sharp 42% YoY growth in the O&G sector, and excluding global commodities, the growth rate will still be a modest 6%. However, the key highlight of the quarter is anticipated to be the better sectoral breadth of earnings growth. Multiple sectors are expected to post double digit PAT growth in 1QFY26 viz. Cap Goods (+12%), Cement (+35%), Chemicals (+10%), EMS (+46%), Logistics(+20%), Healthcare (+11%), Real Estate (+40%), Retail (+23%), Staffing (+11%), Telecom (Loss to Profit), Utilities (+12%). Lesser sectors are likely to experience muted earnings growth or even a decline in earnings. These sectors include: Technology (+7%), Consumer (+3%), BFSI (+3%), Metals (-4%), Autos (-10%). Number of Sectors likely to post negative growth is expected to be lower at 2 (Autos and Metals) in 1QFY26 vs. 6 sectors in FY25 – indicating improving dispersion of growth. Interestingly, for full year FY26 we currently do not factor in any sector to post negative PAT growth.

Sectoral PAT growth for the quarter-ended Jun'25 (YoY %)

Stage set for a healthy economy and market performance in 2HFY26

■ We believe that all the previously mentioned stimulative monetary, fiscal, and regulatory accommodations should begin to yield significant results starting 2HFY26. This is anticipated to result in improved economic expansion and corporate earnings growth, benefiting from a benign base of 4%/5% FY25 PAT growth for MOFSL/Nifty. While Indian equity market has risen over the past few months based on these expectations, it has still experienced both time and price corrections from the highs reached in Sep'24. Hence, we remain constructive about Indian equities and view India as one of the unique markets that offers an uncommon trifecta of size, growth, and diversification – a theme we have been highlighting. While valuations have crept above long-term averages, with Nifty currently trading at 21.7x 12-month forward – at a 5% premium to LPA, we do not consider it to be in the overheated zone. We see potential for further market up-move, especially in an environment of improving corporate earnings growth, low interest rates, ample liquidity, and macroeconomic recovery. Our model portfolio is tilted towards domestic names, driven by expectations of a domestic recovery. While SMIDs trade at expensive valuations, we have picked select small- and mid-cap high-conviction names in our portfolio.

Earnings highlights – 1QFY26E | O&G to drive modest earnings growth

- We expect the MOFSL earnings to grow 10% YoY, while those of Nifty would also grow by a modest 5% YoY in 1QFY26. Excluding financials, the earnings are expected to grow 14% YoY and 6% YoY, whereas, excluding global commodities (i.e., Metals and O&G), the MOFSL Universe and Nifty are likely to report 6% and 4% YoY earnings growth, respectively, for the quarter.
- The overall modest earnings growth is expected to be anchored by O&G (+42% YoY), Telecom (loss-to-profit), Technology (+7%), NBFC-Lending (+8%), PSU Banks (+5%), and Healthcare (+11%), which are likely to contribute 89% of the incremental YoY accretion in earnings. Conversely, Automobiles (-10%), Metals (-4%), and Private Banks (-3%) are likely to contribute adversely to earnings.
- Sales and EBITDA of the MOFSL Universe are likely to grow 4% and 10% YoY, while for the Nifty, we expect sales and EBITDA to improve 7% YoY and 6% YoY, respectively. Ex-Commodities, EBITDA of the MOFSL Universe/Nifty is likely to grow 7%/6% YoY.
- The MOFSL Financial Universe is expected to post a muted 3% YoY earnings growth, primarily due to weak performance by Private Banks and subdued growth from PSU Banks. The Pvt. Banks sector is projected to report a second quarter of earnings decline (of 3% YoY) since Mar'20, while the PSU Banks Universe is likely to clock moderate earnings growth of 5%, the lowest in 20 quarters. The earnings of Insurance Universe are expected to moderate to 4% YoY. NBFC-lending is likely to post modest 8% YoY growth (sequentially higher), and NBFC non-lending is set to record modest earnings growth of 11% YoY, the lowest in 10 quarters.
- The O&G Universe earnings are expected to grow 42% YoY, fueled by OMCs.
- The Telecom universe is likely to post the third quarter of profit of INR10b in 1QFY26 (vs. a loss of INR17b in 1QFY25 and a profit of INR5b in 4QFY25), mainly led by continued improvement in margins in Bharti Airtel.
- The Capital Goods sector is projected to report a healthy earnings growth of 12% YoY, moderating from a high base of 28% YoY growth in 1QFY25, marking the second consecutive quarter of posting less than 15%+ earnings growth after seven consecutive quarters.

- The Healthcare universe is likely to report 11% YoY earnings growth, moderating after posting eight quarters of 15%+ earnings growth.
- The Cement universe is expected to report strong earnings growth of 35% YoY in 1QFY26. The sector is likely to clock the first quarter of earnings growth after four consecutive quarters of significant earnings decline.
- After a modest performance in 4QFY25, the Real Estate universe is likely to deliver a strong quarter with earnings surging 40% YoY.
- The Chemicals sector is likely to report a 10% YoY earnings growth, the second quarter of earnings growth after declining for seven consecutive quarters.
- The Technology sector is likely to deliver modest earnings growth of 7% YoY in 1Q, the lowest in five quarters, and marking the eighth quarter of single-digit growth.
- The Consumer sector is expected to post weak earnings growth of 3% YoY, following three consecutive quarters of earnings decline.
- The Auto sector is likely to report a weak quarter with a 10% YoY earnings dip.
- The Metals universe is projected to report a 4% YoY decline in profits after reporting four quarters of earnings growth.
- We expect the EBITDA margin (ex-Financials) to expand 140bp for the MOFSL Universe to 18.2%. Conversely, for the Nifty-50, the margin is likely to remain flat at 21.1% (ex-Financials) during the quarter.
- In 1QFY26, the MOFSL large-cap/mid-cap universe is likely to register a PAT growth of 8%/21%, while the small-cap universe earnings during the quarter are projected to remain flat YoY. Moreover, sales for large-/mid-/small-caps are likely to grow 4%/3%/3% YoY, and their EBITDA would clock 9%/19%/6% YoY growth for the quarter.
- Sales/EBITDA/PAT of the MOFSL Universe are likely to report a two-year CAGR of 6%/7%/6% over Jun'23-Jun'25.
- FY26E earnings highlights: The MOFSL Universe is likely to deliver sales/EBITDA/PAT growth of 5%/12%/14% YoY. The Financials, O&G, and Metals sectors are anticipated to be the key earnings drivers with 8%, 18%, and 11% YoY growth in FY26E, respectively. These three sectors are projected to contribute 52% of the incremental earnings for the MOFSL Universe in FY26.
- Nifty EPS cut for FY26E/27E: We reduce our FY26E/FY27E Nifty EPS by 1.2%/0.4% and expect it to grow 11%/17% YoY to INR1,122/INR1,308. The BFSI, Auto, Consumer, Healthcare, Metals, and Retail sectors have led to the majority of the earnings cut.

Model portfolio: Key changes

Our model portfolio broadly reflects our preference for growth visibility and domestically focused plays in a challenging global environment. As we anticipate a gradual recovery in earnings by FY26, we marginally raise our weights in mid- and small-cap stocks. We discuss the key changes in our model portfolio below:

- We are OW on BFSI, Industrials, & Healthcare, while we are UW on Oil & Gas, Cement, and Metals. We upgrade Automobiles from UW to Neutral. We have also made several additions from a bottom-up standpoint across sectors.
- FINANCIALS: We retain our OW stance on BFSI and have raised allocation to ICICI Bank further by trimming 100bp from Kotak Mahindra Bank. After a very strong outperformance since our upgrade in Dec'24, we have recently downgraded BSE from BUY to Neutral and replaced BSE with UTI AMC in the model portfolio. We expect UTI AMC to report AUM/revenue/core PAT CAGR of 17%/13%/20% over FY25-27. Sustained strong performance has been a key re-rating driver for AMC stocks. UTI AMC's discount to other players has widened over the past few months. We are also incorporating Niva Bupa into the model portfolio. We prefer Niva Bupa due to its strong growth, diversified distribution and product mix, and strong management team.
- TECHNOLOGY: We maintain our Neutral stance on IT. We add further weights to Mid-Cap IT by replacing TCS with Hexaware. We are adding Hexaware to the model portfolio as its focus on high-value, scalable clients, as well as its execution through its "Land, Ramp, and Expand" client mining strategy, has driven steady revenue growth. With ~21% EPS CAGR over CY24–26, HEXT sits in the top growth quadrant among mid-cap peers – its strength in client mining and improving margin profile offer compelling risk-reward.
- CONSUMPTION: We continue to remain OW on Discretionary and UW on Staples. We are further reducing our weights in Staples by replacing HUL with Radico Khaitan. We believe that Radico will deliver strong earnings growth over the next 3-5 years, considering the opportunity it has to scale up its P&A portfolio in the industry. Over FY25-28, we expect Radico to deliver a 16% revenue CAGR, fueled by strong growth in the P&A segment. Overall volume growth is projected at 9%, driven by a robust 15% CAGR in the P&A portfolio. Additionally, the EBITDA margin is expected to improve from 13.9% in FY25 to 16.2% in FY28E (similar to FY19), supported by premiumization. We model an EBITDA and APAT CAGR of 22% and 30% over FY25-28E, respectively. We are also replacing Trent with Jubilant Foodworks. JUBI's focus on customer acquisition and driving order frequency has led to strong delivery growth. Value offerings and product innovation will continue to drive order growth in FY26. We model a recovery in operating margin for the India business to 13.5% in FY27 from 11.9% in FY25, after witnessing a 300bp dip in EBITDA margin (pre-IND AS) during the last two years.
- AUTOMOBILES: We upgrade Automobiles from UW to Neutral by adding 100bp each to our existing positions in M&M and TVS Motors.
- INDUSTRIALS: This sector remains our favorite theme, and we maintain our OW stance and weights in the sector with allocation towards L&T, Dixon Technologies, and Kaynes. We replace ABB with Bharat Electronics. We are adding BEL to our model portfolio, as we anticipate it will continue to benefit from the increase in defense spending in India, along with the emergency procurement pipeline being developed by the Ministry of Defence (MoD). We expect valuations to remain expensive due to the opening up of export markets for larger platforms and increased TAM for the domestic market.
- HEALTHCARE: We retain our OW stance on Healthcare and maintain our weights in Sun Pharma, Global Health, and Dr. Agarwal's Health.

- METALS: We are replacing Tata Steel with Jindal Stainless. We are adding Jindal Stainless to the model portfolio because of capacity additions through organic and inorganic routes, market leadership position, increasing share of high-margin value-added products, and cost-saving initiatives (JV for supply of Nickel, captive power, etc.).
- REAL ESTATE: We are adding Macrotech back to the model portfolio. LODHA has delivered steady performance across its key parameters, and as it prepares to capitalize on strong growth and consolidation opportunities, we expect this consistency in operational performance to continue.
- PIPES: We are also introducing Supreme Industries to our model portfolio. Higher government spending, SI's capacity expansion, and market share gains from unorganized players are expected to drive growth for Supreme. EBITDA margin is likely to expand due to rising EBIT/kg and increasing share of value-added products, leading to a 14%/20%/23% CAGR in revenue/ EBITDA/Adj. PAT over FY25-28.

Markets bounce back from the 1HCY25 lows...

...fueled by robust DII inflows and improving FII sentiments amid easing geopolitical turbulence

- Sustain uptrend after a volatile period...: The Indian market bounced back sharply after a period of heightened geopolitical tension in 2QCY25 and lingering uncertainties around US trade tariffs. Despite the uncertainties around geopolitical conflicts, volatile FII flows, and news flow around US trade tariff announcements, Indian equities saw a steady recovery. The Nifty-50 gained 16% from its Mar'25 lows, rising 8% in CY25YTD. By Jun'25, the market recovered to Sep'24 levels, reaching just 3% below its all-time high. It has clocked a CAGR of 6%/17%/20%/12% over the 1-yr/3-yr/5-yr/10-yr periods.
- ...but underperform global peers: Despite this strong rebound, India underperformed several major global markets in CY25YTD, many of which saw sharper recoveries from a low CY24 base. South Korea (+69%), Germany (+36%), Russia (+32%), Brazil (+31%), France (+18%), the UK (+17%), MSCI EM (+14%), Japan (+11%), and Taiwan (+8%) all outpaced India's (+8%) gain during the period. In contrast, the US and China lagged, each posting 5% growth in CY25YTD.
- Mid- and small-cap outperformance narrows: After a strong rally between Apr'23 and Sep'24, mid- and small-cap outperformance has continued to narrow over the past nine months. The Nifty Midcap-100 and Smallcap-100 indices fell 21% and 25% from their all-time highs, while the Nifty-50 declined 16% by Mar'25. However, they later recovered 25% and 30%, respectively, with the Nifty-50 rising 16% from their respective lows, resulting in marginal negative returns of 2–3% for all three indices over the past one year. Moderating earnings and valuation concerns triggered a sharp sell-off, especially in small-cap stocks. In contrast, mid-caps posted relatively better earnings performance, leading to some cooling off in their valuations. However, valuations remain stretched in small-caps, rich in mid-caps, and above average in large-caps.
- DII flows hit record highs; FII flows remain positive in 2QCY25: DII inflows continue to remain strong, driven by resilient monthly SIP flows of ~USD3b and increasing retail participation. DII inflows of USD 41.5 billion in the first six months of CY25 have already reached 66% of the total inflows recorded in the entire CY24. Meanwhile, easing geopolitical concerns, progress on resolving Trump's aggressive reciprocal tariffs, and expectations of interest rate cuts in the latter half of CY25 have helped stabilize FII flows, resulting in three consecutive months of net inflows for the first time since Oct'24. While retail participation and DII flow momentum are likely to remain strong, geopolitical developments and a recovery in domestic earnings will be the key factors influencing FII flows into Indian markets. The limited impact of tariffs and ongoing resolutions around them could further strengthen FII flows going forward.

Valuations of Nifty-50 above LPA, while those of broader markets remain elevated

- Nifty is trading at a 12-month forward P/E of 21.7x, 5% above its own LPA. We expect FY26/FY27 EPS to grow 11%/17% to INR1,122/INR1,308.
- India’s market cap-to-GDP ratio has been volatile, dropping to 57% (of FY20 GDP) in Mar’20 from 80% in FY19. Since then, it has remained above the long-term average of 85%, reaching a multi-year high of 146% in Sep’24. Following the market correction and subsequent recovery, the ratio now stands at 127%. We expect nominal GDP to grow 10.5% YoY in FY26 vs. 9.8% growth in FY25.

1QFY26 PREVIEW

O&G to drive earnings; Auto and Pvt. Banks to drag

Expect O&G, Telecom, and PSBs to lead the incremental profit growth in 1QFY26

Of the 18 major sectors under MOFSL Coverage, only 11 sectors are likely to witness an expansion in EBITDA margin YoY

MOFSL (ex-Commodities) earnings anticipated to grow 6% YoY

- The Auto OEMs within our coverage universe are expected to deliver just 2% YoY volume growth in 1QFY26. Within the listed peers, while 2Ws/PV OEMs have posted 1% growth each, CVs are down 2% YoY for 1QFY26. For our OEM coverage universe, while revenue is likely to be flat YoY, we expect EBITDA/PAT to decline 14%/12% YoY in 1QFY26. The bulk of this decline is largely on account of an expected sharp margin pressure at Tata Motors, especially at JLR, given the ongoing global headwinds. Ex-TTMT, we expect EBITDA/PAT for our coverage universe to decline 1%/3% YoY. Our Auto Ancillaries universe would post ~6% growth in revenue, flat EBITDA, and a dip of 3% YoY in PAT in 1QFY26.
- BFSI: We expect a 3% YoY adj. earnings growth for our BFSI universe, which will be driven by modest growth of PSBs (+5%) and NBFC lending (+8%). Insurance (+4%) and NBFC Non-lending (+10%) are also likely to post moderate growth. Private Banks (-3%) would drag the quarter's earnings. NII for our banking coverage universe to report a muted growth at 1.7% YoY (down 0.6% QoQ). For the private banks under our coverage, we estimate PPop to grow 4.2% YoY/3.8% QoQ. PSU banks to report a modest PAT growth of 4.8% YoY amid a decline in NIMs, normalized opex, and higher provisions QoQ.
- NBFCs: We estimate ~14%/13%/8% YoY growth in NII/PPoP/PAT in 1QFY26 for our NBFC coverage universe. Excluding NBFC-MFI, we estimate ~12% YoY growth in PAT for our coverage universe. We expect ~10% YoY growth in AUM for our coverage HFCs, including both affordable and large HFCs. Vehicle financiers are projected to report ~18% YoY AUM growth. Gold lenders (despite the weakness in MFI growth) are likely to record ~29% YoY growth (primarily driven by ~43% YoY growth in MUTH).
- NBFC Non-lending: The non-lending financial industry witnessed a strong recovery across segments in 1QFY26. Positive market sentiment boosted activity in the cash segment and AUM growth for AMCs/wealth managers/distributors. Wealth managers are expected to deliver steady inflows and recurring revenue. For life insurers, premium growth was subdued, though we expect an improvement in profitability. General insurers witnessed a marginal recovery in underlying demand, but they are expected to face elevated claims.
- The Technology sector (IT services companies) is expected to report a modest quarter, primarily due to a host of geopolitical events as well as tariff uncertainty that would affect notable deal signings. Sequential revenue and deal TCY across large-caps could be unexciting (expect QoQ CC growth range of -2.5% to +1.5% for large-caps. Midcaps are expected to outperform once again with a growth range of -2.0% to +7.0%). A weak dollar against a basket of currencies will lead to 100-200bp of QoQ cross-currency tailwinds.
- The Capital Goods sector's earnings are projected to rise 12% YoY (improving sequentially vs. 7% growth in 4QFY25). Ordering momentum remained strong during the quarter, supported by healthy traction across the defense, power T&D, renewables, and B&F segments. The DAC has approved emergency procurement worth INR400b for the Indian Defense Forces. We expect EPC companies to report sequential recovery in margins. Export performance is gradually improving for companies, with expectations of further gains. We will wait to see a broad-based revival in domestic and private capex, along with sustained momentum in order inflows, which would drive a re-rating of the sector from current levels. For 1QFY26, we estimate our coverage companies to report revenue growth of 14% YoY, EBITDA growth of 14% YoY, and PAT growth of 12% YoY.

Sectoral sales growth for the quarter-ended Jun'25 (YoY %)

- For the MOFSL Consumer coverage universe, demand trends across various categories continued to mirror recent historical quarters. Earnings growth for our coverage universe is expected to record muted 3% YoY growth. Staple companies are likely to experience sluggish urban demand and high-cost inventory. We expect a marginal pickup in volume growth, with price hikes supporting 1Q revenue growth. All segments are expected to deliver revenue/EBITDA growth YoY in 1QFY26—staples +6%/+1%, paints & adhesives +3%/+2%, liquor +11%/+6%, innerwear +12%/+21%, QSR +11%/+10%, and jewelry +20%/+27%. QSR companies remained muted in 1QFY26.
- Healthcare: The Healthcare companies under our coverage are expected to report a modest sales/EBITDA/PAT growth of 10%/7%/11% YoY in 1QFY26. Moderation in the domestic formulation (DF) segment, led by weakness in the acute segment and higher competition in select US generics products, is expected to affect performance in 1QFY26. PAT is expected to grow at a higher rate of 10% YoY. In the hospital space, we expect strong execution, supported by bed additions, leading to 17% YoY revenue growth in 1QFY26.
- The Metal companies within our coverage universe are likely to report a weak quarter with a 4% YoY earnings decline. Sales/EBITDA for our coverage universe is likely to grow 2%/6% YoY. We expect ferrous companies to report a volume decline of 11% QoQ (+6% YoY). Muted coking coal costs (USD10-15/t) and healthy NSR are likely to improve EBITDA/t by INR1,500/t during the quarter. Non-ferrous companies under our coverage are expected to post an aggregate revenue and EBITDA decline of 8% and 18% QoQ, respectively, led by muted volumes and sequential price corrections.
- We estimate our Cement coverage universe to post 16%/38%/35% YoY growth in revenue/EBITDA/PAT, led by higher cement prices and strong volume growth. Aggregate cement volume is estimated to grow ~10% YoY to 92mt, aided by inorganic growth. However, on a like-for-like basis, volume growth stood at ~4% YoY in 1QFY26. Blended realization is expected to grow ~4% YoY/QoQ (each) to INR5,565/t. We estimate EBITDA/t to rise ~29% YoY (~4% QoQ) to INR1,104.
- We expect the O&G sector to report flat sales YoY (+7% YoY excluding OMCs), a 25% YoY rise in EBITDA (+5% YoY excluding OMCs), and a 42% YoY increase in PAT (+9% YoY excluding OMCs) in 1QFY26. OMCs: Standalone EBITDA for HPCL/BPCL/IOCL is expected to grow QoQ, driven by an improvement in marketing margins on a sequential basis. SG GRM averaged USD5.7/bbl in 1Q (vs. USD3.2/bbl in 4Q). CGDs: We estimate a 9%/6% YoY volume growth for MAHGL/IGL and a 13% YoY volume decline for GUJGA. Upstream: For ONGC and OINL, we expect oil & gas sales volumes to remain largely flat both QoQ and YoY, while oil realizations are likely to see a sharp sequential decline for both companies. We remain bearish on crude and maintain our Brent price forecast of USD65/bbl for CY25/26.
- The Power Utility companies under our coverage universe are anticipated to report a revenue/EBITDA/adj. PAT growth of 8%/5%/12% YoY in 1QFY26. In Apr-May'25, the country added 6.7GW of renewable capacity (largely solar) and 0.6GW of nuclear capacity, whereas thermal capacity fell by 6.9GW. While current demand remains soft, peak demand months have shown great variability historically, and demand could bounce back in the coming months.

- Telecom: We expect the Telecom sector to report a profit of INR10b in 1QFY26 (vs. a loss of INR17b in 1QFY25). We further project ~2-3% sequential growth in combined wireless revenue/EBITDA for the three private telcos in 1QFY26. We build in a 1.5% sequential uptick in the blended ARPU for the three private telcos and the residual benefit of tariff hikes.
- The Real Estate coverage universe is expected to report strong presales of INR501b, up 59% YoY/51% QoQ, in 1QFY26. Volumes are expected to be 32msf, up 26% YoY/35% QoQ. Collections for our coverage companies are likely to increase 58% YoY to INR293b, implying a collection efficiency of ~58%. Revenue recognition for our coverage is expected to stand at INR167b (up 31% YoY), with EBITDA of INR50b (up 44% YoY) and a margin of 30%.
- The Chemicals sector is projected to report a second consecutive quarter of earnings growth of 10% YoY in 1QFY26 after seven consecutive quarters of decline. The Brent crude price has remained benign at USD 68/bbl in 1QFY26. We estimate our coverage universe to report a sales/EBITDA growth of 10%/5% YoY during the quarter. Aggregate gross margin is likely to contract 40bp YoY, and aggregate EBITDAM may expand 20bp YoY/30bp QoQ.
- The 1QFY26 snapshot: We expect EBITDA/PBT/PAT to rise 10%/5%/10% YoY in 1QFY26 for the MOFSL Universe. Excluding Metals and O&G, EBITDA/PBT/PAT for the MOFSL Universe would grow 7%/flat/6% YoY.
- The EBITDA margins for the Capital Goods, Cement, Consumer Durables, Infrastructure, Logistics, Media, Metals, Oil & Gas, Real Estate, Technology and Telecom sectors are likely to expand, while margins for Automobiles, Chemicals, Consumer, EMS, Healthcare, Retail and Utilities are anticipated to contract on a YoY basis.
- Nifty earnings to grow 5% YoY in 1QFY26: Ex-Commodities, the Nifty earnings are anticipated to rise ~4% YoY. Reliance Inds. Bharti Airtel, JSW Steel, HDFC Bank, and ICICI Bank are likely to drive Nifty earnings, while Coal India, Tata Motors, IndusInd Bank, ONGC, and Maruti Suzuki are projected to drag the same.
- The FY26E snapshot: The MOFSL Universe and Nifty are likely to record 14% YoY and 11% YoY earnings growth in FY26E, respectively. Excluding Metals and O&G, the MOFSL Universe and Nifty should post a 12% and 10% YoY earnings growth, respectively.

Margins likely to be under pressure

Domestic demand continues to be weak across segments

- Auto OEMs in our coverage universe are expected to deliver just 2% YoY volume growth in 1QFY26. Among the listed companies, 2Ws/PV OEMs posted 1% aggregate volume growth each, whereas CV volumes were down 2% YoY.
- For our OEM coverage universe, revenue is likely to be flat YoY, while EBITDA/PAT are likely to decline 14%/12% YoY. Excluding TTMT, EBITDA/PAT for our coverage universe may decline by 1%/3% YoY.
- For auto ancillaries, we expect our coverage universe to post ~6% growth in revenue, flat EBITDA and a decline of 3% YoY in PAT in 1Q.
- TVS (+28%) and MM (+18%) in OEMs and Craftsman (+24%) and Endurance (+12%) in Auto Ancs are likely to outperform peers in 1Q.
- Overall earnings cut has been moderate in 1Q. The only sharp earnings cut has been in SONABLW (19% for FY26) due to the continued weakness in demand relative to expectations.

Demand remains weak in most of the key segments, except tractors

Auto OEMs in our coverage universe posted 1.5% YoY volume growth in 1QFY26. Among the listed companies, 2Ws/PV OEMs reported 1% volume growth, whereas CV volumes were down 2% YoY. In 2Ws, listed OEMs saw 4% YoY decline in domestic market, while exports jumped 25% YoY. RE and TVS continued to outperform peers, with 18% and 17% growth, respectively. On the other hand, BJAUT 2W sales were flat YoY (domestic down 9%, exports up 14%) and HMCL volumes were down 11% YoY. In PVs, MM was the only player that reported strong double-digit growth in UVs at 22% YoY on the back of new launches. MSIL posted just 1% growth YoY, supported by strong 37% YoY growth in exports. On the other hand, TTMT/Hyundai recorded 10%/6% YoY decline in volumes. Discounts also increased QoQ in 1Q as per our channel checks. In CVs, VECV continued to outperform peers with 10% YoY growth in 1Q. On the other hand, AL CV volumes inched up 1% YoY, TTMT CV volumes were down 6% YoY in 1Q. In tractors — the only segment that saw steady demand, the two listed entities posted an aggregate 8.5% YoY growth in 1Q. Here again, MM (+10% YoY) continued to outperform Escorts (+1% YoY).

Margin pressure likely to be visible from 1Q

For our OEM coverage universe, revenue is likely to be flat YoY, while EBITDA/PAT may decline 14%/12% YoY in 1Q. The earnings decline is largely attributed to an expected sharp margin pressure for TTMT, especially in JLR, given the current global headwinds. Excl. TTMT, EBITDA/PAT of our coverage universe may decline 1%/3% YoY. Aggregate EBITDA margin for our coverage universe is estimated to decline 200bp YoY. Excl. TTMT, aggregate EBITDA margin may contract 100bp YoY. Margin pressure stems from a gradual rise in input costs, weak demand and higher discounts. Among our coverage companies, margins are likely to improve only for TVS (+50bp) and AL (+20bp), whereas they are expected to be under pressure for all other OEMs. Among the worst hit companies are TTMT (JLR down 400bp YoY), MSIL (-210bp), Hyundai (-150bp) and EIM (-300bp). For auto ancillaries, we expect our coverage universe to post ~6% growth in revenue, flat EBITDA and a decline of 3% YoY in PAT in 1Q.

Estimated hits and misses in 1QFY26

We expect our auto OEM coverage universe (ex-TTMT), to post 3% YoY decline. TVS (+28%) and MM (+18%) are likely to outperform peers in 1Q. Underperformers for 1Q include TTMT (PAT decline of 34%), Hyundai (-19%) and MSIL (-19%). Our ancillary coverage universe should deliver 3% YoY decline in PAT. Among the laggards are: Sona (-30%), Amara (-15%), CIE (-12%) and BKT and MRF (both -10%). Craftsman (+24%) and Endurance (+12%) are likely to outperform peers in 1Q.

Earnings cuts have been moderate in this quarter

Overall earnings cut has been moderate in this quarter. The only sharp earnings cut has been in SONABLW (19% for FY26) due to the continued weakness in demand relative to expectations.

Two Wheeler segment lags growth expectations in 1Q

Except for tractors, which continued to witness healthy demand, all other segments continued to see a subdued demand environment. In fact, the domestic 2W industry is lagging expectations having posted 4% YoY decline in 1Q. Given the global tariff war, there is likely to be prolonged uncertainty on the global automotive demand outlook, especially for ancillary companies with high global exposure, as global OEMs look to adjust their supply chains to the new reality. MSIL remains our top OEM pick. While its 1Q earnings are expected to be weak, we expect the same to revive in the balance 9M on the back of its new launches and ramp-up in exports. We also like MM for its continued outperformance both in UVs and tractors. In the auto ancillary space, we prefer ENDU and HAPPYFORG for their strong order backlog and ability to outperform core segments.

Bajaj Auto

Neutral
CMP: INR8,397 | TP: INR8,671 (3%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26E|27E: -3|-2

- Total volumes grew just ~1% YoY, supported by ~16% growth in exports even as domestic volumes declined 8% YoY. 2W sales remained flat YoY. 3W sales were up 7.5% YoY.
- Mix was adverse as 2W export mix fell to 38% of total volumes from 52% in 4Q. INR appreciated vs USD by 2%.
- Given weak demand, adverse mix and currency, BJAUT margins may decline 50bp YoY and QoQ to 19.7%. Overall, we expect BJAUT to post flat earnings growth YoY.

Hyundai Motor

Buy
CMP: INR2,240 | TP: INR2,544 (+14%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26E|FY27E: -1|4

- Hyundai posted 6% YoY decline in volumes in 1Q. Exports were the key growth driver (up 13% YoY) even as domestic volumes declined 12% YoY.
- We expect EBITDA margin to decline 150bp YoY to 12% due to weak volumes and high discounts.

Mahindra & Mahindra

Buy
CMP: INR3,176 | TP: INR3,643 (+15%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26E|FY27E: -2|-4

- MM continued to outperform in PVs and tractors, with 22% YoY growth in UVs and 10% YoY growth in tractors.
- In auto segment, margins are likely to be under pressure due to higher EV mix and rising steel prices.
- Overall, we expect auto segment margins to decline 70bp YoY to 8.8%. Tractor segment margins are likely to remain healthy (+30bp YoY to 18.8%).

CMP: INR3,319 | TP: INR3,327 (+0%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26E|FY27E: 0|0

- Escorts underperformed the market leader and posted just 1% YoY growth in tractors in 1Q.
- Overall, we expect Escorts to post stable margins on a YoY basis at 12.3%.
- PAT is likely to grow 16.5% YoY largely due to higher other income from surplus funds

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26E|FY27E: -|-

- India PV volumes down 10% YoY and CV volumes fell 6% YoY.
- Given weak demand, rising input costs and higher discounts, we expect margins to be under pressure for both India PV and CV segments. We factor in EBITDA margin at 5.5% (-30bp YoY) and 10.7% (-90bp YoY) for PV and CV segments.
- JLR volume may be weak given the discontinuation of shipments to US for Apr'25, tariff impact in US, gradual cessation of Jaguar and weak demand in key regions. Hence, JLR volumes to decline 10% YoY in 1Q and margins to decline 400bp YoY to 11.8%.
- Overall, we expect consolidated PAT to decline 34% YoY.

- CV volumes grew just 1% YoY, led by 12% YoY growth in MHCV buses. MHCV trucks fell 3% YoY. LCV up just 1% YoY.
- Input cost may inch up by 0.5% due to high steel prices.
- EBITDA margin to marginally improve YoY to 10.8%.
- Overall, we expect AL to post 9% YoY PAT growth.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY25E|FY26E: -5|-1

- Standalone revenue is expected to grow ~5% YoY, supported by good OEM demand largely ahead of the government regulation on mandatory AC cabins in CVs. On the other hand, while replacement segment is likely to have slowed down, exports have remained weak in 1Q.
- APTY has not taken any price hikes in 1Q.
- Input costs are likely to remain stable QoQ
- India margins to improve 80bp QoQ due to cost control.
- Europe continued to face weak demand due to adverse macro.
- We expect Europe margins to marginally decline YoY to 13.5%.

- Demand was weak in most of its overseas markets. India likely to be the sole growth driver. Overall, we expect BKT to post 3% decline in tonnage in 1Q.
- Key positives include a reduction in input costs (benefit of about 100bp) and better hedge rate. However, these are likely to be largely offset by the weak demand impact and impact of partial tariff absorption in US.
- Margin is likely to largely remain stable QoQ at 25.1%.

- Demand continued to be healthy in 1Q. We expect CEAT to post 11% YoY growth in revenue.
- However, demand for higher-inch tyre in PCR segment was muted.
- Input costs are marginally down QoQ, benefits of which would be visible from 2Q onward.
- EBITDA margin to largely remain stable QoQ at 11.5%.
- Overall, PAT is likely to post 6% YoY growth.

Amara Raja Energy Mobility

Neutral
CMP: INR962 | TP: INR1,049 (+9%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26E|FY27E: -2|-5

- We expect Amara to post a modest 4% YoY growth in revenue, given weak OEM demand and a declining demand from the telecom segment.
- Lead prices are largely stable QoQ. However, rising cost of non-lead alloys and higher power costs are likely to keep margins under pressure.
- EBITDA margins to contract 170bp YoY to 12%.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26E | FY27E: -19| -8

- We expect 10% YoY decline in revenue due to: 1) slowdown in its key US market due to US tariffs, 2) weak offtake at one of its key EV customers, and 3) loss of some sales in India due to no availability of rare earth magnets.
- Given weak demand, an adverse mix and tariff impact, we expect EBITDA margin to decline 140bp QoQ to 24% (down 410bp YoY).
- After approval for its acquisition, SONA would consolidate the Escorts Railway division for three weeks in 1Q. We have not yet included it in our estimates as we await details.
- Given the headwinds highlighted above, we lower our FY26E/FY27E EPS by 19%/8%. The uncertainty around US tariffs and availability of rare earth magnets remain key risks ahead.

- We expect ~7% YoY revenue growth, driven by aftermarket growth in the mobility division and anticipated improvement in the consumer goods segment. However, weakness in 2W OE demand is likely to limit growth.
- Margins to slightly improve by 30bp YoY to 12.3%. As a result, we expect Bosch to post 5.5% YoY growth in PAT.

Comfortably placed

The capital goods sector is comfortably positioned, supported by: 1) strong order book providing healthy revenue visibility, 2) favorable commodity prices offering comfort to margins, 3) strong balance sheet that provides leeway for capex, and 4) favorable government policies, such as plans for emergency defense procurement, focus on renewables, and Make in India initiative. We will wait to see a broad-based revival in domestic and private capex, along with sustained momentum in order inflows, which would drive a re-rating of the sector from current levels. We expect a 14% YoY growth in revenues for our coverage universe. With an improved revenue mix and benign commodity prices, margins are expected to remain stable YoY. However, sequentially, we expect margins to contract, mainly due to the high margin base of defense companies. For 1QFY26, we estimate our coverage companies to report revenue growth of 14% YoY, EBITDA growth of 14% YoY, and PAT growth of 12% YoY. We reiterate our positive stance on LT, KKC, and Bharat Electronics in the large cap space and KOEL and KPIL in the mid- and small-cap segments.

Healthy ordering momentum during the quarter

Ordering momentum remained strong during the quarter, supported by healthy traction across the defense, power T&D, renewables, and B&F segments. The railways segment, which saw a slowdown in FY25, has started showing signs of recovery since Apr'25. Order inflows were strong in 4QFY25, and 1QFY26 has started on a decent note. During the quarter, LT bagged orders across the power T&D segment, as well as in water, buildings, and factories, announcing inflows worth INR150b so far. The Siemens consortium won a major order worth INR41b from the National High-speed Rail Corporation for the Mumbai-Ahmedabad high-speed rail project. In 1QFY26, BHE won ~INR73.5b worth of orders, KECI secured ~INR68.5b, and KPIL acquired ~INR71.5b. Backed by a strong order book and the anticipated finalization of pending pipeline orders, we expect execution for our coverage universe to grow 14% YoY in 1QFY26.

Emergency procurement to augur well for both private and public defense companies

The DAC has approved emergency procurement worth INR400b for the Indian Defence Forces. Key systems prioritized under the emergency powers include surveillance drones, kamikaze drones, loitering munitions, and various types of missiles and ammunition. These emergency powers ensure that equipment is received within strict timelines, helping to meet immediate operational requirements. This is the fifth such tranche of emergency procurement since 2019. 13 contracts worth INR20b under the emergency procurement mechanism have already been concluded. Additionally, DRDO has offered 28 indigenous weapon systems to defense forces for emergency procurement. These include weapons like rockets, missiles, grenades, and anti-drone missiles.

Margin likely to vary across sectors

We expect EPC companies to report sequential recovery in margins as improved momentum continues following the completion of low-margin legacy projects. After seeing an uptick, prices of key inputs have eased. Product companies are continuously focusing on high-margin areas, tech-led offerings, and deeper penetration in tier 3 and 4 markets, enabling them to benefit from better pricing. We expect margins for most product companies to be either maintained QoQ or improve based on the business mix. In recent months, zinc/ aluminum/copper prices have eased by 9%/8%/2% vs. Mar'25 levels, while HRC prices have risen by 5%. A sustained decline in commodity prices is likely to improve margins in future. We, thus, expect ~10bp of YoY margin expansion in 1QFY26 for our coverage universe, while sequentially, margin is expected to contract ~370bp, mainly due to the high margin base of defense companies.

Strong opportunities in international markets

Export performance is gradually improving for companies, with expectations of further gains from increased exports to the US, Europe, and the Middle East. EPC players are already benefiting from opportunities in renewables and renewable transmission projects, and we expect a similar momentum to continue going forward. Overall, engineering companies have shown their intent to ramp up exports in FY26 after cautiously evaluating export markets amid the current geopolitical situation. Defense companies are targeting larger opportunities through the export of major platforms such as Akash missile, MRSAM, and defense control systems, where domestic companies have already established their product quality in domestic markets.

Valuations baking in improved capex spends

The Capital goods sector has already seen outperformance during the quarter on decent results and expectations of capex revival. We expect these valuations to be sustained only on continuity of order inflows as well as earnings momentum. Broadly, capex activity from private sector continues to remain weak. Along with this, defense sector has seen a re-rating on hopes of emergency procurement as well as on NATO's new spending targets on defense and expectations that India would follow the suit. We expect these to be positive for defense sector as it widens the TAM on both domestic and international markets for defense companies. Valuations for transmission sector plays would continue to remain high on continuously improving market opportunities on T&D and renewable.

Our top picks

We prefer companies with a well-balanced revenue mix, control over margins, and the ability to maintain or improve growth profile going forward. We remain selective on the sector and maintain our positive stance on LT, KKC, and Bharat Electronics in the large cap space and KOEL and KPIL in the mid- and small-cap segments.

ABB India

Buy
CMP: INR5,951 | TP: INR6,700 (+13%)
EPS CHANGE (%): CY25 | CY26: -|-

- ABB's revenue growth moderated in 1QCY25, mainly due to a decline in revenue from the process automation segment. We expect revenue to grow 14% YoY in 2QCY25, driven by improved execution and a strong order book.
- Key monitorables include the finalization of pipeline orders, sustainability of margins, outlook on exports, and localization levels.
- We expect margins to moderate YoY on the high base of CY24, while sequentially, we expect margins to sustain at 1Q levels due to volume weakness in process automation.
- We will watch out for incremental inflows from transmission, railways, data centers, transportation, F&B, and private capex to support order inflow growth.
- TP increased to INR6,700 on rollforward to Sep'27 EPS.

Bharat Electronics

Buy
CMP: INR432 | TP: INR490 (13%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | FY27: -2|-3

- We expect revenue growth of 15% YoY, led by the healthy execution of the order book of INR717b.
- Key monitorables include the status of QRSAM and Project Kusha, execution of orders for LRSAM and EW projects, incremental share of exports, and working capital cycle.
- We expect margins to normalize and remain flat YoY at 22.3%.
- The finalization of orders, execution of the huge backlog, incremental share of exports, and further indigenization of modules and subsystems will remain key areas of focus.
- We increase our valuation multiple to bake in the projected rise in overall defense spending and increase our TP to INR490 onroll-forward to Sep'27.

Cummins India

Buy
CMP: INR3,348 | TP: INR4,200 (+25%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | FY27: -|-

- We expect revenue to grow 15% YoY/8% QoQ. We expect YoY growth to be driven by a broad-based improvement across all segments. We expect the powergen segment to benefit from the low base of 1QFY25 as well as price hikes for CPCB 4+ products.
- Key monitorables include demand outlook across segments, the pricing environment in Powergen, and the export trajectory.
- We expect the EBITDA margin to normalize and contract ~110bp QoQ on a high base of 4QFY25 margins. On a YoY basis, we expect a ~20bp contraction.
- Within segments, we expect the powergen segment to benefit from price hikes, while volumes are likely to see only a marginal decline. We also expect exports to grow 30% YoY.
- TP increased to INR4,200 on roll-forward.

Hindustan Aeronautics

Buy
CMP: INR4,911 | TP: INR5,750 (+17%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | FY27: -|-

- We expect revenue growth of 21% YoY, driven by a healthy execution of the opening OB of INR1.8t.
- Key monitorables include the status of Tejas Mk1a deliveries and Su-30 avionics upgrade project, any major deviation in provisions created, and the working capital cycle.
- We expect EBITDA margin to expand ~120bp YoY, aided by increased indigenization and easing of supply chain issues.
- The execution of huge backlog, incremental inflows, and comfortable margin levels will be the key focus areas.
- We increase our TP slightly on roll-forward to Sep'27.

Hitachi Energy India

Sell
CMP: INR19,315 | TP: INR14,200 (-26%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | FY27: -|-

- We expect revenue growth of 43% YoY, led by healthy execution of the opening OB of INR193b.
- Key monitorables include further ramp-up in margins, progress on HVDC projects, and STATCOM order finalization.
- We expect EBITDA margin to expand ~790bp YoY, aided by operating leverage gains and improved order book mix.
- The execution of product and export orders is expected to provide near-term support to revenue and margin.
- TP increased to INR14,200 on rollforward to Sep'27.

Kalpataru Projects International

Buy
CMP: INR1,198 | TP: INR1,450 (+21%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | FY27: -|-

- We expect revenue growth of 23% YoY due to strong execution across segments such as T&D, B&F, and oil & gas, barring the Water segment, which is still slow.
- Key monitorables include execution ramp-up, margin trajectory, customer collections, and outlook on the urban infra and railways division.
- We expect an EBITDA margin of 8.5% (+10bp YoY & QoQ) and gradual improvement through the remainder of FY26.
- We will monitor the working capital cycle closely. The payment status of water projects will also remain a focus area.
- TP increased to INR1,450 on roll-forward to Sep'27 EPS.

Kirloskar Oil Engines

Buy
CMP: INR857 | TP: INR1,150 (+34%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | FY27: -|-

- We expect revenue growth of 4% YoY even on a high base of 1QFY25, driven by strong B2B performance. We expect the Powergen segment's performance to pick up QoQ, driven by improved volumes.
- Key monitorables include outlook on genset demand, pricing environment, and export ramp-up.
- We expect the EBITDA margin to contract 220bp YoY on a high base due to one-offs, but improve 20bp QoQ due to the company's increased focus on higher kVA nodes and better absorption of costs in B2C.
- Ramp-up of the US and Middle East businesses, B2C business, and Arka Fincap performance will be closely observed.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY25 | FY26: -3|-

- We expect revenue to grow 12% YoY, led by improved traction in the smart infra and mobility segments.
- Key monitorables include the demand trajectory of the digital industries segment, private capex pipeline, margin trajectory, and execution of the locomotive order.
- We expect total EBITDA margin to contract ~30bp, primarily due to a low margin in the Digital industries segment, which had a high base in 3QFY24.
- Demand outlook from both the government and private sectors and export outlook are required to be keenly monitored.
- We increase our TP to INR3,450 on roll-forward to Sept'27.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | FY27: - | -

- We expect revenue to grow 12% YoY, driven by industrial products, green solutions, and chemical segments.
- Key monitorables include the finalization of the inquiry pipeline, revival of base ordering, margin outlook, and performance of the Industrial Infra and Chemicals segments.
- We expect EBITDA/PAT growth of 43%/16% YoY. We expect EBITDA margin to expand 180bp YoY to 8.3%, while sequentially, it is expected to contract 140bp.
- The performance of key subsidiaries (FEPL, TOESL) needs to be monitored closely.
- TP increased to INR3,250 on roll-forward to Sep'27 EPS.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | FY27: - | -

- We expect the moderation in domestic demand to continue for some time, while export traction remains robust. We, thus, expect revenue growth of 6% YoY in 1QFY26.
- Key monitorables include a ramp-up in domestic order inflow, inquiry pipeline, and trends in the export and aftermarket business.
- We expect EBITDA/PAT to grow 5%/3% YoY, while margin is expected to contract ~30bp YoY.
- Domestic ordering from the government and private sectors, updates on API turbines, and performance of the 30-100MW segment will be the key areas to monitor.

Robust performance supported by a low base

Volume growth of ~10% for coverage universe, aided by inorganic growth

- We estimate our cement coverage universe (excluding GRASIM) to post 15%/42%/43% YoY growth in revenue/EBITDA/PAT, led by higher cement prices and strong volume growth. Aggregate cement volume is estimated to grow ~10% YoY to 92mt, aided by inorganic growth. However, on a like-to-like basis, volume growth stood at ~4% YoY in 1QFY26. Blended realization is expected to grow ~4% YoY/QoQ (each) to INR5,565/t. We estimate EBITDA/t to rise ~29% YoY (~4% QoQ) to INR1,104. Average EBITDA margin is estimated to expand 3.7pp YoY (flat QoQ) to ~20%.
- The all-India average cement price in 1QFY26 increased ~5% QoQ, led by price hikes across regions during Apr-May'25. The South region saw a steep price rise of ~14% QoQ, followed by the East (~6%), the North and Central (~2% each), and the West (~1%). Despite the early onset of the monsoon, cement prices have remained resilient (so far). However, cement demand was sluggish during the quarter, partly due to unfavorable weather conditions, as initially heatwaves followed by unseasonal rains adversely impacted construction activities. On expanded capacity, average grinding capacity utilization is estimated at ~75% vs. ~80%/87% in 1Q/4QFY25.
- GRASIM's revenue is estimated to increase ~28% YoY. VSF volume/realization is estimated to remain flat, whereas chemical volume/realization is likely to increase ~7%/3%. Revenue from high-growth businesses (Opus and Birla Pivot) is estimated to decline ~2% QoQ to INR21.2b. Overall EBITDA is estimated to decline ~32% YoY to INR2.2b, and OPM is likely to contract 2.2pp YoY to 2.5%. It is estimated to report net loss of INR3.1b vs. loss of INR521m/INR2.1b in 1QFY25/4QFY25.

Profitability anchored in price power; opex/t flat YoY

- Cement volume growth for our coverage companies is estimated at ~10% YoY in 1QFY26, aided by inorganic growth. However, volume growth on a like-to-like basis stood at ~4% YoY. We estimate volume growth of ~17% YoY for UTCEM (including ICEM and Kesoram cement volume). However, on a like-to-like basis, UTCEM's volume growth is estimated at ~6% YoY. ACEM's volume is estimated to grow ~15% YoY (including Penna Cement and Orient Cement volumes). While on a like-to-like basis, its volume is likely to remain flat YoY. Volume growth is estimated at ~18% YoY for ICEM (on a low base), followed by ~8%/6% YoY for JKCE/ACC and ~3% for BCORP/JKLC/TRCL (each). DALBHARA's volume (adj. for JPA volume from base) is estimated to increase ~3% YoY. Volume for SRCM is expected to decline ~3% YoY.
- Average opex/t for our coverage universe is estimated to remain flat YoY (up ~3% QoQ), led by flattish variable and freight costs per ton. Average imported petcoke (US) price declined ~5%/7% YoY/QoQ in 1QFY26 and average imported coal (South Africa) price declined ~16%/6% YoY/QoQ. Lower fuel price benefits were offset by higher raw material costs. We estimate average other expenses/t to decline ~2% YoY (up ~1% QoQ).

- We estimate an EBITDA/t of INR1,325 for SRCM (the highest within our coverage universe), followed by INR1,266 for JKCE, INR1,186 for UTCEM, and INR1,126 for DALBHARA. EBITDA/t is estimated to be in the range of INR800-1,000 for the remaining players (ACC/ACEM/BCORP/JKLC/TRCL), except for ICEM, which stands at INR292/t.
- We estimate BCORP to report EBITDA growth of ~47% YoY, albeit on a low base, followed by UTCEM/ACEM/SRCM/TRCL at ~44%/42%/41%/40% and JKLC/JKCE at ~36%/33% YoY. ACC/DALBHARA is expected to report EBITDA growth of ~27%/22% YoY. ICEM is estimated to report an EBITDA of INR679m, compared to the operating loss of INR310m in 1QFY25.

Sector outlook and recommendations

- Our positive outlook on the cement sector is based on: a) industry players' focus on balancing volume growth and profitability, b) increasing consolidation, c) strong cash flow generation and healthy balance sheet, and d) cost reduction measures led by industry players.
- Cement prices have remained resilient despite the early onset of the monsoon, which continues to support positive sentiment in the sector. Although near-term cement demand is estimated to remain weak due to seasonal impacts, we believe it is likely to recover over the medium term as macro conditions improve. We estimate industry demand to grow ~6-7% YoY in FY26, translating to incremental volumes of 27-32mt, while capacity additions are likely to rise by ~8-9% YoY (53-60mt incremental supply). Beyond FY26, demand is expected to grow at a stronger pace of ~8% CAGR over FY26-28, outpacing supply growth, which is estimated at ~4-5% CAGR during the same period.
- Given strong price hikes and benign cost trends, we have raised our EBITDA estimates (aggregate) for our cement coverage companies by ~4%/2% for FY26/FY27. We prefer UTCEM in the large cap space, while JKCE is our preferred pick in the mid-cap space. DALBHARA is our tactical pick, supported by improving regional dynamics and attractive valuations.

Volume-driven growth anticipated; pricing pressure persists

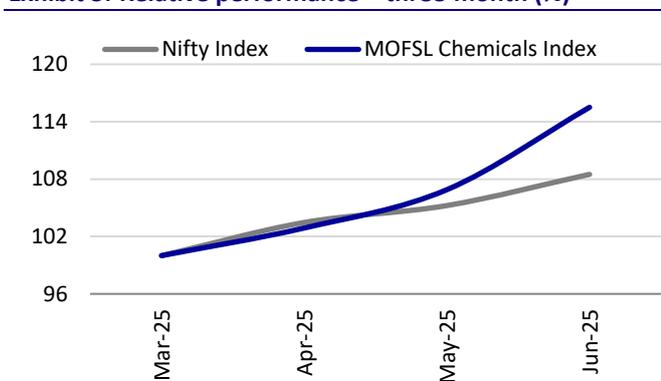

- Brent crude prices remained at USD68/bbl in 1QFY26; prices dipped due to heightened geopolitical instability and evolving dynamics within OPEC+. The group's decision to gradually unwind production cuts, coupled with internal disagreements and limited compliance among member countries, led to concerns about oversupply in the market.
- Prices of organic compounds, such as Butadiene (Korea)/ Toluene (Korea) Benzene, decreased 4%/9% YoY in Jun'25, while prices of Benzene increased 6% YoY, and Propylene (Korea) decreased 4% YoY in Jun'25. Prices of other key materials, such as Aniline/ACN/Acetone/IPA, dipped 20%/10%/10%/19% YoY in Jun'25. Blended Phenol and Acetone spread stood at INR83/kg in 1QFY26 (down 8% YoY). Acetic Acid rose 1% YoY while Ammonia prices dipped 10% YoY to INR33/kg in 1QFY26.
- We estimate our coverage universe to report 1) a sales growth of 10% YoY, 2) an EBITDA growth of 9% YoY, and 3) a PAT growth of 15% YoY in 1QFY26. Aggregate gross margin is likely to contract 40bp YoY. Aggregate EBITDAM may expand 20bp YoY/30bp QoQ. Margin expansion (YoY) is anticipated for BLUEJET, NFIL, NOCIL, SRF, and VO. The aggregate PAT margin is likely to expand 40bp YoY in 1QFY26.
- In the first two months of 1QFY26, nine out of 13 companies within our coverage universe saw an uptick in total exports. ATLP, DN, PI, and VO have shown a YoY dip, while the rest have grown in value terms. INR vs. USD has also depreciated ~3% YoY in 1QFY26, making export revenue appear optically higher on a YoY basis.
- The commissioning of new capacities was delayed by companies over the course of FY25, although none of them were shelved completely, given the promising long-term volume offtake for the products. However, we expect a migration of chemical industries to the US, the Middle East, and Africa in the long term due to the cheaper availability of feedstock in these regions. The valuation multiples of companies remain elevated. We have a BUY rating on ATLP, BLUEJET, GALSURF, PI, SRF, and VO.

Deepak Nitrite

Sell
CMP: INR1,961 | TP: INR1,660 (-15%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: +1|0

- Expect revenue to decline YoY due to Advanced Intermediates. Expect EBITDA margin of 10.4% (vs. 14.3% in 1QFY25).
- Updates on Oman subsidiary and downstream products (MIBK, MIBC, and Polycarbonate) to be keenly monitored.
- Watch out for updates on various capex under implementation.
- Key risks: Substantial margin fluctuations due to the highly commoditized nature of the products.

Fine Organic Industries

Sell
CMP: INR5,081 | TP: INR3,640 (-28%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: -3|-1

- Expect revenue to increase 9% YoY and EBITDA margin to contract 630bp YoY to 17.6% in 1QFY26.
- Watch out for escalating freight costs and high lead times, particularly for exports to the US and Europe.
- Key monitorables: an update on the progress of the JV to be set up in Thailand and more details on the new capex to be announced.
- Key risk: A delay in the addition of new capacities could deter growth, with almost all existing capacities running at optimum utilization levels.

Steady overall demand with Jewelry outlier; soft margins

In our consumer coverage universe, all segments are expected to deliver revenue/EBITDA growth YoY in 1QFY26—staples +6%/+1%, paints & adhesives +3%/+2%, liquor +11%/+6%, innerwear +12%/+21%, QSR +11%/+10%, and jewelry +20%/+27%.

- Ongoing revenue trends continue: In 1QFY26, demand trends across various categories continued to mirror recent historical quarters. Staple companies are likely to experience a similar trend due to sluggish urban demand and high-cost inventory. We expect a marginal pickup in volume growth, with price hikes supporting 1Q revenue growth. We expect staples companies' revenue growth in the range of mid-to-high single digit. Paint companies are still struggling with a muted demand environment and high competitive intensity. However, some improvement is expected in the product mix. In liquor, UNSP's P&A portfolio is expected to see subdued volume growth in 1QFY26, partly due to a high base in 1QFY25, which had benefited from high elections-led inventory stocking. UBBL is also likely to deliver low double-digit revenue growth. While the early onset of monsoon is expected to weigh on volume growth, this is likely to be offset by healthy realization growth, the benefit of price hikes in the Telangana market, and premiumization. Innerwear companies are expected to see low double-digit growth due to soft inventory and product launches. The pressure from high trade inventory has eased, and primary growth is expected to align with secondary growth. The demand environment for QSR companies remained muted in 1QFY26. While demand sentiments remained healthy in Apr'25, they remained weak in May'25 and the second half of Jun'25. The performance of the dine-in channel and the revenue gap between dine-in and delivery will be key monitorables during the quarter. Jewelry demand was healthy in April but has since moderated due to the sharp rise in gold prices.
- Operating margin to remain subdued: Despite moderating prices of key raw materials, gross margins for most consumer companies are expected to remain subdued due to high-cost RM inventory. Moreover, staple companies have increased promotional spending to drive demand growth, further pressuring EBITDA margins. While QSR and paint companies are likely to experience EBITDA margin contraction, liquor (ex-UNSP) and innerwear companies are expected to report margin expansion due to softer raw material costs and an improved product mix. Jewelry companies are expected to face margin pressure due to a shift toward more franchise-driven store expansion, slower studded jewelry growth, and high gold inflation. SSSG is expected in low double digits to mid-teens, primarily driven by pricing growth.
- Outperformers and under-performers: Among our coverage companies, MRCO, JUBI, PAGE, Kalyan Jewellers, and PNG are expected to be outliers in 1QFY26, whereas Asian Paints, Indigo Paints, Emami, Dabur, UNSP, and Devyani/Sapphire will likely be underperformers.
- Outlook: While the slowdown has continued across consumer segments, demand trends are expected to improve gradually, supported by a healthy monsoon outlook, income tax benefits, interest rate cuts, and a gradual improvement in the macro environment. Our top picks are Marico, PN Gadgil, Radico Khaitan, and RBA.

Segment-wise performance

- Staples: No material uptick in demand trends is expected in 1QFY26 as they continue to mirror recent historical quarters. Demand remained impacted by weakness in urban consumption, while rural markets are recovering gradually. Despite RM softening, the benefits should start to become visible from 2QFY26 onwards, as companies are still carrying high-cost RM inventory. Moreover, the early onset of monsoon has adversely impacted summer-led products, HI, and out-of-home portfolios. Volume growth is likely to remain in the low- to mid-single digits, while price hikes realized in 1QFY26 should aid overall revenue growth. We model gross margin contraction of 170bp YoY and EBITDA margin contraction of 130bp on a YoY basis due to high inventory costs (tea, wheat, palm oil, and edible oils) and negative operating leverage. For staple companies under our coverage, we expect sales/EBITDA/PAT growth of 6%/1%/2% in 1QFY26.
- Paint & adhesives: Revenue growth for paint companies is expected to remain weak in 1QFY26, with no material sequential uptick as demand conditions continue to remain muted. Rising competitive intensity is also putting pressure on growth. We believe the product mix will play a key role in driving revenue growth. We still build in a +600bp gap between volume and revenue growth due to an adverse product mix. EBITDA margins are likely to remain under pressure due to higher marketing spends and the impact of negative operating leverage. We build in 3% sales and 2% EBITDA YoY growth for paint companies under our coverage, while APAT is projected to remain flat YoY in 1QFY26.
- Liquor: UNSP's P&A portfolio is expected to witness subdued volume growth in 1QFY26, partly due to a high base in 1QFY25, which had benefited from high elections-led inventory stocking. EBITDA margin is expected to contract YoY, driven by higher A&P spends and operating deleverage during the quarter. The impact of Maharashtra's import duty changes is expected to become visible from 2QFY26 onwards. However, companies expect that the adverse impact in Maharashtra can be offset by improved performance in other states as well as mitigation effects within Maharashtra itself. For RDCK, we expect the strong volume trend to sustain. Premiumization trends are expected to remain strong, with growth driven across segments. We expect the company to expand its operating margin, supported by a favorable mix and operating leverage. For UBBL, while we expect the early onset of monsoon to weigh on volume growth, this should be offset by healthy realization growth, reflecting the full-quarter benefit of price hikes (effective from mid-Feb) in the Telangana market and the ongoing premiumization drive, leading to low double-digit revenue growth. Price hikes should support gross margins, while slow volume growth may not fully translate into operating margin improvement. We expect sales/EBITDA/PAT growth of 11%/6%/10% for our coverage companies in 1QFY26.
- Innerwear: We expect low double-digit revenue growth for Page Industries in 1QFY26, driven by softer inventory, product launches, and successful placements across alternate channels. Weak urban consumption remains a headwind, but normalized trade inventory should enable better primary growth. Primary and secondary sales are now expected to be aligned, reversing the trend observed over the past few quarters. We expect sales/EBITDA/PAT growth of 12%/21%/22% for Page Industries.

- QSR: The demand environment for QSR companies remained muted in 1QFY26. While demand sentiments were healthy in Apr'25, they were mixed in May'25 (due to factors such as the impact of war) and showed limited recovery in Jun'25. However, overall demand has still not seen a meaningful recovery, and companies' own initiatives have played a bigger role in sustaining a healthy trend. Jubilant appears strong within the pack, with sustained outperformance in delivery. Among dine-in players, we believe RBA will be the outperformer. With weak underlying growth, most companies are expected to face margin pressure, which will weigh on restaurant-level and EBITDA margins for most brands. The performance of the dine-in channel and the revenue gap between dine-in and delivery will be key monitorables during the quarter. Enhancing the menu and rolling out activation drives for dine-in could be crucial for improving footfall/orders going forward. We expect sales/EBITDA growth of 11%/10%, while APAT is likely to decline 17% for our coverage QSR companies in 1QFY26.
- Jewelry: In 1QFY26, gold prices surged ~30-35% YoY and ~15% QoQ, breaching the INR100k mark (per 10gm) in the retail market, driven by ongoing geopolitical tensions. This sharp and rapid increase has led to consumer budget constraints, with many customers choosing to delay purchases in anticipation of a price correction or stabilization, leading to demand softness in 1QFY26. SSSG is expected to grow in low-double digits to mid-teens, primarily driven by pricing growth. Finance costs are expected to stabilize as the GML rate has normalized, following a spike in 4QFY25 due to the imposition of US tariffs. We expect sales/EBITDA/PAT growth of 20%/27%/35% for our coverage jewelry companies in 1QFY26.

Existing inventory postpones the benefits from cooling input costs

- Commodities such as tea, coffee, and palm oil, which were inflationary in recent quarters, have started to ease in Q1FY26. Despite this moderation in input costs, the benefit to company margins is likely to be delayed, as most companies continued to utilize high-cost inventory in 1QFY26, keeping gross margins under pressure. Benefits from cooling RM pressure are likely to be realized 2QFY26 onwards, which should support most FMCG companies such as Dabur, HUL, Nestlé, Britannia, Marico, and Tata Consumer. Similarly, non-agricultural commodities, including crude oil, its derivatives, and VAM prices, have continued to ease. However, select commodities such as gold and copra continue to experience inflationary pressures.
- Agricultural commodities: Wheat prices increased 4% YoY but declined 11% QoQ. Barley prices surged 10% YoY but dipped 5% QoQ, likely impacting companies like UBBL and Nestlé. Sugar prices increased 4% YoY but remained flat QoQ. Coffee prices increased 6% YoY and 2% QoQ, while Cocoa bean prices have started to ease, declining 1% YoY and 3% QoQ, providing some relief for companies like Nestlé and HUL. Copra prices surged 70% YoY and 13% QoQ, while palm oil prices increased 1% YoY but declined 14% QoQ.
- Non-agricultural commodities: Given geopolitical issues, Crude oil prices remained volatile in 1QFY26 but declined 20% YoY and 10% QoQ. Other commodities like TiO2 and TiO2 (China) continue to show a downward trend. VAM (China) prices remained range-bound, correcting mere 1% both YoY and QoQ. In contrast, gold prices surged 32% YoY and 14% QoQ, putting pressure on the margins of jewelry companies.

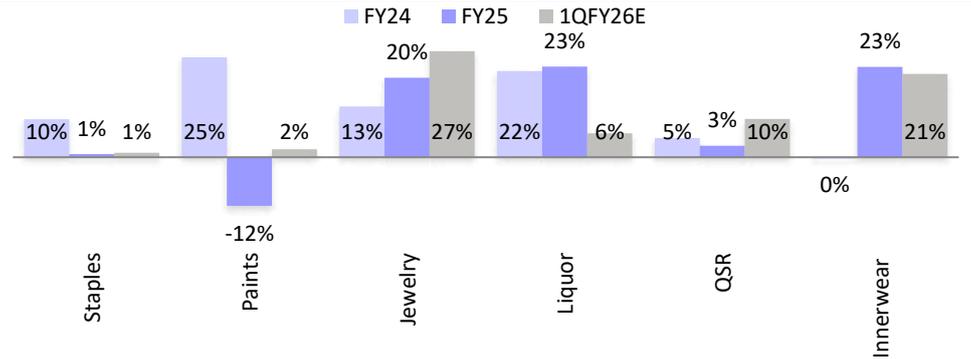

- Companies remain focused on normalizing the gap between volume and value growth while prioritizing a strategic balance between revenue growth and margin expansion amid evolving market dynamics. This approach aims to effectively navigate cost pressures while maintaining competitive positioning.

- Demand was subdued for oral care. We expect 1.5% revenue growth, led by 1.5% volume growth in toothpaste in 1QFY26.
- GP margin is expected to expand 35bp YoY to 71%, while EBITDA margin is expected to contract 140bp YoY to 32.6%, given higher ad spends and operating activities.
- The company is focused on expanding distribution reach and improving product penetration in the rural market through LUPs.
- Promotions in the GT channel and the quantum of discounting in alternate channels will be the key monitorables.

- We expect ~2% revenue growth, led by the 3% volume growth in the India business. We expect some sequential improvement in demand.
- The Beverage portfolio was impacted during the quarter due to unseasonal rains and a short summer. However, Activ Juices and Activ Coconut water saw good momentum, with growth expected in mid-teens.
- Home and Personal Care (HPC) division is expected to perform well, driven by the oral, home, and skin care categories. Within healthcare, brands such as Dabur Honey, Hajmola, Dabur Honitus, and Dabur Health Juices are expected to post robust double-digit growth.
- International business is expected to post double-digit constant currency growth.

- Demand in 1Q was adversely impacted by the onset of monsoon. We model 3% revenue decline, led by a 3% domestic volume decline.
- The company is focusing on LUPs targeting middle-income consumers, which contribute ~20% of its revenue.
- GM is expected to remain steady (-50bp YoY) despite macro inflation. EBITDA is likely to witness a decline of 145bp YoY on negative operating leverage.
- Performance of D2C brands like The Man Company and Brillare will be a key monitorable.

- Domestic demand continued to mirror 4Q trends, with rural outpacing urban demand. We model 8% standalone revenue growth and 5% volume growth. Price hikes likely persisted in 1Q, especially in soaps.
- High inflation continues to put pressure on margins. We model a 330bp YoY contraction in the GP margin and a 130bp YoY contraction in EBITDA margins. The benefit of lower palm oil prices will materialize from 2QFY26 onwards.
- The company highlighted in its pre-quarter update that the Personal Care segment is expected to deliver low-single digit value growth, impacted by soaps. The Home Care business is likely to deliver double-digit value growth and UVG.
- The Indonesia business expected to deliver flattish UVG while GAUM business is likely to deliver strong double-digit value growth and UVG.

- Demand trends remained consistent QoQ with muted growth, and rural areas continued to outperform urban areas. We expect a 4.6% revenue growth in 1QFY26.
- GP margins are expected to face some pressure (contracting 140bp YoY to 50.6%) due to an increase in consumer offers and other initiatives undertaken to drive volume growth. The company revised its EBITDA margin guidance last quarter to 22-23%, down from the earlier guidance of the lower end of 23-24%.
- HUL's growth was impacted by several factors, including adverse mix dynamics, input cost inflation, and subdued seasonal demand, collectively moderating the overall growth trajectory.
- We model a 3% volume growth. The company has implemented calibrated price increases in Skin Cleansing and Foods, which were partially offset by deflation in the Home Care portfolio.

- The cigarette business is expected to show stable volumes and pricing, with the portfolio continuing to grow, aided by improvements in the product mix. We model 5% volume growth in the business in 1QFY26.
- We expect 6% YoY sales growth in the cigarette business and 4% YoY sales growth in the FMCG business.
- We expect a 5% YoY growth in cigarette EBIT, though margins may contract 40bp due to rising leaf tobacco prices. In the FMCG business, we expect a 16% decline in EBIT, with a 170bp margin contraction as price hikes lag RM inflation.
- The paper segment remained weak while agriculture segment performed well during the quarter.

- The domestic business is experiencing steady improvement. We expect 21% consol. revenue growth and ~8% domestic volume growth. The high pricing contribution is driven largely by price hikes in Parachute.
- Gross margins expected to contract 355bp YoY to 48.7%, given the high base and rise in RM prices. Operating margins are expected to contract 250bp YoY to 21.2%.
- Parachute oil is expected to deliver >20% revenue growth, aided by pricing interventions as the company incorporated another round of price hike in Jun'25. Saffola oil is expected to deliver revenue growth in the high twenties, backed by mid-single digit volume growth. Moreover, VAHO revenue grew in low double digits.
- The International business is expected to deliver revenue CC growth in high teens, with positive contributions from all markets.

- We expect overall sales growth of 5.7% YoY, led by 5.5% growth in domestic sales and 10% growth in export sales. However, while demand recovery is underway, a higher dependency on urban markets may weigh on NEST volumes.
- The company has likely implemented a price hike in response to rising commodity prices.
- We expect GP margin contraction of 60bp YoY to 57%, impacted by a rise in RM prices like coffee and edible oil, while we model a stable EBITDA margin of 23.3% in 1QFY26.
- Nestle focuses on expanding its distribution reach, premiumization, and innovations.

- We expect ~12% YoY revenue growth, led by volume growth of 9% and the remainder driven by a change in the mix. No price hikes are expected in 1Q.
- Gross margin is expected to expand 290bp YoY to 57%, supported by stable input prices. EBITDA margin is likely to expand 150bp YoY to 20.5%.
- Weak urban consumption remains a headwind, but normalized trade inventory can enable better primary growth.
- Primary and secondary sales are now expected to be aligned, reversing the trend observed in the last few quarters.

Pidilite Industries

Neutral
CMP: INR3,045 | TP: INR3,000 (-1%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | FY27: +0.7 | +0.7

- We expect demand recovery in 1Q, though rural growth continues to outperform urban growth. Pidilite's core category can witness some headwinds due to the subdued demand environment at the macro level.
- We expect consolidated revenue to grow 10% YoY and volume to grow 12% during the quarter.
- We expect gross margin to expand 120bp YoY to 55%, driven by a YoY decline in VAM prices.
- Outlook on domestic and international demand is a key monitorable.

Radico Khaitan

BUY
CMP: INR2,570 | TP: INR3,000 (+17%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|FY27: -0.1|2.0

- We expect 22% revenue growth. In P&A, we model 17% volume growth and 23% revenue growth. In popular, we expect 40% revenue growth and 35% growth in volume.
- We expect GM to expand 200bp YoY to 43.5% on stable RM prices and improving product mix. EBITDA margin is expected to expand 120bp YoY to 14.3%.
- Radico has a mid- to high-single-digit revenue contribution from Maharashtra, so the impact of the increase in excise duty will be lower compared to other branded players.
- The success of new launches will be a key monitorable for the company's performance.

CMP: INR1,095 | TP: INR1,300(+19%)
EPS CHANGE (%):FY26|FY27: -10|-4

- We expect revenue to grow ~8% YoY, led by growth from domestic businesses.
- We expect tea volumes to grow at the same rate as 4QFY25 at ~4%.
- EBITDA margin is likely to contract to ~13% in 1QFY26 vs. 15.3% in 1QFY25.
- We expect the salt segment to witness a good quarter, driven by higher volumes and price hikes.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | FY27: -3.1 | -2.6

- The P&A segment's volume growth remained subdued in 1QFY26, partly due to a high base in 1QFY25, which had benefited from election-related inventory stocking. We model 5% volume growth and 7% revenue growth in the P&A segment.
- We model 5% volume growth and 8% revenue growth in the popular segment.
- Gross margins are expected to remain stable at 44.5%, given the stabilization in input prices. EBITDA margin is expected to contract 270bp YoY, impacted by elevated expenses and some degree of operating deleverage during the quarter.
- The impact of Maharashtra's import duty changes, primarily affecting the lower- to mid-prestige segments, will be more visible in 2QFY26. However, the upper prestige segment remains largely unaffected.

QSR: Muted demand trends; margin to remain under pressure

- The demand environment for QSR companies remained muted in 1QFY26. While demand sentiments remained healthy in Apr'25, they remained weak in May'25 and the second half of Jun'25. Weak underlying growth, combined with negative operating leverage and continued store expansion, is likely to keep operating margins under pressure. This will weigh on restaurant and EBITDA margins for most brands. The dine-in channel performance and the revenue gap between dine-in and delivery will be key monitorables for the quarter. Enhancing the menu and rolling out activation drives for dine-in could be crucial for improving footfall/orders going forward. We expect sales/EBITDA growth of 11%/10%, while APAT is likely to decline 17% for our coverage QSR companies in 1QFY26.
- Jubilant FoodWorks is expected to continue being an outlier among QSR companies in the near term (driven by delivery moat), but its valuations are rich. Though dine-in companies are struggling, their operating growth metrics are likely to improve significantly once recovery begins.

Outliers: Jubilant Foodworks
Underperformers: Devyani, Sapphire

- The India business is expected to grow 12%. We build 2-3% SSSG as there is not much improvement in the underlying demand. Demand was good in Apr'25 but weak in May'25. The second half of Jun'25 was also not good.
- We model six store additions in India, bringing the total store count to 519 (14% YoY).
- ADS is expected to decline 1% YoY to 118k.
- We expect a 40bp expansion in GP margin to 68% due to stable RM prices. Additionally, we expect a 140bp YoY expansion of EBITDA margin to 14% due to cost efficiency.

Jewelry: Softness in demand due to sharp rise in gold prices

- In 1QFY26, gold prices surged ~30-35% YoY and ~15% QoQ, breaching the INR100,000 mark (per 10gm) in the retail market, driven by ongoing geopolitical tensions. This sharp and rapid increase has led to consumer budget constraints, with many customers choosing to delay purchases in anticipation of a price correction or stabilization, leading to demand softness in 1QFY26. SSSG is expected to grow in low-double-digit to mid-teens SSSG, primarily driven by pricing growth.
- Finance costs are expected to stabilize as the GML rate has normalized, following a spike in 4QFY25 due to the imposition of US tariffs. We expect sales/EBITDA/PAT growth of 20%/27%/35% for our coverage jewelry companies in 1QFY26.

- We expect 30% revenue growth in the India business. We model 15% SSSG, led by an increase in gold prices. We expect nine store additions for India Kalyan, 20 for Candere, and two in the Middle East, bringing the total count to 419 stores in 1Q.
- We expect a 90bp contraction in GP margin to 13.4%, impacted by promotional schemes offered to offset the sharp rise in gold prices. We model a 70bp contraction in EBITDA margin to 6.8% in 1QFY26.
- In the Middle East, we expect 14% YoY revenue growth and moderation in EBITDA margin.

Consumer Durables

Company

Havells India
KEI Industries
Polycab India
R R Kabel
Voltas

Cooling products lag; cables continue to lead

Estimate modest earnings growth

- Consumer durable companies are expected to post mixed growth trends in 1QFY26E. The cable and wire (C&W) segment witnessed robust growth, led by strong volume growth (in mid-teens) and price hikes (~2-3% in May'25). The RAC segment was affected by a weak summer season (initially low temperature followed by early arrival of monsoon) and a higher base.
- For our coverage companies, we estimate aggregate revenue/EBITDA growth of ~5% YoY (each) and PAT growth of ~4% YoY. We estimate average OPM to remain flat YoY at 9.8%. We estimate aggregate revenue growth of ~17% YoY for the C&W segment, whereas UCP segment revenue is estimated to decline ~15% YoY. We estimate ~15% YoY revenue growth in FMEG for POLYCAB and ~2-6% YoY growth in other categories (like switchgear, ECD, and lighting) for HAVL. For RRKABEL, FMEG revenue is estimated to decline ~5% YoY due to weak demand in the fan segment.
- Our preferred pick in the consumer durable space remains POLYCAB, given robust growth in its C&W segment and industry-leading margins.

C&W: Strong growth momentum continues; export pickup expected

- C&W volume growth is expected in mid-teens, indicating a solid start to FY26. Strong execution of government-led projects (power, infra), steady demand from real estate projects and a pickup in exports should drive robust growth during the quarter. B2C demand was relatively modest. We estimate the C&W segment's revenue to grow ~19%/18% YoY for POLYCAB/KEII, followed by ~15% growth (each) for RRKABEL/HAVL.
- In Apr'25, prices of copper/aluminum fell ~7%/11% MoM amid tariff threats by the US. However, prices surged in May-Jun'25 by ~6%/7% from the Apr'25 average. Our discussion with channel partners suggests that due to the increase in commodity prices, industry players have increased prices by ~2-3% in May'25 and that high prices have led to the restocking of materials.
- Given volatility in commodity prices during the quarter, we estimate C&W segment margins (average) to be flat YoY (down 1.6pp QoQ) at 11.3%. We estimate C&W segment margins at ~13% for POLYCAB, ~11% for HAVL/KEII (each), and 7.6% for RRKABEL.

Weak summer drags down RAC Performance in 1QFY26

- A weak summer season amid low temperature initially, followed by an early onset of monsoon in the south and west regions, affected demand for RAC and other summer products. Industry demand for RAC is estimated to decline ~25% YoY in 1QFY26, aided by a high base. Despite weak demand, no material price correction has been observed in the market in 1QFY26. We estimate UCP segment revenue to decline ~16%/14% YoY for VOLT/HAVL. We estimate UCP segment margin (average) to contract 70bp YoY to 6.1%.

- In the switchgear segment, industrial demand remained tepid and margins were under pressure. Lighting also witnessed subdued demand growth due to a slow pace of consumption and price erosion (although the price erosion is already in base). Demand for fans/air coolers was affected by a weak summer season.
- For POLYCAB, we estimate FMEG segment to be EBIT positive vs. segment loss in 1QFY25. For RRKABEL, we estimate FMEG segment loss to reduce to INR109m from INR207m in 1QFY25. We factor in a margin dip of 120bp/65bp/40bp YoY in Lighting/Switchgear/ECD segments.

Outlook and recommendation

- In C&W, we estimate demand momentum to remain strong, led by the power T&D sector, higher government spending on infrastructure projects, and the real estate segment. We estimate that given the strong demand outlook, aggregate incremental demand will outpace aggregate incremental supply in the medium to long term. However, we estimate that increased capex and competition would limit margin expansions in the near to medium term.
- FY25 was a strong year for the RAC segment with robust volume growth and healthy margins. However, a weaker-than-expected summer season in FY26 may result in a volume decline during the year. Though industry players estimate ~10-15% revenue growth in FY26, demand recovery during the festive season and amid a change in energy norms (effective from Jan'25) would be crucial.
- POLYCAB remains our preferred pick in this space given its market leadership and industry-leading margins.

Demand tailwinds continue to drive growth

Revenue/EBITDA to grow ~51%/47% YoY in 1QFY26

- The EMS industry maintains its strong growth path, propelled by rising global orders, expanding export opportunities, and solid demand across segments. This momentum is underpinned by increasing orders in high-margin areas, an enhanced global presence, and a sustained competitive edge in producing complex products.
- EMS companies under our coverage universe are likely to continue their strong revenue growth trajectory. Aggregate revenue for our coverage is likely to grow 51% YoY in 1QFY26, aided by healthy demand across end-user industries and the execution of a strong order book at hand.
- Dixon is likely to report the highest revenue growth of ~82% YoY, followed by KAYNES/AVALON/DATAPATT /CYIENTDL and AMBER at 50%/22%/20%/7% and 6%. We estimate a 16% revenue decline for SYRMA due to product mix change.
- The sector's order book is anticipated to expand, with particularly strong traction in high-margin sectors such as aerospace, industrials, automotive, and critical infrastructure applications. Companies will also focus on gaining a higher wallet share and an improved product mix. Companies project an acceleration in order inflows in 1QFY26, with the momentum likely to sustain in FY26.
- In addition, most of the companies under our coverage are expected to see stable margins, driven by strong operating leverage and high traction from high-margin sectors. EBITDA margin for our EMS coverage universe may contract ~10bp YoY, primarily due to 70bp/30bp/30bp YoY margin contraction in CYIENTDL/DATAPATT/AMBER. Conversely, KAYNES/AVALON/SYRMA are likely to see margin expansions of 50bp/420bp/350bp. DIXON may post flat margins.

Dixon continues to lead the pack with strong anticipated revenue growth

- AMBER: We expect revenue to grow 6% YoY, driven by strong growth in the electronics division, while the AC segment's performance is expected to be impacted by a weak summer. EBITDA margin is expected to contract 40bp YoY on a high base, while PAT is expected to decrease 6% YoY.
- Avalon: Revenue is expected to grow 22% YoY, led by healthy growth across all business segments. Margins are likely to expand 350bp YoY to ~5.7%. The production of new products is on track with a growing order book, driven by recent order wins for backup power systems, transmission systems, aerospace cabin products, and locomotive engine systems.
- CYIENTDL: We anticipate the company to report 7% YoY consolidated revenue growth in 1QFY26. EBITDA margins may remain flat at 7% on account of operating deleverage. We anticipate a healthy 2HFY26, driven by good traction in the order book and an improving book-to-bill ratio.
- DATAPATT: We expect revenue/EBITDA to grow 20%/18% YoY as the company will book revenue for the orders that will end in FY26 and the additional orders under Brahmos, which are expected to materialize in the near term.

- DIXON: We expect revenue growth to remain strong YoY at 82%, led by a robust ramp-up in mobile volumes. Sequentially, we expect demand to ramp up for all segments. EBITDA margin is expected to contract 60bp QoQ and be broadly flat YoY.
- KAYNES: We expect strong revenue growth of ~50% YoY this quarter, driven by healthy traction across sectors. Margins are expected to expand ~50bp YoY, led by margin-accretive orders.
- SYRMA: We expect revenue to decline by 16% YoY, with a decline in the consumer and medical segments likely to offset growth in the industrial and auto segments. EBITDA margin is anticipated to expand ~420bp YoY, led by operating leverage.

Margin pressure to weigh on earnings

Loan growth muted; treasury remains the key profitability driver

- Credit growth remains muted; expect recovery in 2HFY26: Systemic credit growth slowed to ~9.6% as of 13th Jun'25 amid demand moderation in the retail segment and a cautious growth strategy followed by banks in unsecured loans. With moderation in loan growth, the incremental CD ratio has eased to 74%, though the outstanding CD ratio remains elevated at ~79%. We expect credit growth to sustain at 11.5% YoY in FY26, led by a recovery in 2HFY26.
- Deposit growth stable at 10.4% in Jun'25; funding cost to ease gradually: System deposit growth was stable at 10.4% in Jun'25, although banks continue to face challenges in mobilizing low-cost CASA deposits. With a sharp decline in policy rates, banks are reducing both SA and TD rates. SA rates have declined by 25-100bp since Apr'25 and TD rates have fallen by 20-100bp in the past two months. We expect muted deposit growth in 1QFY26, as the seasonal flow of 4Q unwinds. Deposit costs should begin to ease gradually as liability repricing happens.
- NIMs to decline sharply during 1H; expect trends to improve from 2H onward: With a reduction in benchmark rates, we estimate lending yields to compress across banks, while the moderation in funding costs happens with a lag even as most banks have reduced SA/TD rates. Banking sector NIMs are thus expected to remain under pressure in 1HFY26, with some variation across banks depending upon the quantum of repo-linked loans and the transmission timelines. Thus, we expect double-digit NIM decline for all banks under our coverage in 1QFY26E. However, a phased reduction in deposit rates and a 100bp CRR cut, effective from Sep'25, will enhance liquidity and bring some relief to margins.
- Asset quality broadly stable; unsecured retail (MFI) to witness continued stress: Asset quality trends remain stable for large lenders; however, unsecured retail (MFI) continues to witness elevated stress levels. We thus expect the credit cost differential to persist. Large private/PSU banks should continue to report controlled credit costs, while mid-size lenders with higher exposure to Retail/MFI segments are expected to report elevated provisioning levels, mainly during 1H.
- Estimate 11.1% PAT CAGR over FY25-27E: We estimate NII for our banking coverage universe to report a muted growth at 1.7% YoY (down 0.6% QoQ). PPop is expected to decline by 2.4% QoQ (up 3.3% YoY). We estimate private banks' PAT to decline 2.5% YoY (up 2.8% QoQ) and PSU banks to report PAT growth of 4.8% YoY (down 11.7% QoQ). For our coverage universe, we estimate PAT to stay broadly flat YoY (down 4.5% QoQ). Overall, we estimate an 11% CAGR in earnings over FY25-27E.

Private Banks: Earnings to decline 2.5% YoY (9% YoY PAT growth in FY26E)

- For the private banks under our coverage, we estimate PPop to grow 4.2% YoY/ 3.8% QoQ and PAT to decline 2.5% YoY (up 2.8% QoQ). We estimate ~15% CAGR in earnings over FY25-27E for private banks.

- Estimate NII to grow 3.1% YoY/flat QoQ in 1QFY26: Among large private banks under our coverage, HDFCB's NII growth is estimated at 6.9% YoY (flat QoQ), ICICI at 7.0% YoY (down 1.3% QoQ), Axis at 1.5% YoY (down 1.2% QoQ), KMB at 5.6% YoY (down 0.8% QoQ), and Federal at 0.2% YoY (down 3.4% QoQ).
- Overall slippages are expected to inch up amid agri seasonality, especially for large private banks. Bureau data indicates that there are signs of easing in early stress and that peak slippages are likely behind, though unsecured retail NPA should remain elevated. We expect credit costs to rise marginally over the year.

PSU Banks: PAT growth to moderate sharply to 4.8% YoY

- We estimate PSU banks to report a modest PAT growth of 4.8% YoY (down 11.7% QoQ) amid a decline in NIMs, normalized opex, and higher provisions QoQ due to the benefits of the one-time reversal in provisions on SRs reported in 4Q.
- NII is likely to remain flat YoY (down 1.8% QoQ) owing to a decline in NIMs. We estimate PSU banks to report a 6% CAGR in PAT over FY25-27E.
- Opex is likely to be under control and should follow a normalized trajectory for PSU banks. Treasury performance is likely to be better QoQ amid a sharp decline in G-sec yields.
- Asset quality outlook stable: We expect stable asset quality trends for PSU banks, aided by controlled slippages and robust PCR.

Small Finance Banks: NIMs to fall further; asset quality stress continues

- AUBANK's PAT is likely to improve by 9.8% QoQ (10.1% YoY) to INR5.5b, aided by a decline in credit costs (down 23% QoQ) as the bank improved PCR during 4Q. NII is expected to grow by 1.9% QoQ (up 11.1% YoY), while NIMs are estimated to decline ~28bp QoQ. Delinquencies in MFI+Cards portfolio are likely to remain elevated, keeping credit cost at higher levels.
- EQUITASB is estimated to report another muted quarter, with PAT likely to decline by 15% YoY (down ~48% QoQ), dragged down by higher provisions and 25bp QoQ decline in margins to 6.88%. Business growth is likely to remain modest at 17.6% YoY/3.0% QoQ.

Payments/Fintech: SBI Cards – Credit cost to stay elevated | Paytm – PAT nearing breakeven

- SBICARDS: Retail spending is likely to see a modest growth, while some pickup in corporate spending is expected. NIMs are likely to improve on the back of rate cuts. Asset quality stress is likely to persist, driving up credit costs. We thus estimate PAT to grow 7.5% QoQ (down 3.4% YoY).
- PAYTM: We estimate 3% QoQ growth in GMV to INR5.3t in 1QFY26. Revenue from operations is likely to remain flat QoQ (up 26% YoY) at INR18.96b, while contribution profit is expected to decline marginally (largely due to UPI incentives in 4QFY25) to INR10.5b. Contribution margin is expected to improve to 55.6%. We expect the company to report marginal profits during 1Q.

ICICIB (BUY)

- ICICIB has sustained strong momentum, delivering ~16% CAGR in loans over FY22-25, led by Retail, SME, and strong growth in the BB segment.
- Asset quality remains robust, with GNPA/NNPA at 1.67%/0.39% and PCR at ~77%. A healthy contingency buffer of INR131b (~1% of loans) provides cushion amid cyclical risks. While unsecured loans (~13.3% of loans) show elevated stress, slippages have moderated and credit costs are expected to remain contained at ~40-50bp over FY26-27E.
- NIMs surprised positively, rising 16bp QoQ to 4.41% in 4QFY25, supported by higher yields and the absence of KCC reversals. While margins may face near-term pressure due to rate cuts, the bank expects relative stability in NIMs.
- Deposits grew 14% YoY, with strong growth in CA deposits. CASA ratio improved to 41.8% (Q-end), though average CASA stayed flat at 38.4%. The bank's digital and branch-led strategy continues to drive deposit franchise. We expect a 14% CAGR in deposits over FY25-27E.
- ICICIB is set for top performance, with robust loan growth, solid asset quality, and leading returns, with estimated RoA/RoE of 2.3%/17.5% by FY27E. The standalone bank trades at 2.3x FY27E ABV, adjusted for subsidiaries.

HDFCB (BUY)

- HDFCB continues to navigate post-merger adjustments with a focus on liability management and a calibrated reduction in its CD ratio, which improved to 96.5% in 4QFY25. Deposit growth remained strong at 14% YoY, outpacing loan growth (5.4% YoY), aided by network expansion and a digital-first strategy.
- Loan growth was led by Retail and Commercial & Rural Banking, which together form over 78% of the book. We estimate a CAGR of ~11%/15% in loans/deposits over FY25-27. The share of retail loans stood at ~49.6% in 4QFY25.
- NIM improved 11bp QoQ to 3.54% (adj NIMs at 3.46%) in 4QFY25 and is expected to reach 3.7% by FY27E, driven by asset repricing and a shift toward higher-yielding segments.
- Asset quality remained stable, with GNPA/NNPA at 1.33%/0.43% and PCR at ~68%. Credit costs are projected to remain around 50bp.
- Operationally, the cost-to-income ratio improved to 39.8%, aided by scale benefits and improved efficiency. The bank continues to invest in tech and talent to drive productivity gains.
- With margin normalization, improved asset quality, and strategic rebalancing, HDFCB is well-positioned to deliver RoA/RoE of 1.9%/14.7% by FY27E. It currently trades at 2.2x FY27E ABV, adjusting for subsidiaries.

SBI (BUY)

- SBIN posted healthy 12.4% YoY loan growth in FY25, led by Retail (11.4%), SME (16.9%), and Corporate (9%). Retail loans now account for ~36% of the portfolio.
- With a robust INR3.4t credit pipeline and a conservative CD ratio of 69.7%, the bank is well-placed to deliver 12-13% credit growth over FY26-27E, ahead of systemic trends.
- Asset quality improved, with GNPA/NNPA at 1.82%/0.47% and PCR at 74.4% (92.1% including write-offs). The restructured book remains low at 0.31% of loans. Credit costs were benign at 38bp in FY25 and are expected to remain in the 40-50bp range, supporting a healthy asset quality outlook.
- Deposits rose 9.5% YoY with a CASA ratio of ~40%. SBIN maintains a dominant 24% market share and targets ~10% deposit CAGR over FY25-27, aided by a focus on granular retail liabilities.
- NIMs stood stable at 3.0%, backed by a ~35% MCLR-linked book. Though some margin pressure is expected in a falling rate cycle, improved yield management should help maintain NIMs near current levels.
- Digital leadership via YONO (88m users) and operational efficiencies are driving down the C/I ratio, which is expected to improve to ~52.5% by FY27E.
- SBIN remains well-positioned for sustainable growth, underpinned by strong credit expansion and controlled asset quality risks. We estimate 5% earnings CAGR over FY25-27E, with RoA/RoE expected at 1.0%/15.6% by FY27E. The standalone bank currently trades at 1.0x FY27E ABV.

Demand trends soft; seasonal weakness visible in asset quality

Limited benefit on MCLR borrowings; expect margin benefits from next quarter

- Demand momentum exhibits mixed trends: We expect ~10% YoY growth in AUM for our coverage HFCs, including both affordable and large HFCs. Vehicle financiers are projected to report ~18% YoY AUM growth. Gold lenders (despite the weakness in MFI growth) are likely to record ~29% YoY growth (primarily driven by ~43% YoY growth in MUTH). NBFC-MFI AUM is estimated to decline ~22% YoY, while diversified lenders are anticipated to deliver ~24% YoY growth. For our NBFC coverage universe, we estimate a loan growth of ~16% YoY/~4% QoQ as of Jun'25. During the quarter, loan growth exhibited mixed trends across segments: 1) Gold financiers saw very strong growth, 2) MFIs (except CREDAG) reported a decline in AUM due to muted disbursements, 3) Vehicle finance growth moderated slightly due to seasonality and weak auto industry volumes, and 4) Home loan disbursements for large HFCs remained relatively weak since they had to let go of some business amid price competition from banks.
- Lag in transmission of MCLR rate cuts; marginal reduction in borrowing costs: CoB for most NBFCs has seen a very minor sequential decline because of the repricing of EBLR borrowings. The transmission through bank MCLR has been limited, as not all banks have reduced their MCLR rates. Even among those that have, the benefit to NBFCs has been marginal at only ~10-15 bps. A more meaningful transmission of policy rate cuts through MCLR cuts for NBFCs is likely to begin from Jul'25. NIM trends for NBFCs are expected to be mixed this quarter, varying across sub-segments. Large HFCs and gold financiers are likely to witness margin compression, while affordable HFCs and vehicle financiers would see slight NIM expansion driven by segment-specific nuances. VFs are expected to report healthy NIM expansion in 2HFY26.
- Weak macro resulting in sustained asset quality weakness; credit costs elevated across the board: In addition to the weak seasonality of 1Q, macro weakness had a bigger role to play in the asset quality weakness witnessed during the quarter. The stress in Karnataka remains elevated and is now anticipated to normalize by the end of 2QFY26 (vs. the earlier expectation of end-1QFY26). For MFIs, credit costs are likely to moderate sequentially, having peaked in 4QFY25; however, they are expected to remain elevated through 1HFY26 and will normalize only in 2HFY26. Asset quality for HFCs (including affordable HFCs) remains broadly stable, apart from the minor seasonal weakness typically observed during the quarter. For Power financiers, there were no new slippages or stressed asset resolutions during the quarter. Credit costs for vehicle financiers are slightly higher than our earlier expectations, driven by broad-based weakness in asset quality.
- Earnings likely to grow ~8% YoY but decline 2% QoQ for our coverage universe: We estimate ~14%/13%/8% YoY growth in NII/PPoP/PAT in 1QFY26 for our NBFC coverage universe. Excluding NBFC-MFI, we estimate ~12% YoY growth in PAT for our coverage universe. Our preference is for Housing Financiers, including select affordable HFCs and diversified lenders (who have navigated the unsecured credit cycle and are now looking to grow their unsecured loan book again). Our top picks in the sector are: SHFL, Home First, PNBHF, and LTFH.

Affordable HFCs doing better on NIM compared to their large counterparts

- Large HFCs are facing heightened competition, particularly from PSU banks that are offering home loans at significantly lower rates. Given their inability to match these rates without compromising yields, many large HFCs are opting to forego such business. Large HFCs are expected to report NIM compression, driven by declining yields amidst intensifying competition, while benefits on the liabilities book (ones that are MCLR-linked) have remained limited.
- Despite a 100bp repo rate cut by the RBI, most affordable HFCs did not make any changes to their PLR rates until Jun'25. As a result, affordable HFCs are likely to witness margin expansion, supported by some benefits in their CoB.
- Asset quality for HFCs remains largely stable, but for the typical seasonal flows seen in 1Q. Credit costs are expected to remain benign.
- For LICHF, we expect credit costs at ~20bp (vs. ~15bp in 4QFY25). Margins are likely to dip ~5bp QoQ. We expect LICHF to report ~8% YoY growth in loans.
- We forecast HomeFirst to report a ~12% YoY growth in disbursements, leading to a healthy AUM growth of ~29% YoY. We expect NIMs to expand for HomeFirst primarily due to a decline in leverage driven by capital raise. Aavas is likely to report NIM expansion of ~5bp QoQ. Asset quality for both HomeFirst and Aavas could exhibit seasonal weakness, but credit costs will remain benign.
- We estimate PNBHF to deliver a ~16%-17% YoY growth in total loan book as of Jun'25. For PNBHF, we expect NIM to contract ~5bp QoQ. Asset quality improvement and recoveries from the written-off pool in both Retail/Corporate could potentially again result in provision write-backs (like in the prior quarters).
- For Five Star, loan growth and disbursements remain subdued, as the company has consciously chosen to adopt a cautious stance amid ongoing asset quality and collection trends. The stress in Karnataka continues to be more pronounced for Five Star, with normalization expected in 2HFY26. We expect disbursements to remain flat YoY, translating into ~20%-21% YoY growth in AUM. NIMs are likely to contract ~50bp QoQ, driven by ~200bp cut in lending rates implemented by the company from Nov'24. We expect a deterioration in asset quality, which would lead to a rise in credit costs to ~100bp (vs. ~70bp in 4QFY25).

Vehicle Finance – loan growth remains weak; credit costs to inch up QoQ

- MMFS reported disbursements of ~INR128b in 1QFY26 (up ~1% YoY), leading to business assets growing by ~15% YoY. We expect credit costs (as % of avg. loans) for MMFS to be at ~2% in 1QFY26 (vs. 1.6% in 4QFY25). MMFS also reported deterioration of ~50-60bp QoQ in 30+ dpd.
- For CIFIC and SHTF, we expect a disbursement growth of 2%/17% YoY, which should translate into ~23%/17% YoY growth in AUM for CIFIC/SHTF as of Jun'25. Disbursements were largely flat YoY for CIFIC because the company has stopped doing fintech-originated CSEL, supply chain financing, and flexi loans.
- We estimate NIM expansion for vehicle financiers in FY26, driven by a decline in CoB and a fixed-rate vehicle finance book. Vehicle financiers faced seasonal asset quality deterioration this quarter, which is expected to result in sequentially higher credit costs.

- The broad industry trends remain challenging, particularly in the CV segment. While volumes in the HCV segment are declining, the LCV segment is performing relatively better. The entry-level PV segment also remains weak, with 2W and tractors being the only segments showing relatively better performance from an overall auto industry standpoint.

Gold Finance – robust gold loan growth but with NIM compression

- We expect gold loan financiers to deliver very strong gold loan growth (partly driven by tonnage growth and partly by an increase in portfolio LTV) in 1QFY26. While we expect MGFL to have delivered ~24% YoY gold loan growth, the drag from its MFI and CV business would keep consolidated loan growth muted at just ~2% YoY. We expect ~43% YoY gold loan growth for MUTH.
- Gold financiers are likely to witness NIM compression this quarter, driven by a moderation in lending yields. We expect margins to contract ~40bp QoQ for MUTH and ~15bp QoQ for MGFL.
- While credit costs peaked in 4QFY25 for both Asirvad and Belstar, they are expected to remain elevated over the next two quarters, with normalization likely only in 2HFY26.

MFIs – credit costs decline sequentially but will remain elevated

- Disbursements remained muted across all MFIs (except CREDAG). We expect the loan book to de-grow for Fusion and Spandana, while CREDAG's GLP has largely remained flat QoQ. We expect AUM to decline ~11%/22% QoQ for Fusion/Spandana in 1QFY26.
- The impact of the Karnataka ordinance is yet to fully normalize, with lingering stress still evident in the state. Normalization is now anticipated by 2QFY26, a slight delay from the earlier estimate of 1QFY26. We expect credit costs to remain elevated for the next two quarters, a major proportion of which will be contributed by write-offs that had slipped over Jan-Apr'25. We estimate annualized credit costs of ~8%/ ~7%/36% for CREDAG/Fusion/Spandana in this quarter.
- A trend reversal is on the horizon in the MFI sector and is likely to play out over the next couple of quarters, with the sector likely nearing normalization by 2HFY26. That said, we strongly believe that the upcoming three months present an opportunity to separate high-quality franchises from weaker ones, with performance divergence across the MFI sector expected to be increasingly evident.

Diversified Financiers – poised for stronger growth in unsecured segments; credit costs slightly higher due to seasonality

- LTFH reported ~18% YoY/5% QoQ growth in retail loans. Since the company is not growing its wholesale segments (such as real estate and infrastructure), we expect the consolidated loan book to grow ~4% QoQ in 1QFY26. We anticipate credit costs to remain broadly stable QoQ at 2.6%.
- BAF reported AUM growth of ~25% YoY/6% QoQ. We estimate a ~7bp QoQ contraction in NIM for BAF with credit costs at ~205bp (v/s 197bp QoQ).
- Poonawalla posted AUM growth of ~53% YoY/16% QoQ with total AUM of INR413b. We expect credit costs to dip ~45bp QoQ to ~1.45% (vs. 1.9% in 4QFY25).
- For IIFL Finance, we expect strong growth in gold loan AUM to sustain and estimate gold loan book growth of ~25% QoQ. While we expect a sequential decline in its MFI AUM, it would still exhibit a ~7% QoQ growth in its consolidated AUM. We estimate a PAT of INR2.2b in 1QFY26 (vs. INR2.1b in 4QFY25).

Power Financiers – muted loan growth; asset quality to remain broadly stable

- Disbursements among power financiers showed mixed trends. REC is expected to report healthy disbursement growth, whereas disbursements for PFC are likely to remain muted. Asset quality is expected to remain stable/improve, since there were no new slippages or stressed asset resolutions in the quarter. TRN Energy has been restructured, and we expect the benefit to accrue in provision write-backs in 2QFY26. The final guidelines on project financing have been published by the RBI and will not lead to any material increase in provisioning requirements for either PFC or REC.
- For PFC, we expect disbursements to decline 47% QoQ, leading to loan book growth of ~16% YoY/1.4% QoQ. For REC, we expect disbursement growth of ~26% YoY, which could potentially result in loan book growth of ~10% YoY/2.4% QoQ.

Strong recovery for capital market; steady trend for insurance

- The non-lending financial industry witnessed a strong recovery across segments in 1QFY26. Positive market sentiment boosted activity in the cash segment and AUM growth for AMCs/wealth managers/distributors. For life insurers, premium growth was subdued, though we expect an improvement in profitability. General insurers witnessed a marginal recovery in underlying demand, but they are expected to face elevated claims.
- SIP flows reached a new peak of INR266b+ in Apr'25/May'25 and equity inflows were largely stable, which, coupled with MTM gains, should support AUM of AMCs/CAMS/KFin. We expect yields to decline sequentially, offset by positive MTM contribution in other income.
- BSE reported strong MoM growth in premium turnover during Apr'25/May'25, offset by a decline in volumes during Jun'25. MCX continued to witness a surge in notional volumes and premium turnover, driven by crude oil volatility and all-time high prices of precious metals. ANGELONE's order run rate is likely to rise marginally, supported by robust retail cash activity and strong performance in commodities.
- Wealth managers are expected to deliver steady inflows and recurring revenues. Transaction-led revenues should also contribute meaningfully, driven by favorable market conditions and high investor participation in unlisted equities.
- In life insurance, we expect VNB margin expansion for most players (except IPRU), driven by the rising share of higher-margin products. Within our coverage universe, YoY VNB margin changes are expected in the range of -100bp to +210bp.
- General insurers witnessed a slight recovery in the motor segment, while the health segment's growth continued to be weighed down by the transition to 1/n accounting. Despite elevated claims, operational efficiencies should drive improvement in combined ratios.
- Non-lending financial companies have seen a healthy recovery after the impact of regulatory changes. With penetration at significantly lower levels, we expect capital market players to sustain their strong performance. For life insurance companies, we expect 1HFY26 to be tepid in terms of premium growth given the high base of 1HFY25, though it is expected to reverse in 2HFY26. In the capital market space, our top picks are UTI AMC, Nuvama and Angel One. Among insurance stocks, our preferred picks are HDFC Life and Niva Bupa.

Cash activity picks up, F&O loses some steam during the quarter

- Cash volumes witnessed MoM growth during all three months of 1QFY26, backed by strong retail momentum and institutional flows. Cash ADTO grew 2%/12%/2% MoM in Apr'25/May'25/Jun'25.
- F&O ADTO inched up 5% MoM in Apr'25 but then declined 5%/1% MoM in May'25/Jun'25. On the other hand, option premium ADTO saw strong growth of 16%/3% MoM in Apr'25/May'25 but declined 17% MoM in Jun'25 owing to a decline in retail momentum.
- BSE's market share in the options segment continued to scale up in terms of notional/premium turnover, reaching 37.2%/22% in Jun'25 vs. 36.7%/20% in Mar'25.

- Incremental demat account additions declined slightly to 2m/2.2m in Apr'25/May'25 from average of 2.4m per month in 4QFY25. NSE active client count continued to decline.
- High volatility in crude oil and precious metals due to macroeconomic pressures led to a surge in MCX volumes during the quarter. Futures ADTO was at INR406b in 1QFY26 (INR275b in 4QFY25). On the other hand, options ADTO rose to INR2.7t in 1QFY26 (INR2.2t in 4QFY25). Record-high gold prices and the launch of monthly silver option contracts by MCX led to ~2x surge in bullion options.
- We expect ANGELONE to report marginal revenue growth of 4% QoQ, with a 6% rise in the order run rate, offset by lower trading days. Lower customer acquisitions will slightly offset the impact of IPL costs during the quarter. Strong growth in premium turnover is expected to result in double-digit growth in revenue and operating profit of exchanges. Strong cash activity amid positive market sentiment and a recovery in the IPO pipeline will lead to strong double-digit sequential growth for CDSL.

Mutual Funds: SIP inflows scale to new heights; net equity inflows remain steady sequentially

- Mutual fund AUM grew 22%/23% YoY during Apr'25/May'25, driven by 23%/25% growth in equity AUM. On a sequential basis, net equity flows (incl. hybrid) continued to rise to INR385b/INR398b in Apr'25/May'25 from INR241b in Mar'2025. SIP inflows scaled new heights to INR266b/INR267b in Apr'25/May'25.
- Equity AUM's share dipped ~30bp in Apr'25 but rose ~80bp in May'25 to 57.2%. AUM of HDFC AMC/Nippon AMC/ABSL AMC/UTI AMC grew 24%/28%/17%/17% YoY at the end of May'25, reflecting market shares of 11.5%/8.5%/5.6%/5%.
- We expect AMCs to register decent revenue growth on a sequential basis, affected by a slight decline in yields. Other income is expected to continue on sequential growth trajectory on the back of a favorable market environment, leading to growth in profitability.
- CAMS and KFin are expected to register moderate sequential revenue growth of 5% and 6%, respectively, due to yield pressure, which is likely to be offset by healthy AUM growth.
- For wealth managers, steady inflows and positive MTM impact should drive healthy AUM growth. While recurring revenue is expected to remain stable, transaction revenue is likely to pick up due to favorable market sentiment sequentially.

Life Insurance: Base impact on APE growth; positive outlook for VNB margin

- Private life insurance companies posted 8%/10% YoY growth in APE in Apr'25/May'25. Individual APE growth was impacted by a slowdown in ULIP momentum and a high base. We expect single-digit to mid-teen growth for our coverage universe, except for IPRU, which is expected to report APE decline of 1% YoY.
- VNB margin should continue to improve owing to an increasing share of non-par and protection products in the mix, as well as a rise in the contribution of high-margin ULIP sales (high sum assured with rider attachments). For our coverage universe, we expect VNB margin to expand by 90bp to 210bp YoY, except for IPRU, which is expected to see a 100bp YoY decline in VNB margin.

General Insurance: Slow quarter; operational leverage to boost combined ratio

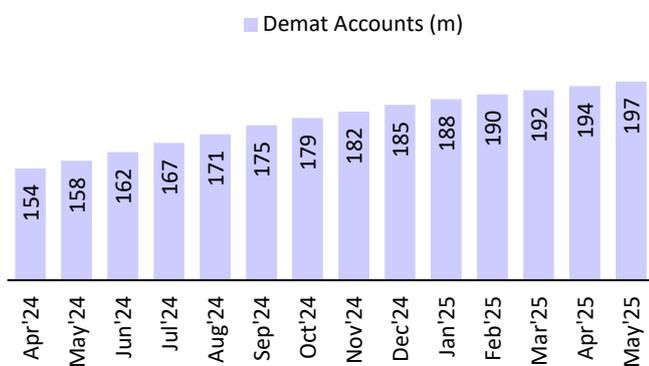

- The general insurance segment recorded GWP growth of 12%/5% YoY in Apr'25/May'25. The health segment reported 11%/8% YoY growth in Apr'25/May'25, impacted by 1/n on retail health growth, offset by mid-teen growth in the group health segment. The motor segment saw a slight recovery, growing 11%/8% in Apr'25/May'25 (6.8% YoY in 4QFY25).
- For ICICI, premium was up 7%/2% YoY in Apr'25/May'25. While the motor segment's growth remained weak in single digits, retail health saw strong double-digit growth, which was offset by tepid growth in the group health segment.
- For Apr'25/May'25, STARHEAL continued to post soft premium growth of 5%/3% YoY, with retail growth of 11%/8% offset by group health decline of 49%/46% YoY.
- Niva Bupa's GWP grew 9%/10% YoY in Apr'25/May'25 with retail health growing 9%/11% and group health growing 6%/12% YoY.
- While claims are expected to remain elevated due to medical inflation and high claim frequency, operational efficiencies will offset the impact on combined ratio.

Pharma growth moderates

Hospitals shine on superior execution

After nearly 13 quarters of healthy performance, the pharma companies under our coverage are expected, on an aggregate basis, to report a modest 5% YoY growth in EBITDA for the quarter. Aggregate sales are projected to grow 8.7% YoY, reaching INR790b. Moderation in the domestic formulation (DF) segment, driven by weakness in the acute segment and higher competition in select US generics products, is expected to impact performance in 1QFY26. PAT is expected to grow at a higher rate of 10% YoY due to lower tax rate on an aggregate basis. In the hospital space, we expect strong execution, supported by bed additions, to drive 20% YoY growth in EBITDA for the quarter.

DF: Coverage growth momentum eases for the quarter

Coverage companies outperform IPM despite moderation in YoY growth trend

For companies under our coverage, we expect aggregate sales of the DF segment to grow 9.2% YoY to INR244b in 1QFY26. However, this growth trend is expected to moderate compared to the past four quarters, driven by the reduced benefit of seasonality and a shift in volumes toward the trade generics segment. That said, compared to IPM growth of ~6.9% YoY, companies under our coverage are well-positioned to outperform the broader market.

Acute therapies dragging overall YoY growth for the quarter on aggregate basis

Chronic therapies (39% of IPM) grew 10% YoY, while acute therapies grew 5% (61% of IPM) for 12M ending May'25. Therapy-wise, strong performance in Cardiac, Respiratory, and Anti-Diabetes therapies has contributed to better growth compared to IPM for the quarter. However, to some extent, overall IPM growth was impacted by moderate growth in Derma/Anti-infective/Gynae/Gastro therapy.

ZYDUSLIF/SUNP/TRP to deliver robust YoY sales growth in DF segment for 1QFY26

Company-wise, in the large cap space, we expect ZYDUSLIF/SUNP/TRP to deliver sales growth of 12%/11.5%/11.5% YoY, respectively, backed by new launches, market share gains, and improving MR productivity. Based on IQVIA data, ZYDUSLIF recorded growth across Antineoplastics, Cardiac, and Respiratory therapies. SUNP has demonstrated broad-based growth across most segments, except anti-infectives, while TRP witnessed positive single-digit growth in all therapies except VMN and Pain during the 3M ending May'25.

US: Coverage revenues to contract after 11 quarters of expansion

US sales to witness 4.4% YoY decline in 1QFY26

For our coverage companies, we expect US sales to decline 4.4% YoY, reaching USD2.3b for the quarter. After 11 quarters of strong YoY growth, the US business is expected to record a YoY decline at aggregate level.

LPC to outperform on the back of potential product launches

We expect DRRD/Cipla/Alkem Lab to report YoY declines of 13%/13%/8.5% in US revenue for the quarter. This is largely attributed to increased competition in g-Revlimid (DRRD/Cipla) as well as fewer launches/product rationalization in the case of Alkem.

LPC remains promising, with US sales expected to grow 14% YoY for the quarter, led by new launches (g-Tolvaptan, g-Rivaroxaban, and continued sale of g-Mirabegron). SUNP and ARBP are expected to see a marginal decline in US sales due to price reductions in g-Revlimid. A low base is likely to support YoY growth of 11%/6.5% in US sales for ALPM/TRP.

Steady approval pace for the industry and coverage companies

During the quarter, nine facilities belonging to our coverage companies were inspected by the USFDA. At industry level, total approvals stood at 202 in 1QFY26 (vs. 165 approvals in 4QFY25). For companies under our coverage, there were 51 approvals during 1QFY26, in line with the two-year average of 53 approvals.

Hospitals: Capacity ramp-up to sustain healthy growth among coverage companies

For hospitals under our coverage, we expect revenue to grow 17% to INR92b in 1QFY26. Performance is expected to be driven by a surge in operational beds on a YoY basis, rising from 14,083 in 1QFY25 to 15,130 in 1QFY26.

In FY25, Medanta added 210 operating beds across key centers, APHS commissioned 80 beds, while Max Healthcare led with 860 operational bed additions, including acquisitions. For the quarter, we expect EBITDA/PAT to grow 12%/30% YoY on an aggregate basis.

Overall occupancy is expected to improve ~150bp YoY. Realization per patient (ARPOB) is expected to remain stable on an aggregate basis. Hospital companies are focusing on utilizing beds across cash, insurance, and scheme categories to optimize the payor mix. In addition to adding beds, they are also working to expand their doctor teams to cater to a higher number of patients.

Hospitals under our coverage are advancing bed additions through both organic/inorganic means. MAXHEALT plans to add ~1,464 beds by the end of FY26. APHS is working to add 1,740 beds in FY26 following the refurbishment of the acquired Pune/Gurgaon hospitals, as part of its multi-phase plan to add 3,500 beds over the next 3-4 years. Medanta aims to strengthen its presence in Delhi with a planned capacity of 1,150 beds over the next three years. In FY25, Fortis/KIMS recorded robust capacity expansion with the addition of 806/989 beds.

We expect APHS to post 14%/23%/37% YoY growth in sales/EBITDA/PAT for 1QFY26. MEDANTA is expected to deliver moderate performance with sales/EBITDA/PAT growth of 12%/16%/27.6% YoY. MAXHEALT is also expected to deliver sustained performance with sales/EBITDA/PAT posting 26%/26%/39% YoY growth, respectively.

LAURUS/BIOS to outperform in the healthcare pack

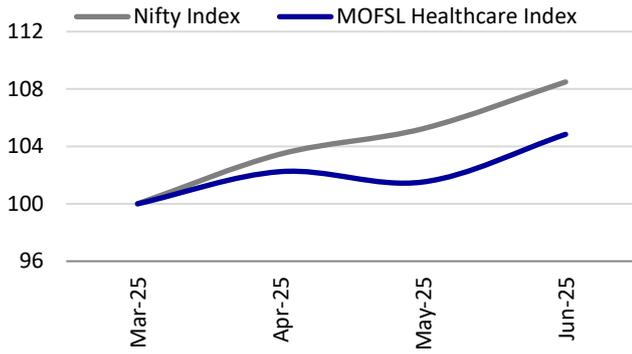

- In 1QFY26, we expect Laurus/BIOS/DIVI to post 82%/47%/36% growth in EBITDA on a YoY basis. Improved traction in the CDMO segment and better operating leverage are expected to drive superior performance for the third consecutive quarter. The biologics business, along with new launches in the generics business, is expected to drive robust YoY growth for BIOS. Broad-based execution across the CS and generics segments is likely to support strong performance for DIVI in 1QFY26.
- We expect Alkem/Cipla/DRRD to record a YoY decline of 12%/10%/7%/5% in EBITDA. Muted business in DF for ALKEM/CIPLA and increased competition in g-Revlimid for DRRD/Cipla/ZYDUSLIF are expected to impact their performance in 1QFY26.
- For the quarter, we have increased our estimates for Lupin by 6%/5% for FY26/FY27 to factor in improved prospects for the US generics business. Conversely, we have cut our FY26 estimates by 5% for ALKEM, ARBP, MEDANTA, MAX, and SUNP.
- Top Ideas: Max Healthcare (strong pace of bed additions over the next 12-18M), ARBP (growth driven by PENG/niche products), BIOS (improved prospects across the biologics/generics segment), and IPCA Lab (superior execution in DF and revival in US).

- Low base and fewer approvals to drive 12% YoY growth in US sales, reaching USD62m during the quarter.
- Expect impact of inferior product mix to be offset by better operating leverage on a YoY basis for the quarter.
- Expect DF sales to post a weak 3% YoY growth in 1QFY26, impacted by muted show in anti-infectives, respiratory, and gastro-intestinal therapies.
- Expect 6% YoY growth in the API business, led by some stability in API prices at the portfolio level.

- Expect DF sales to grow 6% YoY, impacted by weakness in anti-infectives and gastro-intestinal therapies. VMNs/anti-diabetic to deliver healthy YoY growth.
- Muted sales growth and lower operating leverage likely to drag overall margins for the quarter.
- Expect US sales to decline 12% YoY to INR6.1b, as potential ANDA approvals were received toward the end of the quarter.
- Updates on growth initiatives (biologics/med-tech) and revival in the US outlook.

- Expect 13% YoY growth in overall sales, led by steady progress in the DF segment and pick-up in the exports/API business.
- Expect API sales to grow 13% YoY for the quarter due to inventory build-up and sharp reduction in prices.
- Expect the DF segment to grow 10.5% YoY, led by superior execution in pain and gastro therapies, partly offset by muted show in derma/anti-infectives therapies.
- Progress on product filing, launches, and relaunches from own as well as Unichem sites.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: 3.5|1.6

- Low base and scale-up of certain contracts to drive 125% YoY growth in the CS business.
- Expect the API business to remain stable YoY, as lower ARV-API sales will likely be offset by growth in non-ARV APIs.
- Progress on scaling up from exhibit batches to commercial batches in the CDMO segment.
- Update on further investments across focus segments and subsequent net debt outlook.

Execution to be muted in 1Q; tender pipeline remains robust

Project awarding remains subdued in 1QFY26

- Project awarding by NHAI in 1QFY26 remains subdued with ~166km of projects being awarded, while construction stood at ~1,000km (project awarding by NHAI totaled 4,080km, while construction reached ~5,600km in FY25). NHAI has set a target of 4,500km to be awarded in FY26. Awarding is expected to accelerate in 2HFY26. The order pipeline continues to remain robust.
- Budgetary outlay for roads in the Union Budget 2025 was marginally increased by 2.4% YoY. This should continue to support project awarding going forward. The government's thrust on infrastructure development and improved credit availability from banks are highly encouraging factors.

FASTag toll collections improve sequentially; asset monetization in focus

- FASTag toll collections (in volume terms) improved ~16% YoY during 1QFY26, while collections in value terms increased ~20% YoY during the same period. Higher toll collections play a crucial role in expediting the monetization of road assets by the Ministry. Additionally, it benefits companies seeking to monetize their existing toll assets.
- NHAI's primary focus is on asset monetization as a means to generate funds beyond budgetary allocations.

Execution to be muted for our coverage universe on a YoY basis

- For our coverage universe (excl. IRB), we expect revenue to decrease 10% YoY (-13% QoQ). In line with execution, we expect operating profit for our coverage (excl. IRB) to decrease 21% YoY (-28% QoQ).
- IRB is likely to report ~14% YoY growth in sales due to higher BoT revenue (+13% YoY) and a marginal improvement in construction (+4% YoY). Led by high operating expenses, EBITDA is anticipated to grow 11% on a YoY basis.

Softening input prices to support margins for contractors

- Steel and aluminum prices have decreased ~25% each since Apr'22. Cement prices have increased ~8% from their lows in Sep'24.
- With higher construction activities and moderating commodity prices, road contractors anticipate some improvement in profitability and margins in 4QFY24 and beyond.

Players with a strong order book, balance sheet, and diversified operations well placed

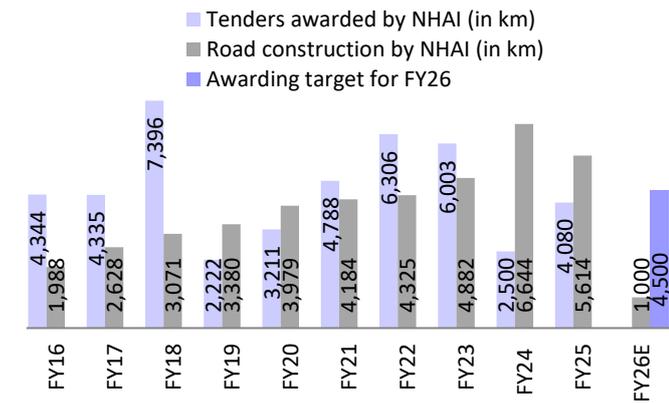

- Despite sluggishness in project awarding in 1QFY26, there is a robust pipeline of tenders in place. Entities having substantial order backlogs, strong financial standings, and engagement across various sectors are well-positioned to capitalize on NHAI's proactive approach to project allocation.
- Players with decent order books, strong balance sheets, and a presence in two or more segments are better placed to capitalize on the opportunity.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: -|-

- Expect revenue to decrease 10% YoY to INR17.1b in 1QFY26.
- Adjusted PAT to decrease ~8% YoY to INR1.7b. Profitability will be affected by muted execution.
- Expect EBITDA to be at ~INR2b and EBITDA margin at 11.8%. Muted execution and elevated costs will continue to hurt the EBITDA margin.
- Commentaries on execution, order inflows, and monetization of assets through the InvIT route are the key monitorables.

Gradual recovery in logistics activity amid cost pressures

Margins to improve YoY

Daily average e-way bill generation rises; port volumes grow YoY

- Logistics activity continued to show signs of recovery in 1QFY26, with consumption—particularly in rural areas—picking up gradually. Macro indicators such as e-way bill generation, GST collections, and FASTag toll data also reflect the gradual improvement in logistics activity. However, elevated fuel prices and higher toll charges continue to weigh on transportation costs.
- Indian Railways recorded a modest 2% YoY increase in freight volumes in 1QFY26, reaching 413MT. Strong double-digit growth was observed in finished steel, container traffic, and food grains, while EXIM volumes remained subdued due to global trade headwinds and a possible shift in modal preferences.
- Daily average e-way bill generation increased ~21% YoY during Apr-May'25. Fleet utilization stood at 80-85%. Daily average FASTag toll collections rose ~18% YoY during 1Q FY26.
- Port volumes increased ~6% YoY to 147MT during Apr-May'25.

Freight rates stable amid the high cost of operations

- Due to consistently high operational expenses and increased retail fuel costs, freight rates have remained elevated. Fleet operators face rising costs from diesel, truck expenses, and compliance, such as GST and e-way bills.
- With a marginal increase in volumes and stable diesel prices, organized players are likely to experience a slight margin improvement on a sequential basis.

Road logistics activity picks up in 1Q; ports activity improves YoY

- We expect our coverage universe (excluding APSEZ and JSWINFRA) to report sales growth of 10% YoY (+1% QoQ), EBITDA growth of 25% YoY (+8% QoQ), and PAT growth of 39% YoY (+6% QoQ) in 1QFY26.
- With pickup in economic activity indicated by macro factors such as GST and E-way bill data, the freight/supply chain/seaways business of TRPC is expected to report revenue growth of ~11%/18%/6% YoY. The Seaways division is expected to lead margins for the company.
- Container Corporation of India (CONCOR) is expected to report ~7% volume growth driven by 10% YoY growth in domestic volumes, while EXIM volumes are likely to rise 6% YoY in 1QFY26. Margins are also expected to improve 50bp YoY.
- In 1QFY26, APSEZ reported volume growth of 11% YoY, and JSWINFRA is expected to post volume growth of 5% YoY.

Organized and integrated service providers likely to gain market share

- The industry trend is shifting towards integrated supply chain services and sophisticated solutions (such as inventory optimization and data analytics) from standalone offerings like transportation and warehousing.
- The logistics sector remains robust, propelled by government-driven reforms, changing industry preferences, and the rise of new business sectors such as e-commerce and network services.

Container Corp. of India (CONCOR)

Buy
CMP: INR746 | TP: INR950 (+27%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: -12|-11

- Expect volumes to rise ~7% YoY.
- EBITDA margin to improve 50bp YoY to 21.1%
- Adj. PAT to increase to ~INR3.2b (+26% YoY) primarily due to strong domestic volumes and lower LLF expense.
- Expect EXIM/domestic volumes to grow ~6%/10% YoY.
- Growth in EXIM trade, progress on commissioning of the DFC, and divestment of stake by the government are the key monitorables.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: -5|-1

- Expect revenue to increase ~2% YoY to INR8.3b, driven by 18% YoY growth in realization due to the price hikes undertaken. Volumes are expected to decline 13% YoY due to volume loss from low-margin customers.
- Expect EBITDA to be at ~INR1.6b; EBITDA margin to increase 940bp YoY due to higher realizations and higher sourcing of refinery fuel.
- Expect adjusted PAT to be at INR537m (+300% YoY) due to the lower base of 1QFY25.
- Addition of fleet, branch expansion, and volume growth are the key monitorables.

High steel prices with muted cost to drive earnings; non-ferrous earnings to soften over muted volume and prices

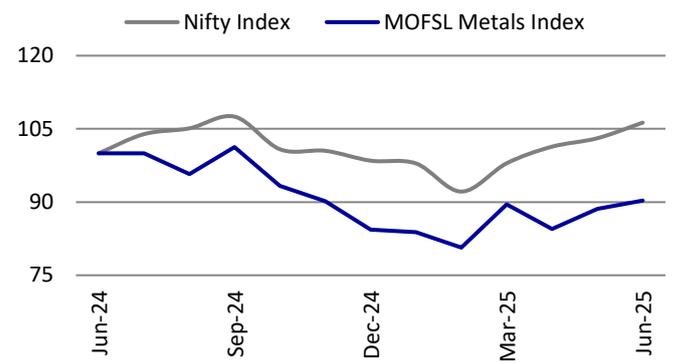

- Domestic HRC prices surged INR3,300/t QoQ in 1QFY26 (vs. INR46,500/t in mid-Jan'25), primarily led by a 12% safeguard duty. Average primary rebar prices improved INR2,100/t QoQ, supported by strong construction demand.
- Global prices continue to remain under pressure, led by Chinese oversupply resulting from weak domestic consumption. China HRC export prices (FOB) declined 3% QoQ to USD453/t during the quarter. While the US tariff tension has become a potential headwind for the industry, the safeguard duty in India is providing support to domestic prices in the near term.
- On the non-ferrous front, commodities saw a sequential price correction in 1QFY26. The average price declined 7% QoQ for Aluminum/Zinc and declined 2% QoQ for Lead, while Copper prices increased 2% QoQ in 1QFY26.
- Coking coal (premium HCC) prices continued to hover at USD190-200/t, with average prices remaining flat QoQ at USD200/t in 1QFY26. Ferrous companies had guided for a coking coal benefit of USD10-15/t in 1QFY26, driven by low-cost inventories.
- During the quarter, volumes are expected to remain soft QoQ, led by the early onset of monsoon and a higher base in 4QFY25. As a result, we believe muted volumes will weigh on QoQ performance for both ferrous and non-ferrous players. However, improved ferrous NSR and muted costs are expected to support margins for ferrous players.
- We have a BUY rating on JSL, JSTL, JSP, and HNDL.
- Ferrous: We expect ferrous companies to report a volume decline of 11% QoQ (+6% YoY), which would be partially offset by an NSR improvement of 4% QoQ (-7% YoY), resulting in a revenue decline of 7% QoQ (-1% YoY) in 1QFY26. Muted coking coal costs (USD10-15/t) and healthy NSR are likely to improve EBITDA/t by INR1,500/t during the quarter. Overall, we believe EBITDA will increase 2% QoQ (+11% YoY) for ferrous companies in our coverage universe (Tata Steel Europe to post EBITDA breakeven in 1QFY26, led by better pricing and cost-saving measures).
- Non-ferrous: Non-ferrous companies under our coverage are expected to post an aggregate revenue and EBITDA decline of 8% and 18% QoQ, respectively, led by muted volumes and sequential price corrections. However, they are projected to post a 5% and 2% YoY increase, respectively.
- Mining: Coal India recorded 190mt volumes, declining 5% QoQ and 4% YoY, which is expected to result in a revenue decline of 2% QoQ (+2 YoY) in 1QFY26. Similarly, NMDC sales volumes declined 5% QoQ (+20% YoY) to 12.1mt, while prices increased 3% QoQ (+6% YoY) in 1QFY26. As a result, we expect NMDC's revenue to decline 2% QoQ (+27% YoY). EBITDA and PAT are expected to grow 15% and 21% QoQ, led by lower costs in 1QFY26.

OMCs/CGDs weather commodity storm!

- We expect the MOFSL coverage universe to report: 1) flat sales YoY (+7% YoY excluding OMCs), 2) a 25% YoY rise in EBITDA (+5% YoY excluding OMCs), and 3) a 42% YoY increase in PAT (+9% YoY excluding OMCs) in 1QFY26.
- RIL: Consol. EBITDA is expected to grow 17% YoY to INR453b. We estimate EBITDA of 1) INR155b (up 9% YoY) for the standalone business, 2) INR164b (up 18% YoY) for RJio, and 3) INR64b (up 19% YoY) for the retail business. Production meant for sale is likely to stand at 16.9mmt (down 5% YoY) due to plant shutdown, with standalone PAT at INR97b (up 28% YoY).
- OMCs: Standalone EBITDA for HPCL/BPCL/IOCL is expected to grow QoQ, driven by an improvement in marketing margins on a QoQ basis. SG GRM averaged USD5.7/bbl in 1Q (vs. USD3.2/bbl in 4Q).
- CGDs: We estimate a 9%/6% YoY volume growth for MAHGL/IGL and a 13% YoY volume decline for GUJGA. CGD margins are expected to improve sequentially as raw material costs decline. Spot LNG prices remained elevated despite a sequential decline, averaging around USD12.4/mmBtu in 1Q.
- Upstream: For ONGC and OINL, we expect oil & gas sales volumes to remain largely flat both QoQ and YoY, while oil realizations are likely to see a sharp sequential decline for both companies.

Maintain our bearish crude price outlook; SG GRM recovers QoQ

- In 1QFY26, crude oil prices witnessed heightened volatility, fluctuating between USD60-80/bbl. The swings were driven by mixed signals from OPEC+ supply actions, an uncertain global demand outlook (especially from China), and intermittent geopolitical flare-ups in the Middle East.
- IEA forecasts a 1.1mb/d crude oil oversupply in CY25, as oil supply is set to increase by 1.8mb/d in CY25 (1.4mb/d by OPEC+). Hence, we remain bearish on crude and maintain our Brent price forecast of USD65/bbl for CY25/26.

SG GRM up 78% QoQ in 1Q; long-term refining outlook remains soft

- SG GRM recovered sharply in 1QFY26 (up 78% QoQ), as all the product cracks improved sequentially. Marketing margins remained robust in 1Q, with MS/HSD marketing margins averaging INR12.7/INR11 per lit. Blended marketing margins for IOCL/BPCL/HPCL are expected at INR6.3/INR6.7/INR6.4 per lit in 1QFY26.
- The long-term refining GRM outlook remains subdued, with global refining capacity additions outpacing the global rise in demand for refined products. The IEA expects ~2.5mb/d cumulative net refining capacity to be added over CY24-30 vs. only ~0.3mb/d cumulative refined product demand growth (~0.7mb/d over CY24-27). Further, ~1.4mb/d of the total net capacity additions are expected to be on stream by CY27. Following the sharp 1Q recovery, we raise our SG GRM assumption to USD5.2/bbl, and maintain our FY27 assumption at USD5/bbl.

Petchem margin weakness persists in 1Q

- Petchem prices were down 8%/13% QoQ/YoY on average in 1QFY26. LDPE/HDPE/PP prices declined 3%/9%/6% YoY in 1Q.
- PX spread over naphtha declined 48% YoY but was up 15% QoQ, while PP spread over naphtha was up 15% YoY/QoQ.

Strong quarter for OMCs; CGD margin expansion underway

- Amid a strong recovery in refining margins, super-normal MS/HSD marketing margins, and a reduction in LPG losses QoQ in 1Q, we estimate EBITDA for OMCs to rise 11-46% QoQ. We expect GRM to range between USD7 and 9/bbl, while blended marketing margin is likely to be around INR 6.3-6.7/lit.
- A sequential improvement in EBITDA/scm margin from CGDs shall be driven by: 1) lower raw material costs as Brent/Henry Hub index/Spot LNG declined 11%/23%/12% QoQ; 2) improvement in adj. realization per scm for MAHGL/IGL due to INR1-3/kg CNG price hikes taken during the quarter; and 3) slight reduction in operating expenditure, which was on the higher end in 4QFY25.

Valuation and view

- Petronet LNG: We upgrade PLNG to BUY with a DCF-based TP of INR410. As per our DCF analysis (WACC: 11.2%), at CMP, PLNG is pricing in an unrealistic scenario of a 20% decline in tariff at both Dahej and Kochi terminals with 0% terminal growth. Further, the Street narrative of competing terminals taking away market share has 1) not worked out until now, as utilization at competitor terminals continues to languish at 14-43%, and 2) ignored PLNG's strong scale, historical capex, and connectivity advantages. While tariff cuts in FY28-related concerns linger, we highlight that the sharp cut in tariffs at Dahej in FY28 can lead to industry-wide pressure. This is because competing terminals were built at 2-3x capital cost (Dahej capex/mmtpa = ~INR5.2b vs. ~INR9-11b for competitors), and these will further enhance the relative attractiveness of the Dahej terminal as expanded Dahej capacity comes online.
- At 9.7x FY27 P/E and 4% dividend yield, we believe valuations are at absolute rock bottom. We move to a DCF-based TP (earlier 10x FY27E P/E) and assume a 10% tariff cut in Dahej and Kochi in FY28, a 4% escalation thereafter, a 2% terminal growth, and 11.2% WACC, leading to a TP of INR410. While we build in full capex for the petchem venture, we value it at only 0.5x equity.
- Mahanagar Gas: We estimate a 6% PAT CAGR driven by a 9% volume growth CAGR over FY25-27E and a stable EBITDA/scm margin of ~INR10. The company is focusing on infrastructure expansion across segments and plans to add 80+ CNG stations and 3m+ D-PNG connections in FY26 (66/40 CNG stations added in FY25/24). Further, launches of promotional schemes (Mahotsav), collaborations with OEMs, and guaranteed price discounts for new I/C-PNG customers are also expected to support volume growth.
- GAIL: During FY25-27E, we estimate a 4% CAGR in PAT, driven by 1) an increase in natural gas transmission volumes to 138mmcmd in FY27 from 127mmcmd in FY25; 2) substantial improvement in the petchem segment's profitability over FY27 as the new petchem capacity becomes operational and spreads start to bottom out; and 3) the trading segment's healthy profitability with a guided EBIT of at least INR45b, accompanied by volume growth. Possible transmission tariff revision for the Integrated National Gas Pipeline remains a key near-term trigger for the company.

GAIL

Buy
CMP: INR190 | TP: INR215 (+13%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: -8| -9

- Expect transmission volumes to remain soft and trading EBIT to remain stable.
- Expect petchem volumes of 145.3kmt; however, the segment is likely to remain EBIT-negative.
- Potential gas price-related tariff hikes remain a key monitorable; for every INR1/mmbtu increase in tariff, the company's FY26E PAT rises by ~1.3%.
- Updates on the progress of ongoing pipeline projects remain the key monitorable.

Gujarat Gas

Buy
CMP: INR480 | TP: INR555 (+16%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: +2|+1

- Expect volumes at 9.5mmscmd (down 13% YoY/flat QoQ) due to prevailing weakness in ceramic exports.
- Expect EBITDA/scm to rise 22% QoQ to INR6.6.
- Pickup in volumes at Morbi to be the key monitorable.
- A push for industrial gas usage in Thane rural, Ahmedabad rural, and new areas in Rajasthan would be the key factors for growth.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: +13|+16

- Expect transmission volumes of 26.0mmscmd (-29% YoY/flat QoQ).
- EBITDA expected to decline 46% YoY due to the continuation of the full impact of tariff cuts in 1QFY26.
- Commissioning of Phase-II Mehsana-Bhatinda pipeline and further expansion/debottlenecking of three pipelines connecting three LNG terminals remain key monitorables.
- Tariff-related updates remain the key monitorables.

Indraprastha Gas

Buy
CMP: INR216 | TP: INR250 (+16%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: +3|+2

- Expect total volumes at 9.2mmscmd (up 6% YoY/flat QoQ).
- Expect EBITDA/scm at INR6.8, up 13% QoQ, while Brent/Henry Hub declined 10%/23% QoQ.
- An increase in sales volumes from GAs – both existing and newly awarded ones – will be a key monitorable.
- Slowing D-PNG growth and increasing competition from alternate fuels in the I/C segment will be the key risks to long-term volume growth prospects.

Robust sales driven by stable demand

- Our coverage universe is expected to report presales of INR501b, up 59% YoY/51% QoQ, in 1QFY26. Volumes are expected at 32msf, up 26% YoY/35% QoQ.
- LODHA/KPDL/OBER/SOBHA are estimated to report 25-62% YoY growth in bookings. DLF/BRGD/PEPL are expected to clock presales of INR128b/INR25b/INR118b, up 2x/2x/4x YoY. Accordingly, cumulative presales of these three companies would be INR271b, representing 54% of total presales of our coverage universe, driven by new launches in the quarter.
- Collections for our coverage companies are likely to increase 58% YoY to INR293b, implying collection efficiency of ~58%.
- Revenue recognition for our coverage is expected to stand at INR167b (up 31% YoY), with EBITDA of INR50b (up 44% YoY) and a margin of 30%.
- Adj. PAT is expected to stand at INR41b, up 40% YoY with Adj. PAT margin at 25%.

Strong presales and expansion plans propel 1QFY26 growth

- DLF: After the stellar execution of The Dahlias and Privana West in FY25, DLF's performance in 1QFY26 is expected to be driven by the recent launch of Privana North with GDV of INR110b, which was sold out within just a few days of launch. The company is also set to launch its Mumbai project with 0.9msf area after recent RERA approval. While the company typically launches two to three projects per year, it is now well-equipped to handle four to five residential and two to three rental/commercial project launches annually.
- OBER: OBER is expected to post presales of INR16b in 1QFY26, up 52% YoY, primarily driven by the recent launch of Elysian Tower D, wherein gross bookings of INR9.7b have already been done, along with some from sustenance sales. It has also opened a new Sky City Mall in Borivali East, which had its soft launch last quarter and is expected to make a significant contribution to FY26 rentals.
- GPL: GPL is expected to record strong presales, guided by a mix of launches and sustenance sales from ongoing projects. It has already launched MSR City, Riverine and Astra. The company is expected to achieve bookings of INR80b in 1QFY26.
- PEPL: In 1QFY26, PEPL launched Indirapuram in NCR with GDV of INR90b (INR65b already been sold). Inclusive of Phase 2, the NCR project has a potential of INR120b. Nautilus Mumbai was launched in 4QFY25. Supported by these launches and sustenance sales, we expect PEPL to clock presales of INR118b in 1QFY26, reflecting 4x YoY growth.
- BRGD: With premium/mid-premium launches of Insignia, Citrine, Lumina and Lakecrest and its first plotted project in Bengaluru, the company is expected to clock presales of INR25b, up 2x YoY.
- SOBHA: While we estimate sales to come from launches of Sector 36 and Marina 1 (combined 1.62msf) and Magnus (4 acres), the company has ~INR124b of unsold stock across ongoing projects. We expect SOBHA to report presales of INR30b, up 62% YoY.

- SIGNATUR: The company is expected to achieve presales of INR14b from two new launches in Gurugram (Twin Tower DXP and Titanium SPR) with combined GDV of INR60b. About ~INR15b of presales are estimated to be achieved from sustenance sales. While maintaining its focus on middle-income housing, the company foresees consumption trends to be steady with steady supply.
- SUNTECK: The company is likely to report sales of INR6b (up 13% YoY) in spite of a higher base, absence of new launches, and lower sales across all key projects.
- KOLTE PATIL: Steady sales, coupled with a few small launches, should drive bookings to INR11b, marking a 49% YoY increase.
- LODHA: The company expects to launch around 17 projects in FY26 with GDV of INR188b. LODHA aims to achieve bookings of INR51b in 1QFY26, up 25% YoY. Collections for the quarter are also projected to rise 61% YoY to INR43b.
- MLDL: MLDL confirmed the redevelopment of two societies in Lokhandwala, Andheri, with GDV of INR12b. It expects to clock presales of INR7b, down 33% YoY, primarily due to a weak response to ongoing projects.

Top picks: PEPL, SIGNATUR, and LODHA

- India's top 7 tier-I cities witnessed a decline in launches and absorption in FY25 by 5% and 10% YoY, respectively. This was due to the absence of material launches in the year owing to the lack of approvals because of national and state elections. 4QFY25 saw a pickup in launches, although most of the planned launches of the top 10 developers would spill over to FY26. Hence, FY26 is expected to be a year of launches. We are already seeing this trend in DLF, PEPL, and OBER, among others. They have launched high-value projects and sold a majority of inventory in 1QFY26.
- With strong demand, a stable inventory position, healthy pricing power, and market consolidation opportunities, we anticipate steady growth in the real estate sector for at least the next two years. Therefore, we maintain a positive outlook on the sector.
- We have a BUY rating on ARCP, BRGD, DLFU, GPL, KPDL, LODHA, PEPL, SIGNATUR, SOBHA, and SRIN, and a Neutral rating on MLDL, PHNX, and OBER. LODHA, PEPL, and SIGNATUR are our top picks.

Demand trends weak; low base supports growth

Overall demand trends remain muted, with certain pockets of resilience

- The demand environment remained weak in 1QFY26, though a low base supported marginal sequential recovery. Preponement of Eid to 4QFY25 and early monsoons weighed on demand sentiment, leading to muted SSSG across players.
- Large retailers, such as Trent and DMart, continued to lead with strong double-digit growth; however, the growth rate has been decelerating for the past few quarters.
- Footwear retailers (excl. Metro) posted weak mid-single-digit growth. Metro Brands sustained the momentum seen in 2HFY25, aided by premiumization.
- Ethnic wear retailers, Vedant Fashions and Raymond Lifestyle, are set to report growth in early-teens, though this is largely optical given a low base in 1QFY25.
- However, subdued trends continue for premium retailers such as Shoppers Stop and ABFRL with mid-single-digit growth
- Reliance Retail is likely to report ~17%/19% YoY growth in revenue/operating EBITDA, aided by broad-based growth recovery after the recent rationalization.

Expect 13% YoY revenue/EBITDA growth for our coverage universe

- For our retail coverage universe (13 stocks, excl. Reliance Retail), aggregate revenue is expected to grow ~14% YoY in 1QFY26, slight pick-up from ~13% YoY in 4QFY25. However, this is primarily led by a lower base in 1QFY25 (no wedding days).
- Value retailers are likely to sustain the growth momentum, primarily driven by new store additions; however, the preponement pre-buying of Eid has materially affected SSSG in 1Q.
- Among the segments, apparel (excl. DMart) is set to report 13% YoY growth (vs. 10% YoY in 4Q), while footwear is likely to grow 6% YoY (vs. 2% in 4Q), owing to a low base.
- Aggregate gross profit is likely to improve ~12% YoY (vs. ~10% YoY in 4Q) as blended gross margin is expected to contract at a lower pace of ~45bp YoY (vs. 80bp decline in 3Q-4Q) to 32.1%.
- Aggregate EBITDA is also likely to grow ~13% YoY (vs. ~10% YoY in 4Q) as EBITDA margin is expected to decline ~10bp YoY (vs. 30bp YoY decline in 3Q-4Q), reflecting cost controls and operating leverage benefits.
- Aggregate PAT is likely to grow ~17% YoY (vs. ~22% YoY in 1Q), impacted by a sharp deceleration for Trent.

Retail: Demand trend muted; low base drives optically higher growth

- Apparel retailers under our coverage are expected to report aggregate revenue growth of ~13% YoY in 1QFY26, improving from 10% YoY in 4QFY25, largely driven by a recovery in ethnic wear retailers (on a low base of 1QFY25).
- Most retailers under our coverage are likely to deliver double-digit growth (on a low base). However, premium players such as SHOP and ABFRL are likely to post modest mid-single-digit revenue growth. Growth continue to decelerate for Trent.
- Including DMart, revenue for departmental retailers is expected to grow ~15% YoY in 1Q (vs. 14% in 4Q).

- Gross profit (excl. DMart) is estimated to rise ~13% YoY (vs. 11% YoY in 4Q), with margins stable YoY at 48.7%, reflecting stable inventory and discounting trends.
- EBITDA (excl. DMart) is projected to grow ~14% YoY (vs. 15% in 4Q), as growth on a low base for Raymond (~2x YoY) will be offset by a deceleration in Trent (+18% YoY, vs. ~38% YoY in 4Q). EBITDA margin is expected to inch up by 15bp YoY to 13.5%.
- For DMart, gross profit and EBITDA are expected to grow ~16% and ~13% YoY, respectively, with ~25bp margin contraction due to lower SPSF growth and sustained higher operating costs.

Footwear: Another subdued quarter for footwear players

- We expect ~6% YoY revenue growth (vs. 2% YoY in 4QFY25) for the footwear stocks in our coverage. Metro is likely to outperform the peers with ~11% YoY growth.
- Gross profit is projected to rise by ~6% YoY (vs. 2% YoY decline in 4QFY25) and gross margins may contract ~10bp YoY to 57.5%.
- We anticipate ~9% YoY growth in combined EBITDA (vs. 7% YoY in 4Q), with 60bp margin expansion on account of tight cost controls and operating leverage. Metro is likely to lead with ~14% YoY growth, while we expect Relaxo to post 2% YoY decline.
- Aggregate PAT is likely to decline ~3% YoY (vs. ~5% YoY decline in 4QFY25).

Store additions likely to pick up in 2HFY26

- Store expansion continues at a robust pace for value retailers, while premium retailers continue to be more measured in store openings.
- However, we expect store additions to pick up in 2H as demand trends recover.
- VMART/DMART/Trent, in their pre-quarter updates, reported 13/9/1 net store additions in 1QFY26.

Our view

- Overall, TRENT and DMART remain our long-term preferred picks in retail space, given their robust store economics, healthy balance sheets and operational discipline. However, their growth has decelerated in the past few quarters due to a weak discretionary environment and higher competitive intensity, respectively.
- We continue to like value retailers such as VMART, given tailwinds from unorganized to organized shift in tier 2 and beyond towns.
- In the footwear space, we prefer METRO, given its industry-leading store economics and a significant growth opportunity in the sports and athleisure category through FILA and Foot Locker licenses, albeit delayed due to challenges posed by BIS.

Indian IT's stop-start recovery

Growth remains uneven, but early signs of stability welcomed

- 1QFY26 has been an uncertain, albeit better-than-expected quarter for IT services, in our view. While a host of geopolitical events as well as tariff uncertainty would have played spoilsport on notable deal signings, widespread client deferrals/ ramp-downs have largely been avoided. We expect 1Q numbers to reflect this reality: QoQ revenue and deal TCV across large-caps could be unexciting (expect QoQ cc growth range of -2.5% to +1.5% for large-caps. Mid-caps are expected to outperform once again with a growth range of -2.0% to +7.0%). A weak dollar against a basket of currencies will lead to 100-200bp of QoQ cross-currency tailwinds, aiding estimates.
- Outlook on deal signing in 2QFY26 and beyond will be crucial. While this environment is not conducive to discretionary spending, we expect client enthusiasm to pick up, as serious GenAI projects, especially around productivity gains, start picking up and clients shrug off the uncertainty to focus on critical upgrades.
- On margins: We expect margins to be range-bound and supply-side pressures to remain muted; however, meaningful margin gains are restricted by low growth, visa costs and pressure from a strong INR vs USD.
- As argued in our note (dated 28th Apr'25: What lies ahead for Indian IT: The good, the bad, and the unlikely), a major re-rating for the sector hinges on the emergence of a new tech cycle and meaningful earnings upgrade. The set-up for IT services stocks, selectively, however, looks good: a US fed rate cut cycle on the horizon, a seasonally strong 1HFY26, and improving deal win rates, especially for a few mid-tier firms. Valuations across the sector are also palatable: not cheap, but there is room to expand if earnings and outlook spring a surprise.
- Our top picks earlier in the year have focused on bottom-up execution and revenue visibility (view our note dated 11th Mar'25: Recovery stuck in second gear). We believe there is a chance to look at more "risk-on" stocks now, with improving deal outlook and good vertical exposures. Our top picks in the large-cap space remain HCLT and TECHM. We could turn constructive on Infosys if commentary/guidance meaningfully improves and deal wins pick up. In mid-caps, Coforge remains our top pick, and we also like LTIMindtree in an improving environment. A materially better deal TCV outlook for MPHL could prompt us to upgrade our rating on the stock. Persistent's execution remains the best in class, but admittedly potential for re-rating is now restricted.
- For 1Q, we expect aggregate revenue for our coverage universe to grow by 6.0% YoY, while EBIT and PAT are likely to grow at 7.0% and 6.5% YoY (all in INR terms), respectively.

Growth expectations across our coverage

- We expect TCS and HCLT to report QoQ cc revenue decline of 0.5% and 1.2%, respectively, in 1QFY26. INFO is anticipated to clock 1.5% growth, driven by recent deal ramp-ups and 20bp inorganic contribution from its recent acquisition. Meanwhile, TECHM/WPRO are likely to post QoQ cc revenue decline of 1.0%/2.5%. LTIM could deliver 1.5% QoQ cc growth, driven by deal ramp-ups and seasonally strong 1Q.
- Among mid-tier firms, we expect COFORGE to lead the pack with ~7% cc QoQ revenue growth, driven by strong organic momentum and steady ramp-up of the Sabre deal, along with contributions from recent acquisitions. PSYS/HEXT are also likely to deliver 4.0%/2.2% cc QoQ growth, while Mphasis could post 1.5% cc QoQ growth.
- We expect Cyient DET to report yet another weak quarter, with QoQ cc revenue decline of 2.0%. We are factoring in a cross-currency tailwind of ~100-150bp for most companies.

Margins a mixed bag

- We expect TCS EBIT margins to remain flat QoQ, with some pressure from talent investments and constrained operating leverage. HCLT's margin may decline 50bp QoQ, in line with the typical 1Q software seasonality reset similar to prior years. Infosys may see a dip of 10bp due to wage hikes (effective Apr'25) for senior pyramid levels and ramp-up of large deals.
- LTIM's EBIT margins are likely to improve by 60bp QoQ as visa-related headwinds are offset by operating leverage.
- Among mid-caps, Coforge margins may rise to 14.0% (80bp up QoQ) as most one-offs are now behind. HEXT margins are expected to stay flat QoQ at ~14.3%, with ERP costs phasing out by end-Jun'25. LTTS may see a 40bp QoQ margin dip, due to the ramp-up of large deals and muted revenue growth.

HCLT and COFORGE remain our top picks

- Our top picks earlier in the year have focused on bottom-up execution and revenue visibility (view our note dated 11th Mar'25: Recovery stuck in second gear). We believe there is a chance to look at more "risk-on" stocks now, with an improving deal outlook and good vertical exposures. Our top picks in the large-cap space remain HCLT and TECHM. HCLT benefits from its all-weather business mix, which should support growth in the current environment. We could turn constructive on Infosys if commentary/guidance meaningfully improves and deal wins pick up.
- In mid-caps, Coforge remains our top pick, and we also like LTIM in an improving environment. MPHL's recent strong TCV wins and healthy conversion trends lend confidence to the near-term momentum. A material improvement in its deal TCV outlook could prompt us to upgrade our rating on the stock.

Coforge

Buy
CMP INR1,924 | TP: INR2,400 (+25%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: 5.7|3.7

- We expect revenue to grow ~7% QoQ in CC terms, driven by strong organic momentum and steady ramp-up of the Sabre deal, along with contributions from recent acquisitions.
- We expect 100bp expansion in reported EBITDA margin. EBIT margin should rise to 14.0% as most one-offs are now behind.
- Deal activity remains healthy, with a strong pipeline across BFS and Insurance - both offering significant cross-sell and upsell potential in acquired accounts.
- Key things to watch out for: Margin expansion despite Sabre deal ramp-up, benefits from Cigniti's cross-selling, and deal TCV in BFS and Insurance (~48.5% of revenue).

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: -1.6|0.4

- Expect 2.0% QoQ CC decline for DET in 1QFY26, impacted by spillover weakness from deal deferrals in Mar'25 and elongated closure cycles.
- Sustainability was under pressure due to project delays, but the signing of new business in the Connectivity vertical - tied to a large client renewal - in Apr'25 is expected to lend some support.
- EBIT margin for the DET segment is expected to be around 12.9%, weighed down by muted revenue, ongoing structural investments and challenges.
- We believe a weak FY25 exit and seasonally weak 1H could lead to lower revenue growth in 1HFY26, and could impact margins.

HCL Technologies

Buy
CMP INR1,729 | TP: INR2,000 (+16%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY25 | 26 | 27: 0.6 | 1.4

- We expect HCL to report a 1.2% QoQ revenue decline in a seasonally weak quarter. Services may decline 1.2% QoQ CC, while the P&P segment may see a 1.0% drop.
- Margins are expected to decline 50bp QoQ, in line with the typical 1Q seasonal reset similar to prior years.
- We expect BFSI and Hi-tech to perform relatively better. Manufacturing remains under pressure, particularly in auto, though signs of bottoming out are visible.
- We expect the company to retain its FY26 revenue growth guidance of 2-5%.

Hexaware Technologies

Buy
CMP INR850 | TP: INR950 (+12%)
EPS CHANGE (%): CY25 | 26: 1.0 | 1.6

- Hexaware is expected to report ~2.2% QoQ CC growth in 2QCY25. Growth is expected to be broad-based across verticals, with BFS outpacing other segments and HTPS and H&I growing at par with company average.
- One of the two GSE clients saw a sharp ramp-down (~2.5-month impact), but both are part of USD20-35m consolidation deals, with partial ramp-ups starting in 2Q and full scale-up in CY26.
- Margins are expected to stay flat QoQ at 14.3%. ERP-related costs are expected to phase out by end-June, aiding margin stability in the coming quarters.
- TTH may see slight weakness due to macro pressures, while Manufacturing and Consumer remain soft. Commentary on demand trends, key accounts' growth, BFS ramp-ups, and recovery in TTH will be key monitorables.

Infosys

Neutral
CMP INR1,602 | TP: INR1,800 (+12%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | 27: 0.6 | 0.4

- INFO is likely to clock 1.5% QoQ CC, supported by seasonally better calendar days, recent deal ramp-ups and 20bp inorganic contribution from its recent acquisition.
- 1H is likely to shoulder the growth burden in line with recent years; BFSI in the US expected to remain resilient, while retail continues to see softness. Automotive is weak, but core manufacturing and industrial segments remain solid and could offset this weakness partially.
- Operating margin is expected to dip by 10bp due to wage hikes (effective Apr'25) for senior pyramid levels and ramp-up of large deals. Third-party costs are expected to be lower YoY in FY26.
- Expect Infosys to upgrade the lower end of its guidance by 100bp to account for inorganic impact (current guide: 0-3% cc for FY26, estimated inorganic contribution of 80bp).

LTIMindtree

Buy
CMP INR5,317 | TP: INR6,000 (+13%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | 27: 1.6 | 3.1

- LTIM is expected to report 1.5% QoQ CC growth in 1QFY26, driven by deal ramp-ups, pass-through elements, and cross-currency tailwinds.
- EBIT margins are likely to improve by 60bp QoQ to 14.4%, as visa-related headwinds are offset by operating leverage.
- Growth is expected to be broad-based across verticals. BFSI continues to grow steadily, while Hi-tech is improving as Microsoft productivity issues ease. Retail/CPG supported by agro-tech deal ramp-up.
- Commentary on demand, deal ramp up, BFSI/Hi-tech vertical, and margins will be closely monitored.

LTTS

Neutral
CMP INR4,402 | TP: INR4,400
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | 27: -4.0|-1.8%

- We expect revenue to decline 2.0% QoQ CC in 1Q, driven by seasonality in SWC business, partly offset by deal ramp-ups.
- We expect the strong deal momentum seen in 4QFY25 to sustain in 1QFY26, as deals won in 3Q are ramping up and contributing to revenue in 1QFY26.
- EBIT margins to decline 40bp QoQ due to large deal ramp-ups and muted revenue growth.
- We expect LTTS to retain its FY26 double-digit revenue growth guidance, and overall organic revenue growth in FY26 is expected to be better than in FY25.

Mphasis

Neutral
CMP INR2,845 | TP: INR3,150 (+10%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | 27: -0.4|1.2

- We expect 1.5% QoQ CC growth, supported by ramp-up in BFSI and TMT verticals.
- Margin performance in 1Q is likely to be range-bound, with utilization expected to hold steady and no material change in amortization or SG&A ratios.
- Expect notable improvement in TCV win rate in FY26; this could meaningfully improve growth visibility for the next 4-6 quarters, top client ramp-down notwithstanding.
- Commentary around demand environment, the volume recovery for its mortgage business deal TCV and logistics vertical will be worth tracking.

Persistent Systems

Buy
CMP INR6,041 | TP: INR7,000 (+16%)
EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | 27: 2.7 | 2.0

- We expect 4.0% QoQ CC revenue growth in 1QFY26. Growth to be led by BFSI and Hi-tech, as top healthcare client faces slowdown due to offshoring.
- Margins are expected to increase 20bp to 15.8%, aided by steady rationalization of SG&A and employee costs. Comments around offshoring mix shall be looked at, as it becomes a key margin lever.
- HLS vertical, impacted by lower federal funding, warrants close monitoring in upcoming commentary.
- Management remains confident in the strength of the deal pipeline, which should result in strong deal TCV in 1QFY26.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | 27: -0.5 | -0.2

- TCS is expected to post revenue decline of 0.5% QoQ CC as clients largely prefer to wait out near-term uncertainty.
- BFSI is expected to remain resilient, while healthcare clients have adopted a wait-and-watch approach. Delays and pauses in decision-making persist, albeit sporadically without cancellations.
- Outlook on near-term demand & tech budgets, BFSI vertical, and deal wins are key monitorables.
- EBIT margin is likely to remain flat QoQ, with some pressure from talent investments, lower utilization and constrained operating leverage. Pyramid and productivity gains remain key levers.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | 27: 0.9 | 1.5

- Revenue growth may see a decline of 1.0% QoQ CC due to a muted recovery in Telecom and Manufacturing (~50% of revenue). While the communications vertical has stabilized, recovery may take time.
- Margins are expected to rise by 20bp, supported by lower subcontractor costs and SG&A efficiency. That said, weak revenue growth may limit upside.
- Deal wins have picked up pace, with TECHM outperforming peers. Management sees a sustainable TCV baseline of USD600-800m.
- The outlook on segments such as BFS vertical and CME, especially in US and deal TCV, will be the key monitorable.

- WPRO is likely to report a 2.5% cc decline in revenue in IT service business (midpoint of its quarterly guidance) as deterioration in client spends was observed as of 4Q end.
- Ongoing client-specific challenges and project ramp-downs may keep Europe under pressure, though new leadership execution and a major deal ramp-up in 2H may offer some respite.
- Margins are likely to stay in a tight range (~17.5%), with potential pressure arising from a challenging revenue environment and pricing constraints in vendor consolidation engagements.
- Any change in client stance on transformation projects should be monitored, as the company indicated that some projects are being paused or timelines are being realigned.

- We expect 1% QoQ cc growth in 1QFY26.
- We anticipate EBITDA margins to decline by 50bp QoQ to 15.1%, led by investments in SG&A.
- BFS shall continue to grow. TMT may see growth in 1Q, but uncertainties are likely to remain.
- Deal TCV may see seasonality this quarter. Comments around deal pipeline and client conversations shall be monitored.

Likely a steady quarter; next tariff hike key monitorable

Steady quarter with 2-3% QoQ revenue/EBITDA growth likely for telcos

We expect ~2-3% sequential growth in combined wireless revenue/EBITDA for the three private telcos in 1QFY26. We build in a 1.5% sequential uptick in the blended ARPU for the three private telcos, driven by one extra day (vs. 4QFY25) and the residual benefit of tariff hikes. Subscriber net adds for private telcos continue to improve with the stabilization of initial churn after the tariff hikes. We expect Indus Towers (Indus) to benefit from full-quarter contribution from Bharti's acquired towers, while TCOM is expected to report a muted quarter. Commentary on the potential next round of tariff hikes, RJio's IPO plans, and Indus' potential buyback plans will be the key things to watch out for in 1QFY26.

Tariff hike impact largely in the base; subscriber trends improving

The flow-through of the Jul'24 tariff hike has shown divergent trends across telcos, with Bharti registering 16% wireless ARPU growth since 1QFY25, compared to lower growth of ~12-13% for RJio and Vi. Given one extra day QoQ in 1QFY26, we expect a modest sequential ARPU uptick, with RJio likely to lead with ~2% QoQ ARPU growth (INR210), followed by ~1% QoQ growth for Bharti (INR248) and Vi (INR165). Wireless net adds continue to improve for private telcos, with RJio (~+8m) and Bharti (+3.5m) continuing to gain market share at Vi's (-1m) expense. Overall, we expect ~3%/2% QoQ growth in wireless revenue for RJio/Bharti, while Vi's wireless revenue could remain flat QoQ. Among Bharti's other businesses, we expect strong growth to continue in Homes (+8% QoQ), driven by FWA ramp-up, while Enterprise revenue is expected to further decline ~2% QoQ due to the rationalization of low-margin businesses. We expect Bharti's reported consolidated revenue to rise ~1.5% QoQ to INR486b.

Margin expansion to take a pause; RJio likely to be the biggest gainer

With the bulk of tariff hike benefits in the base, Bharti's incremental margins could revert to ~65% in 1QFY26 (vs. over 85% in the past two quarters). Overall, we expect RJio to be the biggest gainer in 1Q with ~4% QoQ EBITDA growth, followed by 2.5-3% QoQ for Bharti Airtel and Hexacom respectively. Given the commencement of Vi's network rollouts and continued subscriber losses, we expect ~2% QoQ decline in Vi's reported EBITDA, with pre-Ind AS EBITDA moderating to ~INR21.8b (from INR23.2b QoQ). Bharti's reported consolidated EBITDA is likely to improve ~1% QoQ to INR273b, as higher growth in the Africa and Homes businesses is expected to be offset by weaker performance in the Enterprise business and the absence of prior-period reversals for Indus (vs. INR2.3b QoQ).

Indus to benefit from contribution from Bharti's acquired towers; buyback likely in 2Q

We expect Indus' recurring EBITDA (excluding provisions and one-offs) to rise ~4% QoQ, driven by the full benefit of Bharti's acquired towers (vs. eight days in 4QFY25) and robust tenancy additions from Vi's ongoing rollout. We do not expect any bad debt provision reversals in 1QFY26 (vs. ~INR2.3b QoQ). Despite strong FCF generation in FY25, Indus had deferred decision on returning cash to shareholders. We expect the company to undertake a share buyback, likely after Sep'25.

Muted 1Q for TCOM; digital growth and margin recovery key monitorables

We expect ~10% YoY (~1% QoQ) growth in data revenue for TCOM, driven primarily by robust ~16% YoY growth in the digital portfolio. Consolidated EBITDA margin is expected to expand ~65bp QoQ to ~19.4% (though still ~95bp lower YoY).

Limited upside across the board after recent strong run-up

Given the consolidated market structure in the Indian telecom industry, higher data consumption, lower ARPU, and inadequate returns generated by telcos, we expect at least one more tariff reset. We continue to build in a ~15% tariff hike (or INR50/month on the base plan) in Dec'25. However, beyond the next headline tariff hike, we believe the industry should consider the change in tariff construct to usage-based plans.

We continue to prefer Bharti (improved FCF, deleveraging) and RIL (market share gains, potential listing of consumer businesses) in the telecom space. However, following the strong run-up, further re-rating is contingent on higher LT ARPU growth (vs. our assumption of ~6% CAGR over FY28-35E). Gol's recent equity conversions have provided another lifeline for Vi. However, we remain concerned about Vi's long-term competitiveness given its continued subscriber losses and reiterate our SELL rating on Vi.

Bharti Airtel*Buy*CMP: INR 2,019 | TP: INR2,200 (+9%)*EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|27: 1|1

- Expect modest ~2% QoQ revenue (~26% YoY) growth driven by India wireless, Homes, and Africa.
- Expect ~1% QoQ growth in consolidated EBITDA, as good show in Homes, Wireless, and Africa will be offset by weaker performance in Enterprise and the absence of prior period reversals in Indus.
- Expect ~2%/3% QoQ growth in India Wireless revenue/EBITDA.
- Expect wireless ARPU of INR248 (+1% QoQ) and 3.5m/5.5m paying wireless/4G net adds.

Soft quarter as power demand slows

- India's power sector witnessed a mixed start to FY26. Overall power generation fell by 2% YoY in 1QFY26 to 472.7 billion units (BUs), as a 17% jump in renewable generation was offset by a decline in conventional sources. In Apr-May'25, the country added 6.7GW of renewable capacity (largely solar) and 0.6GW of nuclear capacity, whereas thermal capacity fell by 6.9GW as aging coal and gas plants were phased out. While current demand remains soft, peak demand months have shown great variability historically, and power demand could bounce back in the coming months.
- For ACME Solar, we expect EBITDA to jump 64% YoY/2% QoQ, supported by incremental contributions from 350MW of newly commissioned capacity during the quarter (comprising 300MW of solar and 50MW of wind). JSW Energy's EBITDA is anticipated to grow 52% QoQ/69% YoY, driven by a full-quarter contribution from the KSK Mahanadi acquisition and Utkal Unit 2 (350MW). This growth is further supported by the full-quarter contribution from ~478MW of organic wind capacity commissioned in 4QFY25, alongside partial contributions from O2 Power, ~215MW of solar and 66MW of wind capacity commissioned in 1QFY26. NTPC is likely to achieve adjusted PAT growth of 5% YoY, driven by Ayana's operational assets and an expected additional ~0.6GW RE expansion in installed capacity at the standalone level in 1QFY26. We expect IEX to report revenue/EBITDA growth of 14%/17% YoY, underpinned by an 18% YoY increase in electricity volumes to ~33.2BUs in 1QFY26, led by robust demand in the real-time market (RTM) and green energy segments. Additionally, REC volumes are expected to surge ~150% YoY. TPWR's adjusted PAT is estimated to grow 32% YoY, driven by the commissioning of 752MW of solar capacity in 1QFY26, healthy Mundra PLF given the continuation of Section XI for coal plants, and steady performance from the Odisha distribution business. For PowerGrid, we estimate 6%/7% growth in EBITDA/adj. PAT, as capex and capitalization start picking up. SUEL's revenue/EBITDA are projected to improve 60%/64% YoY, as we build in deliveries of ~450MW of wind turbine orders in 1QFY26, representing a 65% YoY increase. INOX Wind's revenue/adj. PAT would improve 55%/22% YoY, supported by the execution of ~170MW of wind orders and the contribution from its new 2GW solar O&M contracts in 1QFY26.
- We have a BUY rating on JSW Energy, ACME Solar, and Suzlon and a Neutral stance on IEX and NTPC.

India's power generation – 2% decline in 1QFY26

- Total power generation in India declined 2% YoY in 1QFY26 to 472.7BUs.
- Generation from renewable sources grew 17% YoY to 75BUs, which was offset by a 5% YoY decline in generation from conventional sources to 397.7BUs.

Renewable additions offset decline in thermal and gas in Apr-May'25

- In Apr-May'25, the renewable energy sector added 6.7GW of power generation capacity — ~78% solar installations, 19% wind and 3% hydro. Nuclear capacity addition stood at 0.6GW.
- In contrast, thermal capacity (coal and gas) declined to 240GW in Apr-May'25 from 246.9GW in Mar'25.

- The nation's gas capacity totaled 20.1GW as of May'25 end, compared with 24.5GW as of Mar'25 end. India has phased out ~4.4GW of gas-fired power capacity (that became inoperable after being left idle for years Link).

Power demand growth slows amid high base, cooler weather

- Between FY22 and FY24, India witnessed power demand growth of 7-9% annually, driven by strong economic activity and rising consumption. However, in FY25, this momentum moderated, with demand growth easing to ~5%.
- In Apr-May'25, YoY growth further slowed by ~1.2%, primarily due to a high base from the previous year and relatively milder temperatures this year.
- In Apr-May'25, India's peak power demand declined to 235GW from 250GW in Apr-May'24.
- While current demand remains soft, peak demand months have shown great variability historically, and power demand could bounce back in the coming months.

Transmission and substation expansion falls short of targets in Apr-May'25

- During Apr-May'25, transmission line commissioning stood at 620ckm, achieving only 31% of the targeted 1,983ckm for the period.
- Substation capacity additions also fell short of targets, with 16,590 MVA commissioned against the planned 17,330 MVA.

IEX Neutral

CMP: INR193 | TP: INR209 (+8%) EPS CHANGE (%): FY26 | 27: 0 | 0

- IEX is projected to report revenue growth of 14% YoY to INR1.4b.
- EBITDA is expected to rise 17% YoY to INR1.2b.
- The positive outlook is driven by 18% YoY growth in electricity volumes to ~33,240MUs in 1QFY26, led by strong demand for RTM and green energy products. REC volumes may surge ~150% YoY.

- Recent developments at the company make us cautious about growth visibility. The company has discontinued lounge access programs with two banks, effective 1st Jul'25. Further, the company is now facing competition from airport operators.
- We expect revenue to grow 10.8% YoY in 1QFY26.
- The company's commentary in light of current developments will be the key to monitor. We expect a slight decline in its market share (currently at 68%), which could lead to lower volumes and potentially affect gross margin as well.

- Expect steady growth in the recruitment vertical to continue, driven by the non-IT segment. That said, we believe IT services still account for the lion's share of hiring and are critical to a sustained turnaround.
- Both 99acres and JeevanSathi businesses are nearing break-even levels, with profitability anticipated in FY26.
- For JeevanSathi, INFOE is targeting 20-25% growth in FY26E while gradually moving toward breakeven.
- The outlook on IT hiring and investee companies is the key monitorable.

- Revenue is expected to decline marginally by 1% YoY, due to slow restocking by channel partners.
- EBITDA margin is expected to contract 360bp YoY, impacted by 220bp decrease in gross margin and operating leverage.
- The company has invested in the East to sustain growth, but channel checks indicate weaker performance compared to the Western market.
- Demand trends and PVC prices remain key monitorable.

- Expect flat growth QoQ in 1QFY26. The NBFC-led headwinds in general staffing are expected to persist for this quarter as well.
- Margin recovery to remain gradual; margins should largely remain flat QoQ. FY26 exit is pegged at 2%.
- The overseas business is experiencing mixed trends, with visa delays creating headwinds in Singapore, while Malaysia is showing signs of recovery in IT staffing.
- Commentaries on IT staffing, GCC offerings, and margins would be the key monitorables.

- Expect low double-digit YoY growth in 1QFY26.
- International security is facing labor constraints, driving up labor costs. As a result, margin performance in this segment will need to be monitored.
- FM's business is expected to post mid-teens growth. An increasing share of solution-led contracts should offer structural margin improvements.
- Comments around the recovery in international business, client addition trends across industries, and margin guidance reaffirmations shall be closely monitored.

- Expect revenue growth of 5%/17% QoQ/YoY. BFSI remained mixed throughout FY25, but we believe the insourcing impact from the RBI circular is largely behind.
- Softer demand in IT hiring shall weigh on specialized staffing.
- We expect EBITDA margin to be around 1.1%, a 20bp improvement YoY.
- Commentaries on PAPM, IT hiring, and GCC trends will be important to monitor.

EPS CHANGE (%): FY26|FY27 : 0|0

- Revenue/EBITDA/PAT is likely to grow 9.1%/9.4%/17.3% YoY in 1QFY26, while EBITDA margin is likely to be 14.2%.
- While volume growth is expected to be healthy (double-digit), weak polymer prices will restrict value growth.
- We expect the Established Products segment's revenue to grow 6.1% YoY (73% of mix) with a 13.3% EBITDA margin.
- We expect VAP segment's revenue to grow 17.8% YoY (27% of mix) with an EBITDA margin of 18.5%.
- Increasing the share of VAP will be a key focus area.
