Buying Lifts Market Sentiment : Nifty eyes for new highs

Nifty index picked up strength from the lower levels and drove past 26100 zones in October. It exhibited persistent bullish momentum throughout, showcasing a classic uptrend with strong advances. Minor dips were followed by quick rallies which pushed the index higher displaying resilience as call writers unwounded positions near resistance of 25900 to 26100 zones. October's market breadth was mixed to positive, while the sectoral trend remained firmly bullish. Barring a slight decline in the Media sector, almost all other sectoral indices ended the month on a strong positive note. The PSU Bank, Realty, and Metal indices led the charge, emerging as the top performers of the month.

Technically, Nifty formed a bullish candle on the monthly chart and has started to form higher highs – higher lows from the last two months. Now the index needs follow up buying to decisively hold above the 26K level mark. For October series, positional supports are seen at 25350 and then 25000 zones, while on the up side move could be seen towards 26277 then 26500 zones.
