Highlights from the management commentary

- Cost of funds declined by 40-50bp in the current cycle of rate cuts, with further moderation expected, though competitive pricing pressures persist.
- Loan growth improved from ~5% last year to ~12% this year; outlook remains positive with continued focus on calibrated growth. Corporate lending was a key growth driver in 4Q, with the outlook remaining constructive.
- Deposits increased by ~INR2.5t, with over half of the year's deposits garnered in 4Q; accretion was skewed toward Feb-Mar amid improved systemic liquidity.
- With borrowings coming down, the NIM trajectory is bound to go upward.

Valuation and view: Reiterate BUY with a TP of INR1,100

HDFCB posted an in-line quarter, characterized by healthy business growth, NIM expansion and robust asset quality. Loan growth was healthy, led by corporate and SME loans, while retail loan growth was modest. Deposit growth was stellar at 14.4% YoY/8.6% QoQ. As a result, the CD ratio declined to 94.6%; we estimate CD ratio to decline toward 92% by FY28E in a calibrated manner. The bank maintains a contingency and floating provisions at INR157b and INR214b, respectively. We expect NIMs to see a gradual improvement, with gradual retirement of high-cost borrowings and an improvement in operating leverage, which will support return ratios over the coming years. We largely maintain our earnings estimates and expect HDFCB to deliver FY27E RoA/RoE of 1.84%/14.4%. Reiterate BUY with a TP of INR1,100 (2.3x Sep'27E ABV + INR135 for subs).

Highlights from the management commentary

Opening remarks by MD and CEO – Mr. Sashidhar Jagdishan

- Deposit growth at 14.4% continued to outpace credit growth and remained ahead of system growth.
- Faster transmission on asset yields vs. deposits led to a moderation in NIMs, while RoA remained stable at ~1.9%.
- The bank continues to add ~6-8m customers annually, with ~22% of the base aged below 30 years.
- Among the top two banks in MSME and mortgage segments.
- Strong capital position (19.7%) and resilient asset quality (1.15%), tested across multiple cycles.

Yields, cost and margins

- The change in borrowings is definitely positive. While the NIM outcome was not perfect as the 125bp repo rate cut was not anticipated. 70% of the book is floating rate, and the transmission does take place. TD growth was 15.5% YoY.
- Deposit repricing (40-50bp) after rate cuts has weighed on NIMs. The rate cut cycle is largely behind, with future direction dependent on geopolitical developments.
- With borrowings coming down, the NIM trajectory is bound to go upward.
- Some repricing of loan yields may happen.
- Cost of funds declined by 40-50bp in the current cycle of rate cuts, with further moderation expected, though competitive pricing pressures persist.

Deposits

- Deposits increased by ~INR2.5t, with over half of the year's deposits garnered in 4Q; accretion was skewed toward Feb-Mar amid improved systemic liquidity.
- Some wholesale deposits were raised in March; however, core retail deposits (including higher ticket sizes) are growing steadily and nearing wholesale levels.
- Strong customer additions and deeper relationships supported deposit mobilization.
- Retail deposits contribute ~80-85% of total; focus remains on granular term deposits. Granularity improved significantly: 74% growth in deposits <INR30m and 47% growth in incremental TDs.
- ~15% of deposits are relatively volatile and typically normalize toward period-end.
- Post-merger integration progress: share of liability accounts from erstwhile HDFC customers has increased from ~37% to ~49.50%.

Loans

- Corporate lending was a key growth driver in 4Q, with the outlook remaining constructive.
- Corporate demand remains healthy and sustainable, with expected traction across renewables, auto, and semiconductors despite near-term geopolitical uncertainties.

- Retail lending saw momentum across vehicle finance, personal loans, and business loans; mortgage demand remained steady. Retail formed ~53-54% of the loan book.
- Loan growth improved from ~5% last year to ~12% this year; outlook remains positive with continued focus on calibrated growth.
- System credit growth was expected at ~10.5-11% and came in better than estimates; the bank will pursue disciplined, risk-adjusted expansion.
- Strong traction across wheels, PL, and mortgages over the past three quarters; mortgage presence spans 7,800+ locations.
- Salary accounts continue to drive cross-selling opportunities. The bank is among the top-two players in mortgages and a leader in auto and retail lending.
- Gold loan portfolio is scaling up well; the bank continues to hold a strong position in MSME lending.

LDR and LCR

- LCR is targeted in the 110-120% range, with the bank operating around the midpoint.

Opex and other income

- Opex growth at ~7% was below loan growth; prior investments should help keep cost growth contained.
- Investment yields softened due to portfolio maturity mix and duration dynamics, alongside geopolitical factors.
- Treasury performance was impacted by FX movements, lower spreads, and unwinding effects.
- Third-party distribution income remained subdued due to modest volumes and unfavorable mix.

Asset quality

- The bank continues to report industry-leading asset quality, particularly in the mortgage portfolio.

Valuation and view: Reiterate Buy with a TP of INR1,100

- HDFCB posted an in-line quarter, characterized by healthy business growth, NIM expansion and robust asset quality. Loan growth was healthy, led by corporate and SME loans, while retail loan growth was modest.
- Deposit growth was stellar at 14.4% YoY/8.6% QoQ. As a result, the CD ratio declined to 94.6%; we estimate the CD ratio to decline toward 92% by FY28E in a calibrated manner.
- The bank has maintained its contingency and floating provisions at INR157b and INR214b, respectively.
- We expect NIMs to see a gradual improvement, with gradual retirement of high-cost borrowings, along with an improvement in operating leverage, which will support return ratios over the coming years.
- We largely maintain our earnings estimates and expect HDFCB to deliver FY27E RoA/RoE of 1.84%/14.4%. Reiterate BUY with a TP of INR1,100 (2.3x Sep'27E ABV + INR135 for subs).
