Strategic reset underway

- Raymond Lifestyle (RLL) delivered a decent 1QFY27 performance, with EBITDA at INR898m beating our estimate by 21%, supported by strong garmenting performance and ongoing cost rationalization.
- Garmenting emerged as the new growth driver, supported by a robust order book through Dec'26, improving export diversification and early benefits from the India-UK FTA. Higher utilization and cost-plus contracts should support further margin expansion.
- FY27 is likely to remain a consolidation year for branded businesses as the company prioritizes store rationalization, premiumization and channel productivity, with domestic demand recovery expected to be gradual.
- While garmenting is emerging as a meaningful growth driver, sustainable improvements in profitability will depend on recovery in the branded businesses and execution of the ongoing network optimization strategy.
- We trim our pre-IND-AS EBITDA estimates by 9-12% over FY27/28 and build in a CAGR of 7%/12%/19% in revenue/pre-IND-AS EBITDA/PAT over FY26-29E.
- We maintain BUY with a TP of INR880, based on 20x Sep'28 EPS. At ~15x FY28E EPS, the current valuation provides reasonable downside support as the company executes its ongoing transformation.

Garmenting outperformance offsets weakness in the core business

- Consolidated revenue grew 6% YoY to INR15.2b (in line with our est.).
- Branded textile segment's revenue declined 2% YOY (6% miss), whereas revenue from branded apparel grew ~4% YoY (12% miss). Garmenting revenue surged 50% YoY (25% beat), driven by execution of a healthy export order book.
- RLL closed net 26 stores in 1Q, bringing the total retail store network to 1,627.
- Gross profit grew 5% YoY to INR6.8b (6% miss), while gross margin contracted ~25bp YoY to 43% (103bp above our estimate).
- EBITDA grew to INR898m (21% beat) with EBITDA margin expanding 54bp YoY to 5.9% (vs. our estimate of 4.9%).
- Depreciation and amortization jumped 23% YoY (up 19% vs. our est.), while finance costs rose 10% YoY (56% up).
- Reported PAT loss stood at INR226m (vs. estimate of INR92m loss), primarily due to a higher effective tax rate.

Highlights from the management commentary

- Garmenting remained the key growth engine, with revenue up 50% YoY, driven by US tariff normalization and new UK/European customer additions. Capacity is fully booked through Dec'26, while the UK FTA is beginning to support orders, providing healthy near-term visibility despite an uncertain global trade environment.

Research Analyst: Aditya Bansal - (Aditya.Bansal@MotilalOswal.com) | Avinash Karumanchi (Avinash.Karumanchi@MotilalOswal.com)
Research Analyst: Siddhesh Chaudhari (Siddhesh.Chaudhari@MotilalOswal.com) | Niraj Harwande (Niraj.Harwande@MotilalOswal.com)

- Margin pressures remained well contained despite sharp raw material inflation. Gross margin decline (35bp) was largely mix-led, while EBITDA margin expanded 40bp. Procurement initiatives, calibrated price hikes, higher utilization and a company-wide cost transformation program are expected to support further margin improvement.
- The broader portfolio is undergoing structural repositioning through store rationalization, premiumization, casualization, export diversification and an asset-light ethnic wear strategy. These initiatives underpin the company's aspiration to at least double its revenue over the next five years while growing EBITDA faster than revenue.

Valuation and view

- RLL's cash-generating textile franchise continues to fund investments in branded businesses, while garmenting is emerging as the second growth engine, aided by improving global sourcing trends and export opportunities from trade agreements.
- FY27 is likely to remain a consolidation year for branded apparel, with a focus on store rationalization, premiumization, channel productivity and profitable growth rather than network expansion.
- Store rationalization, cost transformation and operating leverage should drive ~100bp EBITDA margin expansion over FY26-28E, although a meaningful recovery in domestic branded demand is likely to be gradual.
- We trim our pre-Ind AS EBITDA estimates by 9-12% over FY27-28E to reflect a slower recovery in branded businesses. We now build in a CAGR of 7%/12%/19% in revenue/pre-Ind AS EBITDA/PAT over FY26-29E.
- We maintain BUY with a TP of INR880, based on 20x Sep'28E EPS. At ~15x FY28E EPS, the current valuation provides reasonable downside support as the company executes its ongoing transformation.

Segmental performance

- Branded Textiles: Revenue declined 2% YoY to INR6.8b (6% miss). EBITDA declined 11% YoY to INR951m (in line), with margins contracting 140bp YoY to 13.9%, impacted by scale deleverage and high raw material costs, although management highlighted that the product mix remained resilient despite inflationary pressure.
- Branded Apparel: Revenue grew 4% YoY to INR3.5b (12% miss), impacted by network consolidation. EBITDA fell 32% YoY to INR178m, with margins contracting 270bp YoY to 5.1%.
  - The company has carved out Emerging Businesses (Ethnix, Raymond Home, Park Avenue Innerwear, Chairman's Collection and Sexual Wellness) as a separate reporting segment from this quarter.
  - Consequently, Branded Apparel margins are not directly comparable with prior periods, as losses from these investment businesses are now reported separately, resulting in a cleaner representation of the core apparel business.
- Emerging Businesses: Revenue grew 9% YoY to INR790m, led by healthy traction in Raymond Home and Innerwear, while the segment remained in investment mode with an EBITDA loss of INR190m (vs. INR130m loss in 1QFY26).
- Garmenting: Revenue surged 50% YoY to INR3.0b (25% beat), driven by execution of a healthy export order book following the US-India tariff rationalization and onboarding of new global customers. The segment reported EBITDA of INR216m (vs. INR81m loss in 1QFY26), with margins expanding to 7.3%, reflecting improved operating leverage.
- High-Value Cotton Shirting: Revenue declined 5% YoY to INR2.0b (7% miss). EBITDA increased 2% YoY to INR189m (7% beat), while margins expanded 60bp YoY to 9.7%, supported by an improved product mix despite higher raw material prices.

Highlights from the management commentary

- Garmenting: Revenue grew 50% YoY, driven by US tariff normalization and new UK/European customer additions. Capacity is fully booked through Dec'26, with bookings now open for Jan'27 onward, providing strong revenue visibility. Higher utilization and cost-plus contracts should support margins, although the pace of recovery will depend on export demand and the mix between higher-margin suits and lower-margin shirts.
- Exports: Geographic diversification continues, with the US mix recovering to ~60% (from ~55% during tariffs), while the UK (~12%) and Europe (~7-8%) gain share. UK orders have started benefiting from the FTA, whereas Europe remains at the enquiry/sampling stage, with meaningful order conversion expected over the next 6-9 months.
- Apparel: Segment growth remained subdued (+4% YoY) due to store closures, an unfavorable wedding calendar and weaker formalwear demand. RLL continues to rationalize unprofitable stores. FY27 is expected to see net store closures as consolidation continues, while LFS and e-commerce are increasingly driving apparel sales.
- Ethnicwear: The business is shifting premium sherwanis (>INR75k) to a made-to-measure model while expanding entry-level products through TRS stores, marketplaces and D2C. The strategy aims to improve inventory productivity, expand distribution at low capital intensity and enhance customer customization.
- Margin: Gross margin declined 35bp due to an adverse mix, as lower-margin garment exports outpaced domestic suiting, while EBITDA margin expanded 40bp. The company absorbed raw material inflation in 1QFY27 through forward bookings and expects calibrated price hikes from 2QFY27, alongside ongoing cost optimization, to protect margins.
- Cost inflation: Wool (+100% YoY), cotton/flax (+20%) and chemicals (+30%) remain elevated. Raymond expects to broadly protect textile margins through vendor diversification, higher domestic sourcing, freight consolidation, company-wide cost transformation and calibrated price hikes (5-6% apparel; 7-9% fabrics), with minimal impact on demand.
- Cost transformation: A company-wide transformation program is targeting procurement, manufacturing, logistics, media spending, manpower productivity and working capital to unlock structural cost savings, improve asset utilization and enhance cash generation.
- RLL targets to at least double its revenue over the next five years and grow EBITDA at a faster pace, supported by mix improvement, structural cost savings and productivity gains.
